Fourteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

JULY 3, 2022

Isaiah 66:10-14c; Galatians 6:14-18;

Luke 10:1-12,17-20

A theme of joy pervades the texts of today's Mass. The joy comes from the proclamation of Good News. What is the "Good News?" In its essence, it is that God loves us, that he will see us through any crisis, and that he promises us everlasting joy.

The first reading is from the very last chapter of Isaiah. Isaiah sees the joy and peace which will come with God's Messiah. All nations will be united; all will worship together; all will be prosperous; there will be peace. God will triumph.

Isaiah expected that this would happen shortly after the return of the exiles from Babylon; it didn't happen that way. But still we must have hope. The Responsorial Psalm echoes the reading: Let all the earth cry out to God with joy. Proclaim the marvelous deeds of the Lord; think of the blessings he has given you.

The Gospel is the story of Jesus' sending out seventy-two disciples to be his heralds on his way to Jerusalem. They are to proclaim that the reign of God is at hand. When the disciples return, Jesus rejoices even though he is on his way to Jerusalem to suffer and die. He rejoices because he sees Satan fall from heaven. He rejoices because the power of evil will be broken. He rejoices because eternal joy awaits in heaven.

The second reading tells us that we must never boast except in the cross of Christ. This seems strange. We want joy and happiness, yet we are to glory only in the cross! But it is only by our willingness to empty ourselves in sharing the cross of Christ that we shall conquer evil and find true joy.

Why are we sad? Why are we depressed? If we realize that God loves us, that he will always win, and that he will give us eternal life, how can we remain sad? Let us rejoice in God's Good News. Let us live in peace.

Fourteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time, July 3, 2022

Dear Parishioners,

I don't know about you, but I'm not ready for this particular weekend. If you are asking why, then you don't understand that this weekend marks the halfway mark of summer vacation. That means half is over and we only have another half to enjoy before school starts up again. Hate to be a downer but I'm living in reality and wanted to share this reality with all of you.

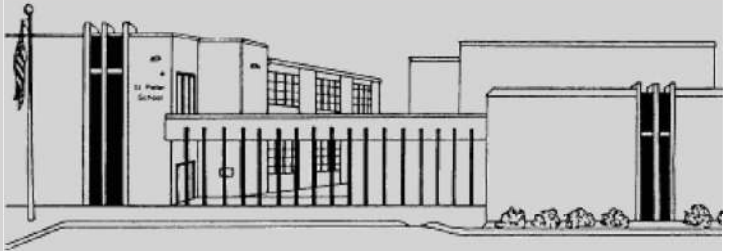

Anyway, this weekend we welcome Fr. Zachary Samples into the St. Peter Parish family as our new parochial vicar. Not only am I confident that he will serve us well, but he also will assist me as a chaplain at Quincy Notre Dame. Apparently I'm not getting any younger as I age so he will be a big help as we try to minister at QND. So this weekend, I ask you to welcome Fr. Samples to our parish, introduce yourselves, and welcome him as our new parochial vicar.

On this particular weekend with personnel changes becoming effective throughout the diocese, our gospel for this weekend is quite appropriate. In our gospel we hear that Jesus appointed seventy two whom He sent ahead of Him in pairs to every town and places He intended to visit. Then He states: "The harvest is abundant but the laborers are few; so ask the master of the house to send out laborers for His harvest." A good question we can ask ourselves is when was the last time that each of us prayed for more vocations to the priesthood? Each parish assumes that they will have a priest, but how many parishes have been encouraging, supporting, and praying for more vocations to the priesthood? I would venture to say not many as we just presume that priests will be provided. But if we do not promote vocations in our homes and our parishes, these vocations will become less and less, and then we have no priests to send into the harvest. So I challenge each of you to make it a point to pray for vocations. I firmly believe that God is calling some young men here at St. Peter Parish to become priests like Fr. Samples. Remember the words of Isaiah who was confronted with the words, "Whom shall I send?" To which Isaiah responded, "Here I am Lord, send me." Please pray for more vocations.

This Monday, July 4, is Independence Day and a national holiday. Our country is blessed with many freedoms that we often take for granted. Unfortunately, it is also home to violence, lack of respect for people and opinions, and often a double standard for justice. In spite of these flaws, it is still a country blessed. In that spirit of blessedness, I encourage you to come and celebrate our Eucharist together, thanking God for His blessings upon our country. Our Mass for that day will be at 8:00 a.m. Happy Fourth of July to all!

Next weekend, July 9-10, we will have the collection for Catholic Charities of Quincy. You have special envelopes in your packet of parish envelopes for this collection. Catholic Charities does so much in our community, providing so many special services representing our Church and our morals. I ask you to please be generous. We will hopefully be having speakers from Catholic Charities who will outline for us the ministry and service that this organization provides for our community. Remember the words of Jesus, "Whatever you do for the least of your brothers and sisters, you do for me." Please be generous.

The School of St. Peter

Week of July 3, 2022

A Message from Mrs. Cindy Venvertloh

"St. Peter School provides a quality education built on Catholic values and teachings."

SPECIAL LANDING AT ST. PETER SCHOOL

Penny Robertson, one of our wonderful grandparents, provided the students at St. Peter with the opportunity to learn about the Air Evac Lifeteam. At the close of the school year our students experienced the helicopter landing in the field next to Seton Hall. The Air Evac team spent time answering many questions for all of our students. Mr. Isaac Harrison, one of our amazing dads, just happened to be the pilot who flew in to greet us! Although the landing was loud and windy the children enjoyed this special opportunity to learn about this service in our community for those who are in need of immediate medical transportation.

HIRING AFTERNOON DAYCARE HELPERS

We are so excited to have Miss Madison Ippensen as our Daycare Director. It is sure to be a great year ahead and a great service for our parents to take advantage of after school daycare. Now that we have a director we are looking for adults to help her with all of the students who decide to attend. St. Peter School is hiring daycare workers to supervise students varying from preschool 4's-8th grade during the St. Peter School after school program from 2:15-5:30, Monday-Friday. Applicants must love children and enjoy supervising and working closely with them.

Rate of pay per hour is $13.00.

If you are interested, send a resume along with 2-3 letters of recommendation to Mrs. Cindy Venvertloh at 2500 Maine Street, Quincy, IL 62301 or c.venvertloh@cospq.org.

Fr. Leo's column continued..

One of the traditions of the Church has always been to visit and bring Holy Communion to the shut-ins of the parish. However, since COVID, this dreadful disease caused us to pause this tradition, as parishioners were reluctant to have visitors in their homes for fear of catching this virus. Now that things have been relaxed, we are beginning to initiate this practice once again. At this point in time, our parish nurse is collecting names of people who might want this ministry. We don't want to miss anyone, so if you are interested in a visit and Holy Communion, please call the Parish Office and give us your name and address.

Parishioners have asked me when we will return to the distribution of the Precious Blood of Christ at Holy Communion. My answer is that I really don't know. We are just now getting parishioners back to Church. Even at diocesan celebrations, the priests receive from the cup by way of intinction rather than drinking from the cup itself. Let's hope and pray that it will not be long in coming.

Bishop Paprocki to Offer Mass at Tolton's Grave

On July 9, to commemorate the 125th anniversary of the death of the Venerable Servant of God Augustine Tolton, Bishop Paprocki will lead a procession from St. Peter's Church to Father Tolton's grave in St. Peter cemetery, where he will offer the Holy Mass.

The procession will begin at 10:00 a.m. and the Mass will begin at 11:00 a.m. at the cemetery. Those unable to take part in the roughly mile-long procession route may park near the cemetery (but not in the cemetery, due to lack of space) for the Mass. Chairs and bottled water will be available, but it may be good to bring your own. All are welcome to join the procession and/or the Mass.

To help with planning we ask that you sign up on the sign-up sheet in the Narthex to get a rough estimate of how many people will attend.
