Today we celebrate the 15th Sunday in Ordinary Time. In the gospel story today we hear the story of the Good Samaritan. Jesus tells this story as an illustration of how we are called to love our neighbor. The Good Samaritan goes above and beyond to meet the needs of a stranger. Jesus tells us, "Go and do likewise." May the Lord help us to recognize when someone in our midst is in need of our help.

Today we will have a second collection for Quincy Catholic Charities. This is their Annual Quincy Catholic Charities appeal. Please consider a generous donation to our local Quincy Catholic Charities.

Finally, next Sunday, July 17, will be our Annual Coop Mission Appeal. This year we are welcoming the Maryknoll Missionaries. Fr. Douglas May will be our guest from Maryknoll, as he shares with us about the good work being done by his community of Maryknoll Missionaries.

Please extend to Fr. May our typical Blessed Sacrament hospitality, and consider a generous gift to the Maryknoll Missionaries.

May the Peace of Christ be with you all,

Fr. Tom

Dearest Blessed Sacrament Parishioners,

As you already know, I will be retiring as Blessed Sacrament Catholic School principal effective August 1, 2022. Thus, I wanted to take this opportunity to thank all of you for the blessings you have bestowed on me and our school during my seven wonderful years as principal of our amazing school. I cannot begin to thank you enough for your unwavering support, friendly smiles, positive words of encouragement, unending love you always conveyed to our students, staff and parents, and most especially I thank you for your prayers. Blessed Sacrament Parish and School are truly "family-like" communities and I could not have been more grateful and honored to have served as principal of our school. My 45-year career as an educator has been a beautiful journey with the last seven years bringing me more JOY than I had ever imagined possible. Thank you to each of you who have touched my life so deeply and contributed to this JOY. I will be forever grateful.

Blessed Sacrament Catholic School will be in wonderful hands with the new principal, Lisa Berhorst. Lisa, her husband B.J., and their seven children are parishioners and also members of our school family. She is absolutely lovely! Smart, dedicated, passionate about our school, loves children, and lives her Catholic Faith are just a few of her beautiful assets. You will LOVE her! Please pray for Lisa, her family, and our school.

Again, I thank you for being one of the very best parts of my life's journey. You are simply the BEST! God truly blessed my life when HE introduced me to Blessed Sacrament.

With gratitude, much love, and many hugs,

Christie Bliven
