"On The Q/T..."

From the book, A Simple Path, Mother Teresa, by Lucinda Varney: "What is not widely understood is why Mother Teresa and the women and men of her order live the way they do - and whether, in this age of complication and confusion, she has anything relevant and accessible to say to those searching for a better way of life at the end of the twentieth century..."

On to the question from Fr. Tony:

Did I ever tell you about the day I rode my bike back from the eye doctor, so pleased and satisfied that I could see so much better with my new glasses. Then my eye started itching, and I put my finger right through where the lenses were supposed to be in the frame: no lenses! And most of the way home, I thought I could see better! We think we see the world and people around us so clearly, but a certain set of lenses is missing: our own suffering, our hurts, our rude awakenings from life's unwelcome surprises. Try those lenses on: now, you see others in their suffering, hurts, and rude awakenings. So how about this question: What does your world...what do the people around you...need? Now that some real lenses allow you to see them better?

PASTORAL CARE VISITATION: COMMUNION TO THE SICK AND HOMEBOUND This is one of two things we had better address right away. Whether, as a parishioner who's already offered yourself to this ministry, or as one who senses a call to begin: let's see who wants to help out in this area of our Church life. By now, you know we have rules. You should love the Mass and be there without fail, except for dire circumstances keeping you from the Eucharist; your moral life and behavior should be exemplary, supported by the sacrament of Confession; and while divorce itself doesn't prevent you from being an extraordinary minister of Holy Communion, re-marriage outside the Church without annulment from the previous marriage does. Be aware: when we visit nursing homes or hospitals, we're bound to wear masks - can't change that. When we visit homes, we have to respect the wishes of the resident, whose preference could go either way. Please contact the Rectory and let us know of your renewed or recent interest. We'll take it from there!

ROSARY AND DIVINE MERCY CHAPLET ON FACEBOOK This is the other of the two things we had better address right away. Fr. Tony is very recently getting acquainted with Facebook, from what I hear. And I should know: I'm Fr. T!! But at home, on the road, or at various locations, there's no way a single priest can make better use of time and availability than by having a group to help out with what has turned out to be a feature that's here to stay. So while Fr. Tony is getting familiar with Facebook, please contact the Rectory and let us know of your interest.

REMEMBER? I heard you say it: "Father, let us know if there's anything, anything at all, we can do to help you." OK. Here it comes. And that's what you said.

BUS DRIVER UPDATE We are happy to announce that we're there...almost! We have two drivers willing to share the responsibility for driving the school bus; both have said that they don't want to have the job alone. So...how about two more? Somebody out there, please. And if anybody has a name to pass on to me so that I can ask directly, let's hear it! I know, and I've heard, how important it is to people, that they be asked. Hope to hear from you!

HE CAN COME BACK, YOU KNOW Like we said this past weekend: if you'd like to see whether Fr. Szydlik is available for a baptism, a wedding, or a funeral, we can sure give it a try. So much depends on time and distance: Fr. Tony might have to stand in for anything the prior evening, such as a wake service during visitation or a wedding rehearsal. But if Fr. S. is available, we'll make it work! (His 20th anniversary is coming up in the spring of 2023. I've already told him that if he wants to share the celebration in our direction, we're ready!)

SAVE THE DATE...OUTDOOR MOVIE NIGHT will be on SATURDAY, JULY 30, at the St. Mary's parking lot. Rain date is Saturday, August 6. Watch the bulletin for more details!!!

SACRAMENTS ARE COMING!!! Parents of children who are eligible to receive the Sacraments of 1st Reconciliation/1st Holy Communion or Confirmation should have received preparation packets in the mail. If you believe your child could have received these sacraments during the 2021-22 school year but have not yet received the packet, please contact Barb Drozd at 217-242-2189 or drozdzi@msn.com or outreach@hancockcountycatholic.org. Thank you!

A Spiritual Communion

My Jesus, I believe that You are in the Blessed Sacrament. I love you above all things, and I long for You in my soul. Since I cannot now receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. As though You have already come, I embrace You and unite myself entirely to You; never permit me to be separated from You. Amen.
