"On the Q/T..."

From the book, A Simple Path, Mother Teresa of Calcutta, by Lucinda Varney: Our understanding of "faith" as Catholics is that it is a supernatural virtue infused in the soul. It's as if this virtue is a power, an ability....Without faith, we are not able to believe in things that are mysteries and that are beyond our capacity to comprehend.... As we grow into adulthood, we need to penetrate them, to understand them more, so that it becomes more credible.

On to the question from Fr. Tony:

Have you ever seen people who aren't satisfied with anything less than sitting down, taking their time, and figuring things out for themselves, no matter how long it takes? Some of us know people here, past and present, who made livelihoods out of doing just that. Notice one thing, though: what they couldn't figure out didn't mean they could walk away, or change whatever they were working on. The mystery remained the mystery in whatever they were figuring out. And it wouldn't be figured out by their walking away.

So how about this question: What teaching of the Catholic Church have you walked away from, instead of grappling with it, staying with it, understanding it - even being able to give your faith to it...while the understanding isn't there...for as long as it takes? That...takes faith!

OPERATIONS COORDINATOR FOR THE HANCOCK COUNTY CATHOLIC CHURCHES We welcome Mrs. Erin Cuthbert to our position of Operations Coordinator and look forward to benefiting from her extensive preparation and experience in serving the church in this capacity. (As of this moment, we are awaiting word about finalizing the position of CCD Coordinator - can you wait a week on that one? Please!)

JULY 1ST MADE IT OFFICIAL In the midst of the farewell we had to experience for Fr. Szydluk's departure, we didn't forget that we had to acknowledge yet one more. With the beginning of the fiscal year, Lisa Gray has completed her service and her ministry as principal of SPPS. We've said it before: the rapidity of change in education itself, in the policies of our diocesan offices, and in the advances in teaching have been enormous, almost overwhelming. Thank you, Lisa, for what amounts to pioneering efforts through which we have been and will be learning. Enjoy your time away from the responsibilities you've shouldered for us. But, hey - for those of us still snowed under them: don't rub it in!! We know we'll be seeing you around. Still, and always: Thank You!!

AFTER ROE V. WADE: BE PREPARED You never know when or where: protestors of the Roe v. Wade Supreme Court decision can show up at the doors of our churches. Peaceful protests are never a problem; we realize that people disagree about the Church's position on a number of teachings. But lurking behind just about everything today is the threat of violence. We're not expecting anything to happen here, but we're not waiting to come up with a course of action if anything unexpectedly should happen. Therefore, as parishioners and participants at the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass, we ask you to adhere to the following: first, try not to engage with such protestors; second, follow the directions of local law enforcement; third, do not respond to media, because it's best to have a single spokesperson, and that should be the pastor; fourth, everyone, be aware. Have you ever been goaded into an argument that served as a pretext for its escalation? Weapons of patience and peace, please, on the part of all of us. – Fr. T.

NFP AWARENESS WEEK From July 22-30, we celebrate NFP Awareness Week this year. The theme this year is "Called to the Joy of Love, Natural Family Planning, Supporting God's Gifts of Love and Life in Marriage." For education and information, see U.S. Bishops, Married Love and the Gift of Life at usccb.org/issues-and-action/marriage-and-family/natural-family-planning-catholic-teaching/upload/Married-Love-and-the-Gift-Life-English-version.pdf. Also, National NFP Awareness Week/USCCB. (Now...you're not getting this from a tech expert! So if anything goes wrong following the above directions, go to the USCCB website, plain and simple - the way "he" likes it!)

FROM BISHOP TYLKA: "As Bishop of Peoria, I call upon all people of goodwill to support the efforts that uphold the dignity of human life, especially those efforts that offer material, emotional, and spiritual support to families and to women with unplanned pregnancies, as well as efforts to offer ongoing support and care for children." Thank you, Bishop Tylka, for your stand on defending and advancing the culture of life as upheld by our Catholic Church!

25TH AND 50TH ANNIVERSARY? THE DIOCESE WOULD LIKE TO KNOW On September 25, 2022, at 3:30 p.m. Bishop Tylka will celebrate a Mass at the Cathedral of St. Mary for couples who are celebrating either their 25th or 50th wedding anniversary in 2022. The Bishop would like to personally invite you to this Mass! Please let the Rectory know your full name, address, and date of your wedding. We'll forward your names and contact information.

PASTORAL CARE VISITATION: COMMUNION TO THE SICK AND HOMEBOUND This is one of two things we had better address right away. Whether, as a parishioner who's already offered yourself to this ministry, or as one who senses a call to begin: let's see who wants to help out in this area of our Church life. By now, you know we have rules. You should love the Mass and be there without fail, except for dire circumstances keeping you from the Eucharist; your moral life and behavior should be exemplary, supported by the sacrament of Confession; and while divorce itself doesn't prevent you from being an extraordinary minister of Holy Communion, re-marriage outside the Church without annulment from the previous marriage does. Be aware: when we visit nursing homes or hospitals, we're bound to wear masks - can't change that. When we visit homes, we have to respect the wishes of the resident, whose preference could go either way. Please contact the Rectory and let us know of your renewed or recent interest. We'll take it from there!

ROSARY AND DIVINE MERCY CHAPLET ON FACEBOOK This is the other of the two things we had better address right away. Fr. Tony is very recently getting acquainted with Facebook, from what I hear. And I should know: I'm Fr. T!! But at home, on the road, or at various locations, there's no way a single priest can make better use of time and availability than by having a group to help out with what has turned out to be a feature that's here to stay. So while Fr. Tony is getting familiar with Facebook, please contact the Rectory and let us know of your interest.

MASS, DINNER, AND MOVIE UNDER THE STARS – Join us for Mass at 5:30 p.m. followed by dinner and then a movie under the stars!!! Table service, tacos, and all the fixings will be provided. Please bring a dish to share. At dusk, we'll watch the first two episodes of the first season of The Chosen. ALL ARE INVITED to attend any portion of or the entire evening!!!

WHEN: Saturday, July 30, 2022 (rain date 8/6/22)

WHERE: St. Mary's, Hamilton

BRING: A dish to share (if attending dinner), beverages, and lawn chairs or blanket (if attending movie)

TIMES: Mass at 5:30 p.m. • Dinner at 6:30 p.m. • Movie at dusk (approximately 7:40 p.m.)
