August 28, 2022 Twenty-Second Sunday in Ordinary Time

A Message from Fr. Tom Donovan:

I write this message on Tuesday, before leaving for the Holy Land. Please thank Fr. Blickhan and Fr. Zimmerman for kindly being available in the parish while I am away.

On Saturday, our tour will be in the north, in Galilee, visiting Mt. Tabor, the site of the Transfiguration, and then on Sunday, starting at the Jordan River, before having Mass at Stella Maris Church at Mt. Carmel, then proceeding “up” to Bethlehem and Jerusalem.

During this coming week, we will not have daily Masses at St. Anthony Church in order to allow the carpets to be cleaned. During the same time, I expect that most of the work on our south parking lot will be completed. In the meantime, Masses will continue at St. Dominic School and at Good Samaritan Home. Please park behind the church and use the north entrance of the Parish Hall to access the Parish Office, which remains on regular hours this week (8 a.m. to 3 p.m.).

In the time of Jesus, meals were very important, not only for the purposes of finding nourishment, but as we find this week in the Gospel, as a way to affirm and broadcast one’s status within the community. We see vestiges of this behavior in formal meals which are more and more rare in our society. Sometimes we hear of the “state dinners” held at the White House or Buckingham Palace, where world leaders gather, arranged by rank (dinner hosts, followed by visiting heads of state, ambassadors, aides, etc.), and we are amazed or confused by the function of each of a half-dozen forks presented at each place-setting. Our contemporary wedding feasts and other formal social occasions have lost many of the cues and distinctions that separate and rank guests in the desire for simplicity and to limit social stratification...which is probably a good thing

All things being equal, it would be an honor to be invited to dine with a Pharisee. Jesus’ invitation to such a meal would be a validation, in some ways, of His ministry. But the first line of the Gospel tells us that Jesus was being tested: “The people were observing him carefully.” How might Jesus use this opportunity to teach?

Jesus takes this opportunity to explain some very relevant social theory which remains rooted in the all-too-human games of self-importance that we play. What is “true honor”? One does not gain honor by jockeying for position at the table...by estimating their social “place” and neither sitting too high or too low for that status. How embarrassing to be publicly rebuked for thinking themselves “too high”! While there would be an affirmation of esteem by being called higher, there would also be a bit of embarrassment of remaining a bit too friendly with those who were “beneath them.”

Jesus points to where true honor lies...it’s not in social convention or in places of honor, but in doing justice. “When you hold a lunch or dinner, do not invite your friends or brothers or your relatives or your wealthy neighbors in case they might invite you back and you have repayment.” The fatal flaw in giving gifts, in giving honors, in being “grand” in social occasions is to obligate oneself to “the game” of being repaid. “Rather, invite the poor, the crippled, the lame, the blind; blessed indeed you will be...you will be repaid at the resurrection of the righteous.” (Remember, Pharisees did believe in the resurrection, unlike the Sadducees and many others...so Jesus is intentionally calling out His host and putting him on the spot!) Might this be the paragon of rudeness, that Jesus, who is only a guest, is telling His host who should be invited to the meal? Perhaps it was, but does it not punctuate Jesus’ teaching that having a place in the kingdom of heaven is not a matter of favor and privilege among the powerful and the honored, but rather the kingdom belongs to the meek and humble?

A Message from Mrs. Carol Frericks—Principal

St. Dominic School Students Gather Together Every Morning To Pray

During morning assembly every day, all of our Kindergarten through 8th-grade students gather together to listen to the Word of God and pray. This year, our Bible verse will help us learn about God's divine mercy and love for all of us. We will also learn how to do the Corporal and Spiritual Works of Mercy.

*The steadfast love of the Lord never ceases;
his mercies never come to an end;
they are new every morning;
great is your faithfulness.*

Lamentations Chapter 3: Verses 22-23

Surviving Divorce

Tuesday, September 20, 2022

Are you or do you know someone who is struggling from divorce? St. Anthony Church is sponsoring the program Surviving Divorce: Hope and Healing for the Catholic Family, by Rose Sweet through Ascension Press. Ms. Sweet has developed a twelve-week program covering various topics such as “getting your bearings, finding strength and help, getting through your anger, dealing with depression, learning to forgive, dealing with your family.” The second half of the program topics are “handling money wisely, learning to let go, seeing God in romance, deciding about dating, loving all church teachings, and finding love that lasts.” The program includes personal testimonies of Catholic men and women who have experienced the trials of a broken marriage, workbook, video, and refreshments during group sharing.

The team leaders invite you to join us on Tuesday, September 20, 2022, 6:30 to 8:30 p.m. at St. Anthony’s for the first session. Please leave your name and phone number at the Parish Office, 217-222-5996.

At the beginning of Lent in 2020 we started the Ascension Press' study program on Wisdom literature. We were able to hold just about 3 sessions and COVID shut us down.

We will be restarting the study on Wisdom from the beginning on Wednesday, September 28, at 6:30 p.m. in the Parish Hall. This will run for 8 weeks. What is "Wisdom Literature"? Wisdom Literature comes from the Old Testament books of Job, Proverbs, Ecclesiastes, Song of Songs, Wisdom, and Sirach...some would also include the Psalms. These books are rather strange and different from many of the other scriptural books, as they are not really narrative in nature, but rather are filled with canticles and sayings and maxims which are passed along with the hope that the reader can become "wise" in the ways of God. The program we will be running was put together by Jeff Cavins and Thomas Smith and is called Wisdom: God's Vision for Life. All are invited. This faith formation program utilizes short, 25-minute videos along with group discussion following the videos. Bring a friend! Please call the Parish Office at 222-5996 if you plan to attend. If you were not able to participate in 2020 and would like to now, please let the office know by September 12 so that we can order a book for you.

Families of Faith begins with the first parent session on Sunday, September 4, 9:00 a.m. to Noon and the Community meeting will be September 25 with a picnic at 11:30 a.m.

Safe Environment Information

In order for us to be more aware of our surroundings and to watch out for others as well as protect ourselves, the Diocese of Springfield requires all employees and volunteers to complete a safe environment program (1 time only) and a background check (every 5 years).

The Diocese of Springfield will now be using CMG Connect for safe environment training and background checks. The Protecting God's Children (PGC) will not be used in the future and a new program, "Empowering God's Children," will be used instead. (Those who have completed PGC will be grandfathered in and do not need to complete this new program which is available online only.)

The background checks will now be completed online only, except for one form you will need to complete and return to the Safe Environment Office at the Diocese. Background checks need to be renewed every 5 years.

If you do not have access to a computer, you may contact us in the Parish Office and we will be glad to help you by using one of our computers. As a reminder, the Diocese of Springfield requires all volunteers to have completed either Protecting God's Children or Empowering God's Children and a background check. Each year the Diocese audits the parish list of volunteers and we would like to be in good standing.
