

19TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

This weekend's readings are about salvation, covenant, resurrection, and the second coming. We must see the source of all grace that is Christ who calls us to have faith and trust in our Father. He calls us to store up the immensity of grace and abundance of mercy to be prepared for His coming. Much is required of those in faith who have an abundance of grace and for those that have little grace stored up, what little they have will be taken. Faith and trust in the Lord is the source of that grace that we are made new for the life to come. So let us be prepared. Let us seek His treasure and not the treasures of this world. Let us give of ourselves as we receive the abundances of the Lord and trust in His generosity.

This past week we had great news. It became truly official that Samuel Doellman, one of our very own of St. Francis Solanus Parish, is now a seminarian for the Diocese of Springfield in IL. A seminarian is one who is in formation for the priesthood. This is such amazing news for us and for the diocese. Sam will be studying at Bishop Simon Brute Seminary in Indianapolis and taking classes at Marian University. Pray for him and encourage him when you see him serving liturgies here and around town. Please pray also for Logan Klitzing who just graduated from QU as he too enters the seminary for the diocese. Lastly, pray for Kade Zanger, a parishioner of St. Rose, who is entering formation for the Priestly Fraternity of St. Peter. These three are just the first of many who I know in our parish and community here in Quincy that the Lord is calling to priesthood and religious life. What a blessing for us and the Church! Pray for these men.

Lastly, this past week four young women made final profession, two made simple profession, and two entered the novitiate for the Franciscan Sisters of the Martyr St. George. What a joy to be at their profession to see their witness and joy. Please pray for these eight women and also my friend Amber who has taken the name Sr. Magdalena and has entered the novitiate. There are many women in our parish and community that I know God is calling to religious life. Please pray for them and those discerning that call to religious life to have the courage to answer. It is so inspiring to see the witness and joy of these sisters when they're around.

God is providing in abundance. May we respond to his generosity profoundly and may we teach our young people to do the same.

St. Francis Church is going to offer the program Grief Share for those who would like to meet with others to walk the path through grief toward healing and hope for the future.

Beginning August 18, a grief support group will begin and meet for 13 weeks each Thursday evening from 6-8 p.m. in the Parish Hall. The program, "Mourning to Joy," begins with an introduction, video, and then break into small groups to offer support to one another. There are workbooks provided that reinforce the weekly session topics.

There is no charge for this group. Everyone is welcome. This is a non-denominational support group.

Please register for this group by calling Pat Holbrook, 217-257-2570, so that we can prepare with enough materials.

Dear St. Francis Parish members,

We have many families enrolling a student at St. Francis Solanus School for the first time. Would you consider writing a note of welcome to a new school family? Perhaps share a favorite, positive memory of St. Francis Solanus School, if you are an alum or had children enrolled at the school. I have heard so many interesting and wonderful memories! If you do not have ties to the school but still want to extend your well wishes to a new family, that would be great too. Address the envelope to "New School Family." Give the notes or cards to the Parish Office or School Office. These will be given to our new families after the school year begins August 16. Thank you for welcoming families beginning their journey at St. Francis Solanus School.

Sincerely, Julie Radel, Principal
