Twentieth Sunday in Ordinary Time

AUGUST 14, 2022

Jeremiah 38:4-6,8-10; Hebrews 12:1-4;
Luke 12:49-53

The Lord came to bring peace. But division often results. This world does not want to listen to a hurtful truth. Jeremiah (about 620 B.C.) was not nicey-nice. He told Israel that it was so rotten that it would be destroyed. For this, the leaders of the nation plotted to put him to death.

The second reading tells us that Jesus endured the opposition of sinners. He was crucified because the Gospel was a threat to political and religious leaders.

In today's Gospel, Jesus says that he came to light a fire on earth; he saw that the fire would cause division. What about us? Are we really interested in truth, or are we more interested in feeling good? Do we want a faith that confronts and challenges us to change?

Or do we prefer to remain in our comfortable spiritual rut? Do we dare to accept the challenge of a daily struggle with the world? Or do we rationalize and compromise.

Change is traumatic to the human psyche. And spiritual change is traumatic to souls. Yet the Lord challenges us each day to seek to become saints.

His message may be uncomfortable. His message may make waves and cause divisions. But his message is true. If we accept his message, his complete rule over our lives, then and only then, will we find true peace and joy.

Twentieth Sunday in Ordinary Time, August 14, 2022

Dear Parishioners,

This weekend we celebrate the 20th Sunday in what we call “ordinary time.” As we reflect upon our Scriptures for this weekend, our first reading is from Jeremiah the Prophet. Jeremiah really didn’t want to be in the role of a prophet but only did so in response to God’s call in his life. And when he preached, his message was not well received. Instead, they literally threw him into a cistern “where he sank in the mud” and would have starved to death. Thankfully, a court official came to his aid and Jeremiah was released from the cistern before he would die. The message is clear. People are not open to God’s Word in their lives and often would kill the messenger than heed the warning to change. We find that even in our own society today. Speak God’s Word to people who live the values of this world, and one will truly find the cross of suffering. And yet that is expected if we are to remain faithful to Christ in our lives.

Our second reading from the letter to the Hebrews challenges us and uses the metaphor of running a race. Each of us is engaged in this race called life. But the writer tells us that we will remain successful in our endeavor if only we “keep our eyes fixed on Jesus the leader and protector of faith.” If we take our eyes off of Jesus, we lose sight of our final goal and often end up compromising ourselves in our race called life. So the challenge for us is to keep our eyes focused on Christ who “endured the cross, despising its shame, and has taken His seat at the right of the throne of God.” Let that be our focus and we will not grow weary and lose heart.

This Monday is the Solemnity of the Assumption of Mary into heaven. Traditionally this Solemnity is a Holy Day of Obligation, but because it falls on a Monday the obligation is lifted. I do encourage you to attend our 8:00 a.m. Mass on that day and celebrate this Solemnity with us.

This Sunday evening, August 14, we are hoping, if weather permits, to celebrate Mass on the grass at 5:00 p.m. for all of our students of our school, staff, and parents. Please bring your lawn chairs and/or blankets to sit upon and join us at this back to school Mass next to Seton Hall. This Mass will be for Sunday and will fulfill the Sunday obligation. Please come join us. If the weather does not permit for Mass to be outside, we will move it inside the church.

Just to let you know, we are beginning to have Masses at two of our nursing homes here in Quincy. Mass will be monthly at Adam’s Point on Wednesday morning and then on Wednesday afternoon at Bickford Nursing facility. These Masses will be on a monthly basis and a week apart from each other. The other nursing facilities will be covered with monthly Masses by the other parishes here in Quincy.

Just a reminder that our annual parish picnic will be on Saturday, August 27. Our Saturday afternoon Mass for that day will be at 4:00 p.m. and not the usual 5:00 p.m. Please note this Mass change. There will be NO CONFESSIONS that Saturday afternoon. I encourage you to join us for the festivities of that day and have fun together.

Fr. Leo’s column continued..

As we prepare for our parish picnic on Saturday, August 27, I am asking our parishioners to assist us in this annual endeavor. We need workers for this event, workers with smiles on their face, workers with a warm and welcoming personality. We want our visitors to always feel at home with us and so much of that depends upon our friendly workers. If you haven’t volunteered and would like to work, please talk to the chairpersons and they will put you in a place that is needed. We also need workers to set up and tear down, and we need all parishioners to support our picnic through their purchase of raffle tickets. But most of all, we need all parishioners to pray for the success and safety of all present at our annual picnic. My thanks to all of our chairpersons who do a great job in getting things ready and making our picnic the success that it is. Again, this is a “fun-raiser” and not necessarily a “fund-raiser.” We pray together, let’s now play together and work together.

ON THE LIGHTER SIDE: A little boy came home from a playground with a bloody nose, black eye, and torn clothing. It was obvious he’d been in a bad fight and lost. While his father was patching him up, he asked his son what happened.

“Well, Dad,” said the boy, “I challenged Larry to a duel. And, you know, I gave him his choice of weapons.”

“Uh-huh,” said the father, “that seems fair.”

“I know, but I never thought he’d choose his big sister.”
