"On the Q/T..."

From Thoughts of Saint Therese, The Little Flower of Jesus: "There is no artist who does not like his work praised, and the Divine Artist of souls is pleased when we do not stop at the exterior, but penetrating even to the inmost sanctuary which He has chosen for His dwelling, we admire its beauty." From Teresa of Calcutta: A Pictorial Biography: "We are talking of peace. These are things that break peace, but I feel the greatest destroyer of peace today is abortion....Because if a mother can kill her own child - what is left for me to kill you and for you to kill me - there is nothing in between."

On to the question from Fr. Tony:

October 1 is the feast day of St. Therese of The Little Flower; and Saint Teresa of Calcutta took the name, "Therese," in honor of St. Therese of The Little Flower. The first quote is a general quote about the inner beauty of each soul created, loved and treasured by God. The second comes from then Mother Teresa's Nobel Peace Prize speech. Strange: that the beauty of a soul created and destined for the fullness of human manhood/womanhood in the womb of a mother has become so obscure that women can commit abortion to themselves and think they're doing themselves a favor. It's their bodies; look at what they're doing to themselves. Hence, this question: What do women fear...what terrifies them so...what is the depth of the hopelessness...that looms larger than the divine artistry that they are, and that taking place within them?

Go Make Disciples: Bringing People to Christ – One More Look. This year's goals: SSPN, $32,878; ICC, $27,409; SHDC, $11,595; SHW, $14,932; SMH, $13,348. A review of last year's ADA: SSPN paid $22,151 of its $28,590 goal; ICC paid $24,946 out of its $23,834 goal; SHDC paid $8,805 of its $10,469 goal; SHW paid $9,050 of its $12,984 goal; and SMH paid $5,956 of its $11,607 goal. Bishop Tylka desires that our highest aspirations be reached in Evangelization, Discipleship, Eucharistic Revival, and Vocations. Let's do our best to serve the divine life in our churches and in our entire diocese worthy of the calling we have received.

Hancock County Catholic Churches: Year of the Eucharistic Mission, October 22/23 to October 28. Do you realize that Fr. Luke Spannagel, whose first assignment was right here in Hancock County, is one of fifty-eight priests chosen by our Bishops to preach the Revival of the Holy Eucharist throughout our nation? And we get to benefit from this one of the chosen fifty-eight? This is an opportunity and an honor hard to bump out of first place! Spread the word: to family members, friends, brother and sister Catholics and fellow Christians alike, even people you might know from other world religions – people who are unsure there is a God, or who appear to be sure there is none. Each of our churches will host Fr. Luke throughout the week; his talks will be different in each place. So clear your schedules as best you can, and try to be present for as many of his talks as possible. And keep the bulletin flier for quick and easy reference.

Fr. Tony thanks you for the meals! I've told Jesus many a time over the years: "Lord, this is Hancock County. Fasting and abstinence just plain doesn't happen here. The eatin's too good." Thank you for your time and expense in preparing such fine food for your pastor who is constantly on the go. If I may make one suggestion: no doubt, you've noticed that he has grown in "wisdom and grace" – check out the beltline without being rude about it! So the portions can be a bit smaller. But believe me: absolutely no complaints! Thank you! – Fr. T.

Rosary/Divine Mercy Volunteers We thank Randy and Cathy Bergmeier for their help in presenting opportunity for praying the Noon Rosary and 3 p.m. Hour of Mercy Divine Mercy Chaplet. Fr. Tony won't be doing this anymore. The backlog of meetings and individual appointments, as well as the glaring absence of pastoral care visits to people long in waiting, call for a release from Noon and 3 p.m. prayer commitments. A half hour on either side of these times for travel means that huge segments of the day are lost. We'll have a team of prayer leaders helping us with this ministry from now on.

Fr. Tony on WCAZ Radio He'll be on the air on Sunday, October 2, 9, and 16, at 10 a.m. These 20-minute segments will address issues concerning the underlying philosophies that seem never to be addressed in the controversial moral issues of the day. The teaching of the Catholic Church will be addressed to Socialism and Communism on October 2; to Nominalism in the face of sex, gender, and identity issues on October 9; and to Empiricism and Relativism in the face of the immorality of the day – a situation that people have become so accustomed to, that it's rarely challenged anymore. And yes: it's all anchored in the Bible. (If you go to the 10 a.m. Mass in Nauvoo, by all means, go to Mass – for a Catholic, that's always the most important thing you can do.)

St. Mary's Women's Club Meeting after Mass Tuesday, October 11. On Saturday, October 15, we will be having our monthly carry-in dinner. A BIG thank you to everyone who helped with our Trivia Night!

St. Mary's Country Breakfast will be NEXT Sunday, October 9, 2022, from 7:30 a.m. to Noon. Freewill offering. This year instead of the "Silent Auction," we will be having a "Country Store." Donations of any items are welcome: baked goods, candy, arts, crafts, jewelry, toys, games, books, home décor, holiday items, etc. Our only request is that these are not "Yard Sale" type of items. Items can be brought to the Parish Hall beginning Saturday, October 1. Please have the items priced. Raffle: 50/50 Raffle. Raffle Items: 50" Vizio TV, Ninja Foodie 7 Function Oven, Corn Hole Game. Please join us and make our breakfast a big success!!!!

CCD Schedule: 10/1 – Carthage, 10/9 – Dallas City, 10/15 – Hamilton, 10/16 – Warsaw, 10/23 – Nauvoo. Please bring registration fee to first class.

Women's Prayer and Study Group... We will begin our fall study of the book of Matthew starting Thursday morning, October 6, from 9:30-11:00 at the new K of C Hall in Nauvoo. Bring your Bible and the Catholic Catechism book if you have one. Come join us and bring a friend! We look forward to seeing you there!

Please mark your calendars for the annual Respect for Life Rosary Pilgrimage, which will be held on Saturday, October 15, beginning at 9:30 a.m., Sacred Heart Church in Warsaw. We will continue our pilgrimage in this order: St. Mary's (Hamilton), Immaculate Conception (Carthage), Sacred Heart (Dallas City), and ending in Nauvoo (Saints Peter and Paul). Lunch at Nauvoo Cafe and Sweet Shoppe, 1530 Mulholland Street. Please join us for all or part of the pilgrimage!

Gentlemen, all of you... TMIY is a men's group that meets Thursday morning at 6:00, in Nauvoo at the K of C Hall, starting with a hot breakfast. It is a great program and I encourage you all to come.

Do you like to sing at Mass? Is the music ministry calling to you? Immaculate Conception is looking for members to join our choir! If interested, please contact Amy Graham at 702-496-2661 or amypgraham71@hotmail.com.

IC Catholic Women's Club annual Christmas Wreath Sale begins October 1. Stop by the table after Mass and pick up a booklet and order form with all the details. Thank you for your support!

IC Catholic Women's Club Membership Drive begins in October. Be watching for a mailing to renew or add your membership by October 16 to get your name in a drawing for a Classic Christmas Wreath from our annual fundraiser!
