Twenty-seventh Sunday in Ordinary Time

OCTOBER 2, 2022

Habakkuk 1:2-3,2:2-4; 2 Timothy 1:6-8,13-14;
Luke 17:5-10

The key word today – found in all three Scripture readings – is faith. The first reading is a complaint against God for not intervening when we are in trouble. When things go wrong, we cry out to God, “Where are you? Why didn’t you do something when we were in trouble?” God’s answer is that we must wait with hope for his justice. The rash person lashes out and gives up. The righteous person lives by faith.

The second reading uses faith in a slightly different sense. By the time this epistle was written, there was a body of belief or doctrine. The author of 2 Timothy urges us to guard the “rich deposit of faith.” He means that we must always be loyal to the truths which the Lord has revealed. If we stick to those beliefs, we shall be saved.

In the Gospel, the apostles ask the Lord to increase their faith. He tells them that they could do almost anything if they had a little bit of faith. He then gets at the root of their problem: They always want everything to go their own way. This is the wrong attitude. They should want things to go the Lord’s way. They should serve him loyally and ask for nothing more.

They should not be servants who do their job and expect their master to wait on them. When they have lived with absolute loyalty and faith, they must still say, “We are merely servants; we have done no more than our duty.” Of course, if we live this way – in a spirit of real faith and loyalty to the Lord – he will richly reward us.

But we must not get the cart before the horse: We serve him because he is right. We do not serve him from a motive of reward, but simply because we want his will to be done. With this attitude, he will reward us for genuine faith.

Our Parish Family

Twenty-seventh Sunday in Ordinary Time, October 2, 2022

Dear Parishioners,

Our celebration this weekend begins the month of October. I don't know about you, but September seemed to drag along without an end in sight. But this weekend celebrates the new month of October, with thoughts of a new season of the year just on the horizon. With the days getting shorter, the weather getting cooler, soon the elements of nature will be changing and we will be seeing before our eyes the beauty of creation preparing itself for the winter months.

Our first reading from the prophet Habakkuk is rather interesting and seems to reflect a common experience among us all. Some time throughout our lives we prayed and prayed for certain responses from God. And these prayers seem to go unanswered, leaving all of us questioning our God. In this reading, the prophet asks, "How long, O Lord?" This was the prophet's question to God as the prophet was waiting for God to rescue Israel from her enemies. "How long, O Lord? I cry for help but you do not listen! I cry to you, 'Violence!' but you do not intervene. Why do you let me see ruin, why must I look at misery?" Sound familiar. Many of us who have faced difficult situations, sufferings, and trials, probably can relate to the words of this prophet. And God's answers to these pleas is that God will somehow triumph. In our gospel, the apostles faced similar situations that they did not understand. What they asked of Jesus is what we too ask of Him, namely, "Jesus, increase our faith." Help us to understand that you will answer our prayers, in some way that we may not see, nor understand. "Increase our faith!"

This next week, Quincy Notre Dame will be celebrating their homecoming week. The parade will be on Thursday evening, the game on Friday, and then the dance will be Saturday. As is our custom, we invite our young people to celebrate the 5:00 p.m. Mass with us on Saturday before their dance. So next Saturday, we welcome our young people to our Eucharist before their homecoming dance at QND.

Beginning this weekend and lasting through the month of October, we will be taking up our usual October count for the diocese. Because of COVID, this count is very important and hopefully will show that St. Peter Church has responded well to the invitation to return to the Eucharist on the weekends. I ask our ushers to make sure they use their fingers and toes in making sure that everyone is counted, and then they are to post this number in the ushers room.

This Tuesday, October 4, is the feast day of St. Francis of Assisi. As most should know, Francis had a love of nature, including animals, as Francis saw God's presence in His creation. Because of Francis' love for creation, we will have a blessing of pets around 2:00 p.m. in the field next to Seton Hall. The parents of our children will be bringing their pets that afternoon for the children, and any adults may bring their own animals, to receive a special blessing that day. I will also make sure that I have my Abbie out there as she needs all the blessings that God can give to her. In her years with me, she has gotten a little spoiled and seems to be in need of many blessings as she has a tendency to think that she is in charge and wins when she's not. Sound familiar?

The School of St. Peter

Week of October 2, 2022

A Message from Mrs. Cindy Venvertloh

"St. Peter School provides a quality education built on Catholic values and teachings."

STUDENTS ENJOY VISITING THE LIBRARY IN ITS NEW LOCATION

With the addition of a third kindergarten classroom this year, the library was relocated to the basement of the church in the Maria Goretti room. Mrs. MaryAnn Kroshinsky, Mrs. Carol Pagliara, and Mr. Randy Martin worked all summer to set up the library so that it would be ready to go for the school year. Gary and Ashley Hackman graciously donated a new rug for the students. The students are loving the new space!

WELCOME SUE BESWICK

We welcome Sue Beswick to the St. Peter School staff. She is a paraeducator in Kindergarten North with Mrs. Sandy Gallaher. Sue is a widow and was married to her husband, Mike, for almost 45 years. They have four children: Ross, Sarah, Jason, and Elizabeth. She has one grandson and five granddaughters. She and her husband were married in St. Peter Church.

Ms. Beswick has 34 years of experience working with children. Ten of those years she had a licensed daycare in her home and twenty-four of those years she worked at Chaddock.

Her love for children and her Catholic background has steered her to St. Peter School. She feels that she has so much to give to the children and the school at St. Peter. She is happy working with the nice, helpful teachers and paraeducators. God has helped her in so many ways, and He has helped her find happiness again working with the children again!

Fr. Leo's column continued..

The month of October is the month of the Rosary as well as what we call "Right to Life Month." Hopefully we can combine the two designations as we pray a Rosary often during this month for the greater respect for life in our society.

Next Sunday, October 9, our 8th graders and their chaperones will be heading to Washington D.C. and other areas for their annual class trip. Many years ago, Fr. Bauer, former pastor, started this annual educational trip and we have continued his tradition. It gives our young people an opportunity to visit sites that they normally would not visit. Let's pray for them that God will keep them safe during their time away.

A parishioner shared with me the following joke and I would like to share it with you.

ON THE LIGHTER SIDE: St. Peter is on duty at the Pearly Gates when he's called away to the upstairs office. He sees Jesus passing by and asks Him to cover for him. Just then, an old, old man shuffles up to the gates. Jesus smiles and says gently, "Welcome, old traveler." The old man looks around and says, "Is this paradise?" Jesus nods and says, "Welcome. Tell me about yourself." The old man, in a quavering voice, says, "I was a simple man, but I had a wonderful life. I was a carpenter. And I had a son—what a boy! He was very special, you see. He was not quite human—but he became human." Jesus steps closer and gazes tenderly into the old man's face. "Dad?" He asks gently. The old man peers at Jesus and says, "Pinocchio?"
