"On the Q/T..."

From the devotional, God Calling, the reflection for September 12: The eye of the soul is the will. If your one desire is My Kingdom, to find that Kingdom, to serve that Kingdom, then truly shall your whole body be full of light. When you are told to seek first the Kingdom of God, the first step is to secure that your will is for that Kingdom. A single eye to God's glory. Desiring nothing less than that His Kingdom come. Seeking in all things the advance of His Kingdom. Know no values but Spiritual values. No profit but that of Spiritual gain. Seek in all things His Kingdom, first. Only seek material gain when that gain will mean a gain for My Kingdom. Get away from money values all together.

On to the question from Fr. Tony:

I can only imagine what it's like for someone upon whom people, institutions, and causes depend for the money they make, to read this! Point well taken. But there is a point here that applies to everyone. So here's a question for you: In anything you've ever decided, when have you brought God in on it at the very beginning of your move toward a decision?

Go make Disciples; Bringing People to Christ Our gratitude goes out to our trustees for their presentations about this year's ADA, and to all of our parishioners as well: your response to Bishop Tylka's consistency throughout his years with us will need our dedication and support. Evangelization. Discipleship. Eucharistic Revival. Vocations. All together: reformed and purified Church! Please remember to send your pledge directly to the Catholic Diocese of Peoria, and not to your own particular parish! One more thing: don't be upset if you get another mailing like the first one previously received: it's part of the procedure, in case you lost your first mailing. Again, thank you for helping our churches meet their respective goals, as an indication of our vibrancy: SSPPN, $32,878; ICC, $27,409; SHDC, $11,595; SHW, $14,932; SMH, $13,348.

Hancock County Churches Eucharistic Parish Mission We are pleased to announce that Father Luke Spannagel, who served our churches from 2003 to 2007 and was largely responsible for the renovation and renewal of Immaculate Conception Church and parish community life, advanced by Fr. Szydluk's fruitful priestly ministry, is coming to us for a Eucharistic Mission! Fr. Luke will be here for the weekend Masses of October 22 and 23. And then, between the evening of the 23rd and the 28th, will be present at each of our churches for an evening conference – concluding with a Mass, explained step by step, so that we better understand why the celebration of the Eucharist is structured the way it is. Given the shortage of priests, while Fr. Luke is here, I'll be in Peoria helping with what ordinarily are his parish responsibilities. By Friday evening the 28th, we'll all be back where we belong – and here comes the Bishop for Confirmation! Spread the word, everyone: Catholic and non-Catholic alike. People everywhere will remember Fr. Luke.

Deacons begin preaching on September 24. Our deacons, Dan Moffitt and Tony Herdrich, will begin a monthly responsibility for preaching at our Masses, beginning the weekend of September 24, and the fourth weekend of every month. We look forward to the gift of the Holy Spirit through the words of their preaching! Needless to say...which means here it comes, we're going to say it!...Give them your attention, your support, and your affirmation as they begin this dimension of their ministry as deacons. And remember: your deacons are here for you. As is Monsignor "Fr. Paul." As I am. There are no turf battles here. Never will be. A deacon can baptize. If you want one of our deacons to officiate at Baptism in your family, you don't have to ask me: ask them. They can lead a funeral outside of Mass, and preach there, even during a funeral Mass. If you want one of them to preach, let me know. No need to explain, apologize, or worry about how I'd take it. I'd take it just fine, thank you. They can officiate at a burial service instead of me: make your desires known. Same goes for Fr. Paul – with this understanding, though, one he has expressed several times. He is retired; he wants to help, but he doesn't want to be overly extended. If he declines your request, understand. He's not preferring others over you; there's a limit to what he is able to do. Look: we're all here for you! The only slight we would feel, would be if you didn't come our way at all.

Thank you, Connie Kreps! The prayer for aborted baby's observance was wonderful! We intend to make much more use out of our Gospel of Life monument and will need your involvement in the future!

CCD – Supplies have been ordered and we are awaiting their arrival. Classes in all parishes will start in OCTOBER. An e-mail will be sent to all participants with details!

Adoration and Rosary before weekend Masses will resume on 9/10-9/11. Please be advised of the schedule:

30 minutes before Mass – Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament

25 minutes before Mass – Recitation of the Holy Rosary

Parishioners of St. Mary's are being asked for donations of bought or homemade cookies or brownies, boxes of Hostess or Little Debbie Snack Cakes, Rice Krispy Treats, or any other type of snack to be sold at the TRIVIA NIGHT being held Sunday, September 25. These can be left in the marked container in the Vestibule. Thanks for your help!!

Women's Thursday morning Bible Study Group.....Please note the change of date! We will begin our Bible study for fall of 2022 on Thursday morning, October 6, from 9:30 to 11:00 a.m. We will be in the book of Matthew. If you would like to join us and would like to have a study guide, please contact Rebecca Haas. No need to have been a member of the group last year, just come and join us and bring a friend! See you then! We will be meeting in the new K of C hall.

Gentlemen, the time of year is fast approaching for TMIY to start up again. You're all welcome to come Thursday morning, 6:00 a.m., at the Nauvoo K of C Hall for a great hot breakfast, conversation, and spiritual growth. Over 40 men from most of our parishes and three states have come the last four years. Talk with the deacons, Father, or any of the guys that have been part of this to find out why it is worth showing up so early. – Dcn. Dan

SAVE THE DATE!! Sacred Heart Dallas City Altar and Rosary Society will have a Feather Party on Sunday, October 16. Doors will open at 4:30. Bingo will begin at 5:00 p.m. Desserts and drinks will be available for purchase. A meal will not be available.

A Spiritual Communion

My Jesus, I believe that You are in the Blessed Sacrament. I love you above all things, and I long for You in my soul. Since I cannot now receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. As though You have already come, I embrace You and unite myself entirely to You; never permit me to be separated from You. Amen.
