A Message from Fr. Tom Donovan:

The Greek word for “steward” or “manager” in this week’s gospel is “oikonomos,” from where we also get the word “economy” or “economist.” The subject of the parable certainly knows how to use the value of the things he manages in order to provide for himself as he sees the master preparing to dismiss him. Modern-day managers know all-too-well how important it is for an employee to empty out his or her desk and turn in their keys right away and to leave the property when being dismissed. But the master in this story is a permissive one... perhaps on purpose?

The steward-“economist” knows the value of all of the master’s property and he further knows the price of the debts for all the master’s debtors. He quickly schemes how he can make for a “soft landing” for himself by ingratiating the master’s debtors to him! We clearly see the ethical shortcut and the devious game being played here as he cuts the debtors bills and rewrites them a discount. We question why Jesus would praise this criminal behavior. I would suggest we turn away from such a harsh judgment against the steward and consider that the master may have allowed this behavior as a gracious gesture to the steward. Is this not unlike God’s posture towards us? Someday won’t we be turning our “accounting books” to see how our stewardship of the goods we have been entrusted with measures up? While salvation is not found in good works, we certainly may be unprepared and unprovided for if we cling to the seduction of wealth and the worldly power it holds.

We have been greatly endowed with worldly riches by God’s gracious bounty... our nourishment, our homes, our livelihoods, and perhaps even some sense of long-term financial security. If we do not know how to be good stewards in the wise use of these earthly goods, using them for trade and commerce and most importantly giving them away in charity for those in need, then how can we be ready to accept the even greater gift of the heavenly goods God wills to give us in His Kingdom? Do we know the worldly price of everything without understanding transcendent value? The steward knew how to extract the greatest value from these goods by sharing the master’s wealth with fellow debtors. Should we not do the same? This is yet another way that we learn to “live the Year of Jubilee from the Lord” by proclaiming good news to captives, forgiving debts, and restoring the dispossessed to their heritage. If we are unable to live this graciously with our fellow human beings, then perhaps we are not ready for the jubilee God sets before us?

This coming week, I will be away for the Diocese of Springfield Priest Convocation on Tuesday and Wednesday. Fr. Don will have the Mass at St. Dominic on Wednesday and there will be a communion service (followed by adoration as usual) on Tuesday.

Starting this week on Tuesday, September 20, we will be running a program called Surviving Divorce. This is a time set aside for those who are seeking healing and recovering from a breakup in their marriage. Evenings start at 6:30 p.m. each Tuesday and run for 12 weeks.

Starting on Wednesday, September 28 and running until the week before Thanksgiving, we will offer the Wisdom: God’s Vision for Life scripture study course by Jeff Cavins and Ascension Press. You may remember that we started this course in 2020 just before the onset of COVID. We will start the course over from the beginning. There is a book/journal available for the course which is recommended but not totally necessary. If you would like us to order one, please call the Parish Office at 217-222-5996. There is no cost, but donations will be accepted. This course will focus on the “wisdom literature” of the Bible, including the book of Wisdom, Proverbs, Ecclesiastes, and Sirach. All are invited! We will also have Mass on Wednesday evening at St. Anthony’s during the duration of the course. All are welcome for Mass, whether taking the course or not!

It’s time to be thinking about welcoming new Catholics! Last year we welcomed eight new Catholics to the Church through the Easter sacraments... some were welcomed at Easter, others celebrated at various times through the year. The typical time to prepare our new Catholics for the sacraments is the Easter Vigil. We hope to begin a cohort for the Order of Christian Initiation of Adults soon to start the preparations! We already have one Candidate who has expressed his interest and we would love to have a good-sized group to share the experience of discovering the Faith! An organizational meeting will take place Monday, October 3, at 7 p.m. For more information or to let us know you are coming, please call the Parish Office at 217-222-5996.

Sharing God's Love By Making Cards With Buddies

Mrs. O'Neal and the 4th-grade class serve as buddies for Mrs. Klauser's Preschool four-year-old class. This week the Preschool class helped the 4th-grade class learn how to share God's love and mercy through the Corporal Works of Mercy by making cards for the imprisoned people in our area. Deacon Harry will help to deliver the cards to the prisoners. The buddy program at St. Dominic School provides students with the opportunity to lead and serve by doing works of mercy for others.

Ms. Sweet has developed a twelve-week program covering various topics such as "getting your bearings, finding strength and help, getting through your anger, dealing with depression, learning to forgive, dealing with your family." The second half of the program topics are "handling money wisely, learning to let go, seeing God in romance, deciding about dating, loving all Church teachings, and finding love that lasts." The program includes personal testimonies of Catholic men and women who have experienced the trials of a broken marriage, workbook, video, and refreshments during group sharing.

The team leaders invite you to join us on Tuesday, September 20, 2022, 6:30 to 8:30 p.m. at St. Anthony's for the first session. Please leave your name and phone number at the Parish Office, 217-222-5996.
