"On the Q/T..."

From the devotional, God Calling, A.J.Russell, ed., the meditation from God at Eventide, for September 18: "My religion which was to change men's lives, and was to be so revolutionary as to separate families and reorganize governments, has become a convention, tolerated where not appreciated. Its Truths have been modified to suit men's desires. Its followers carry no flaming sword; they bear no Message of Love so tender as to heal every wound, so scorching as to burn out every evil. My Cross is outdated, My Loving Father but the First Cause - nothing more. Man delights in his self-sufficiency, and seeks to persuade himself that all is well. Can he deceive a loving, understanding Father, who knows that under all the boasting there lurks fear, longings, despair?"

On to the question from Fr. Tony:

Fear. Longings. Despair. If Jesus is going to reach into me in a powerful way, He has to be the answer to those three, somehow. And to be aware that He's the answer: Am I aware of...am I honest about...the fear, longings, and despair occupying me?

Go Make Disciples – Bringing People to Christ Our gratitude goes out to our trustees for their presentations about this year's ADA, and to all of our parishioners as well: your response to Bishop Tylka's consistency throughout his years with us will need our dedication and support. Evangelization. Discipleship. Eucharistic Revival. Vocations. All together: reformed and purified Church! Please remember to send your pledge directly to the Catholic Diocese of Peoria, and not to your own particular parish! One more thing: don't be upset if you get another mailing like the first one previously received: it's part of the procedure, in case you lost your first mailing. Again, thank you for helping our churches meet their respective goals, as an indication of our vibrancy.

Hancock County Churches Eucharistic Parish Mission We are pleased to announce that Father Luke Spannagel, who served our churches from 2003 to 2007 and was largely responsible for the renovation and renewal of Immaculate Conception Church and parish community life, advanced by Fr. Szydluk's fruitful priestly ministry, is coming to us for a Eucharistic Mission! Fr. Luke will be here for the weekend Masses of October 22 and 23; and then, between the evening of the 23rd and the 28th, will be present at each of our churches for an evening conference – concluding with a Mass, explained step by step, so that we better understand why the celebration of the Eucharist is structured the way it is. Given the shortage of priests, while Fr. Luke is here, I'll be in Peoria helping with what ordinarily are his parish responsibilities. By Friday evening the 28th, we'll all be back where we belong – and here comes the Bishop for Confirmation! Spread the word, everyone: Catholic and non-Catholic alike. People everywhere will remember Fr. Luke.

Reminder! TRIVIA NIGHT is being held at St. Mary's Parish Hall THIS Sunday, September 25, 7:00-?? Doors open at 6:30 p.m. Come enjoy the fun!!!!

St. Mary's Country Breakfast will be on Sunday, October 9, 2022, from 7:30 a.m. to Noon. Freewill offering. This year instead of the "Silent Auction," we will be having a "Country Store." Donations of any items are welcome: baked goods, candy, arts, crafts, jewelry, toys, games, books, home décor, holiday items, etc. Our only request is that these are not "Yard Sale" type of items. Items can be brought to the Parish Hall beginning Saturday, October 1. Please have the items priced. Please join us and make our breakfast a big success!!!!

CCD – Supplies have been ordered and we are awaiting their arrival. Classes in all parishes will start in OCTOBER. An e-mail will be sent to all participants with details!

Please mark your calendars for the annual Respect for Life Rosary Pilgrimage, which will be held on Saturday, October 15, beginning at 9:30 a.m., Sacred Heart Church in Warsaw. We will continue our pilgrimage in this order: St. Mary's (Hamilton), Immaculate Conception (Carthage), Sacred Heart (Dallas City), and ending in Nauvoo (Saints Peter and Paul). Lunch at Nauvoo Cafe and Sweet Shoppe, 1530 Mulholland Street. Please join us for all or part of the pilgrimage!

Liturgical Ministry schedules have been completed. THANK YOU to all who have volunteered and SPECIAL THANKS to the schedulers who have worked very hard to accommodate specific requests. As we make this transition together, PLEASE BE KIND to all involved if corrections or substitutions need to be made!

Gentlemen, all of you – TMIY is a men's group that meets Thursday morning at 6:00, in Nauvoo at the K of C Hall, starting with a hot breakfast. It is a great program and I encourage you all to come. But note, we will not meet the 29th as the Deacon will be away.

Do you like to sing at Mass? Is the music ministry calling to you? Immaculate Conception is looking for members to join our choir! If interested, please contact Amy Graham at 702-496-2661 or amypgraham71@hotmail.com.

BOX OF JOY – Immaculate Conception Catholic Women's Club will collect items for the Box of Joy program sponsored by the Peoria Diocesan Council of Catholic Women and Cross Catholic Outreach. Every year, thousands of poor children experience a Christmas without hope. The gifts packed in a Box of Joy show God's unconditional love and spark the joy every child should experience at Christmas. More important, they are symbolic of God's greatest gift, His Son Jesus Christ. Boxes, gift ideas, instructions, and collection box are in the Vestibule. Monetary donations are also welcomed to assist with shipping costs. Please return boxes and items by October 15. THANK YOU!
