September 25, 2022 Twenty-Sixth Sunday in Ordinary Time

A Message from Fr. Tom Donovan:

This week's parable is sometimes called "Dives and Lazarus." While the rich man has no name in the Gospel, he is often called by the title "dives," which means "rich one." On the other hand, the poor man is forever memorialized as "Lazarus," whose name in Hebrew means "God will help." Similar to last week's gospel, we are reminded that both will be called to account and that life is short. The moral of the story would appear to be that "justice will be served," in that we see that the rich man who was indifferent to the beggar's suffering, himself, will be consigned to flames, while the poor man enjoys eternal bliss.

But as Christians, our interpretation of this parable is more profound than to simply suggest that there is a balancing act in the divine economy of good and evil. If a man suffers in this life and knows that his sufferings will bring about joy in the life to come, should the beggar not rejoice in his sufferings, knowing that he is on the "right side" of divine justice in this world? And if he is on the "right side" of divine justice, is not this world an expression of the kingdom being present in this world? The beatitudes suggest as much... "blessed are the poor in spirit...blessed are the meek and humble of heart...blessed are the single-hearted...blessed are you when you are persecuted for my sake...the kingdom of heaven is yours!" Conversely, being the recipient of graces in this world might strike fear into the heart of those who have resources and aspire to eternal salvation. What do we make of this? The Lord does wish to save all people...both the poor and the rich. But salvation is not won by simply being poor or even by giving away all one owns for the needs of the poor. Our parable seems to indicate that what is most important is to avoid indifference to the coming of the Kingdom and the Jubilee announced by Christ. This is seen not only in attentiveness to the needs of the poor on the part of people of faith, but also by living the virtue of "Moses and the Prophets" who proclaim justice for the poor and oppressed.

Starting on Wednesday, September 28, and running until the week before Thanksgiving, we will offer the Wisdom: God's Vision for Life scripture study course by Jeff Cavins and Ascension Press. We will start the course, interrupted by COVID in 2020, over from the beginning. There is a journal available for the course which is recommended but not totally necessary. If you would like us to order one, please call the Parish Office at 217-222-5996. There is no cost, but donations will be accepted. This course will focus on the "wisdom literature" of the Bible, including the book of Wisdom, Proverbs, Ecclesiastes, and Sirach. All are invited!

We will also have a 6:00 p.m. Mass on Wednesday evening at St. Anthony's during the duration of the course. All are welcome for Mass, whether taking the course or not!

The Chaplaincy Office at Blessing Hospital is in need of new people to step forward to be Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion for patients in the hospital. Since COVID, many volunteers have chosen to retire and do other things, and so Catholic patients are not always able to receive Holy Communion each day, as they have in the past. Those who are engaged in this ministry are recommended and commissioned by their parish and then Blessing Hospital provides the required training for infection control, privacy rights, and other hospital procedures. Many ministers go on a weekly basis, but they would be happy to have assistance even if you can only go once a month or on weekends or another schedule. For more information or to get connected with this ministry, please call the Parish Office, 217-222-5996.

Each year in October, the diocese also initiates its annual "October Count" program. Every weekend in October, each parish is asked to count the attendance at all of its weekend Masses. The October Counts help the diocese recognize and respond to demographic trends, especially when making annual priest assignment decisions and in its long-term planning processes. We look forward to seeing you each and every weekend for Mass, of course, but it really "counts" during the month of October!

4th Grade Leaders Teach Corporal and Spiritual Works of Mercy

Mrs. Katie O'Neal and the 4th-grade class have been leading Morning Assembly during the month of September. They have been teaching the whole school about one Corporal Work of Mercy — Visit the Imprisoned, and one Spiritual Work of Mercy — Admonish the Sinner. The 4th grade class serves as Buddies for the Preschool 4-year-old class and together they made these cards for the people who are in prisons in our area. Deacon Dennis will deliver these cards and tell them we are praying for them.

Surviving Divorce

Tuesday, September 20, 2022

Are you or do you know someone who is struggling from divorce? St. Anthony Church is sponsoring the program Surviving Divorce: Hope and Healing for the Catholic Family by Rose Sweet through Ascension Press. Ms. Sweet has developed a twelve-week program covering various topics such as “getting your bearings, finding strength and help, getting through your anger, dealing with depression, learning to forgive, and dealing with your family.” The second half of the program topics are “handling money wisely, learning to let go, seeing God in romance, deciding about dating, loving all Church teachings, and finding love that lasts.” The program includes personal testimonies of Catholic men and women who have experienced the trials of a broken marriage, workbook, video, and refreshments during group sharing.

The team leaders invite you to join us on Tuesdays, 6:30-8:30 p.m., at St. Anthony’s. Please leave your name and phone number at the Parish Office, 217-222-5996.

Wisdom

Begins September 28, 6:30 p.m.

We will be restarting the study of the Wisdom from the beginning on Wednesday, September 28, at 6:30 p.m. in the Parish Hall. This will run for 8 weeks. What is “Wisdom Literature”? Wisdom Literature comes from the Old Testament books of Job, Proverbs, Ecclesiastes, Song of Songs, Wisdom, and Sirach....some would also include the Psalms. The program we will be running was put together by Jeff Cavins and Thomas Smith and is called Wisdom: God’s Vision for Life. All are invited. This faith formation program utilizes short, 25-minute videos along with group discussion following the videos. Bring a friend!

RCIA

October 3, 7:00 p.m.

It’s time to be thinking about welcoming new Catholics! Last year we welcomed eight new Catholics to the Church through the Easter sacraments...some were welcomed at Easter, others celebrated at various times through the year. The typical time to prepare our new Catholics for the sacraments is the Easter Vigil. We hope to begin a cohort for the Order of Christian Initiation of Adults soon to start the preparations! We already have one Candidate who has expressed his interest, and we would love to have a good-sized group to share the experience of discovering the Faith! An organizational meeting will take place Monday, October 3, at 7 p.m. For more information or to let us know you are coming, please call the Parish Office at 217-222-5996.

Parish Community Tithe (PCT) News:

GREAT NEWS: As we end our fiscal year, I am pleased to announce that we retired our 2019 ACSA debt! Presently, the only past obligation we owe comes from the 2020 ACSA. We have been paying our Parish Tithe “as we go” this year and the generosity of a special donor has helped us overcome the “offering” deficit listed above of nearly $40,000. We count on your support, now more than ever, to ensure we don’t fall behind again and that we continue to maintain our ministries and facilities at St. Anthony Church and St. Dominic School.
