"On the Q/T..."

From A Simple Path, Mother Teresa of Calcutta, by Lucinda Varney: "I always say that love starts at home: family first, and then your own town or city. It is easy to love people who are far away but it is not always so easy to love those who live with us or right next to us. I do not agree with the big way of doing things - love needs to start with an individual. To get to love a person, you must contact that person, become close. Everyone needs love. All must know that they are wanted, and that they are important to God."

On to the question from Fr. Tony:

Of course, we're talking about Missionaries of Charity, here. Saint Teresa of Calcutta's community is based on transformation of humanity by recognizing Christ and responding in simplicity. There's more than one way to take on a world in need of Jesus. But that "love starts at home" part... "it is not so easy to love those who live with us or right next to us." So how about this question: When things are a bit adrift at home, do I realize that that's the time to draw closer and show love? As St. John of the Cross said, centuries ago: "Where there is no love, put love, and then you yourself will find love."

The Larry Hopp family would like to thank everyone who gave to the memorial, gave food for the dinner, sent cards, or offered Masses and expressed condolences. It has meant a lot...

WE'LL MISS A FEW OF THESE! Talking about saying "Thank you!" for generosity and help shown to us. But there are obvious needs to express gratitude: for the excellent help at the SPPS Pancake and Sausage Breakfast; the enthusiasm of parents and kids on our Grape Festival Float; the patience of those who work with me, as I put them "under the gun" for the return and revamping of ministries and programs; the K.C.'s for their food and refreshments they provided; and for all of you, for the spirit of good will and cooperation that's growing here. Don't be shy about reminding us when we miss an opportunity to say "Thank you." Don't just stew at home and wonder how we could possibly forget "this one." Help us to remember, and we'll come through for you!

GROWING DISCIPLES Bishop Tylka's diocesan discernment process has begun: prayer and dialogue in which we will be participating as we follow the Holy Spirit's lead in the direction of our diocese. We have selected a "Parish Provider of Content," Mr. James Layfield, from St. Mary's Church in Hamilton, to assist the Growing Disciples effort in the initial data gathering needed to see where our churches - and all churches of the diocese - stand, right now. We are in the process of selecting parishioners - one from each church, from Bishop Tylka's previous meeting with our question-and-answer group - to begin dialogue about what makes for a vibrant parish, and what future parish structures should look like. And we'll present those names to you in next week's bulletin. Folks, by now you know how these things go: specifics are hard to come by without actually beginning and entering into this process. We won't keep you in the dark.

ANNUAL DIOCESAN APPEAL: GO MAKE DISCIPLES Bishop Tylka's goals for our diocese are clearly spelled out in the mailing you received recently - pledge card, envelope, and all! (The entire ADA is being conducted by the diocese, this time around.) Carefully study our Bishop's priorities, and where our gifts of prayer, treasure, and talent will go to meet them. Please give generously for this time of renewal sure to affect and set the course of the future for the entire diocese.

Adoration and Rosary before weekend Masses will resume on 9/10-9/11. Please be advised of the schedule:

30 minutes before Mass – Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament

25 minutes before Mass – Recitation of the Holy Rosary

5 minutes before Mass – Divine Praises and Reposition of the Blessed Sacrament

CCD Reminder We are so pleased with initial registration returns. But ordering materials means having an accurate idea of who we have coming to CCD. So, please, spread the word, and let's move quickly on those registrations. Thank you! Check out the church website or Facebook page for a link to the registration form.

St. Mary's Carry-In Supper after 5:30 Mass Saturday, September 17. Come join in on the fellowship!

Parishioners of St. Mary's are being asked for donations of bought or homemade cookies or brownies; boxes of Hostess or Little Debbie Snack Cakes; Rice Krispy Treats; or any other type of snack to be sold at the TRIVIA NIGHT being held Sunday, September 25. These can be left in the marked container in the Vestibule. Thanks for your help!!

IC Catholic Women's Club will meet Monday, September 12, at 6 p.m. in the Parish Hall. All are welcome!

Women's Thursday morning Bible Study Group.....We will begin our Bible study for fall of 2022 on Thursday morning, September 15, from 9:30 to 11:00 a.m. We will be in the book of Matthew. If you would like to join us and would like to have a study guide, please contact Rebecca Haas. No need to have been a member of the group last year; just come and join us and bring a friend! See you then! We will be meeting in the new K of C Hall.

Thank you for filling one (or more) of these needs! To volunteer, please contact:
