SEPTEMBER 11, 2022

Exodus 32:7-11,13-14; 1 Timothy 1:12-17;
Luke 15:1-32

The God of the Old Testament is the same as the God of the New Testament. But at times he is perceived differently. Our first reading tells of the rebellion and idolatry of the Israelites in the desert. God mercifully brought them out of slavery in Egypt.

But while Moses is on Mt. Sinai receiving the Holy Torah, the Israelites make a golden calf and adore it as their god! God wants to destroy this rebellious people, but Moses intercedes and calls on God to remember that he is the God of mercy.

The Gospel gives parables of the mercy of God. He searches for the lost (i.e. the sinner) until he finds and brings back. God always takes the first step to reach out to the sinner in order to show mercy and forgiveness.

In the second reading, Paul says that he does not deserve God's mercy since he was an arrogant blasphemer and persecutor. But God showed him mercy.

How do we handle our sins? Do we try to run and hide? Do we rationalize and pretend that we have never sinned? Do we leave the Church and accuse the Church of wrongdoing? Or do we realize that God still loves us and wants to forgive us.

His great sacrament of mercy is always available. But we must accept his mercy. We must admit our sins and resolve that we shall never turn our backs on him again. God searches us out to show us his mercy. How do we act when we are forgiven? Let us show such gratitude that we shall never sin again.

Twenty-fourth Sunday in Ordinary Time, September 11, 2022

Dear Parishioners,

As we celebrate this second weekend in our month of September, the Church in turn celebrates the 24th Sunday in Ordinary Time. In our gospel today, we have a number of images presented that reflect the foolishness of our God. The first image is that of a shepherd who in his foolishness leaves his 99 sheep in order to search for a lost one. In terms of economics, this gesture would be not only foolish but ridiculous. Leaving 99 healthy sheep by themselves in order to find one that is lost. And then once it is found, then calls his family and friends together to celebrate finding the lost sheep. Foolish? Ridiculous? In terms of the things of this world, this would have been labeled a waste of time and efforts. Then in the same gospel, we find another bit of foolishness where a woman who having ten coins, loses one of them. How many of us would waste our time and effort in search of a coin? We would label this search as stupidity and very foolish. But I suppose that we can be thankful that our God is this foolish and acts in such a ridiculous way. Because this image that is presented in the gospels is of a God who never abandons us but is continually searching for us and inviting us to return to Him. Even though we are sinful, and often don't feel that we ever deserve to be found, our God always finds us and then, in the heavens, rejoice as Jesus states so beautifully, "I tell you there will be rejoicing among the angels of God over one sinner who repents." For you and I, there is always hope. May this hope sustain us and lead us always to our God.

We are still in need of Communion ministers at Blessing Hospital. Not sure how many of you have ever been in the hospital setting here in Quincy, but if you ever were it was always a great relief to have someone distribute Holy Communion to you in your hospital room. If anyone is interested in this invaluable ministry, please call the Rectory and leave your name for our parish nurse, Rebecca Knuffman. Because of the experience with COVID, the hospital has not recovered from the effects that this infection has caused. So let's see what we can do to put this in the past and begin anew with the Eucharist daily for our Catholic patients.

Now concerning the hospital, I know that you might think we have been negligent concerning hospital visits by your priests. Because of COVID, we were limited in visiting some people who were infected. There were times that we were dressed in a space outfit to anoint someone, but other than that we were restricted from visiting some rooms. Plus, we are finally getting back to normal visits. But please call the Rectory to inform us of your stay at the hospital.

From Monday evening, September 19 to Thursday, September 22, the priests of the diocese are expected to attend a Convocation to be held in Collinsville, Illinois, at the Doubletree Inn. During this convocation, we eat together, pray together, and even learn together. Then on Tuesday night, the Bishop addresses all the priests in a mandated conference. This is his yearly corporate talk that all pastors must be present. Since we are away from the parish, there will be NO MASSES ON TUESDAY, WEDNESDAY, AND THURSDAY. If there is an emergency, please contact the Parish Office.

Fr. Leo's column continued..

I want to remind our parents that just because your child has received the sacraments, Eucharist and Confirmation, doesn't mean that they have graduated from learning about their Catholic faith. I expect our young people, especially in our public schools, to continue their presence in our PSR school of religion on Wednesday nights. I don't want to see our young people thinking that they have learned all they needed to know and then enter the world with a third grade understanding of their faith. How ill prepared they will be to encounter the struggles of life.

Also, we are beginning our new RCIA process for anyone interested in learning more about the Catholic faith. This process will begin next Tuesday, September 13, from 7:00-8:30 p.m. in the Martha Jane Room. Please enter the doors below the church from the lower parking lot. There will be no pressure but a challenge to let God's grace enter the hearts of the inquirer, and come to a better understanding of the Catholic faith. If you know of anyone, please contact the Rectory with their names, of course, having made sure that you told them you would be doing so.

ON THE LIGHTER SIDE: A patient visited her doctor.

"Doctor, it's been one month since my last visit, and I still feel miserable."

"Did you follow the instructions on the medicine that I have you?" asked the doctor.

"Absolutely. The bottle specifically said, 'Keep tightly closed.'"

DIOCESE OF SPRINGFIELD IN ILLINOIS
OFFICE OF THE BISHOP

September, 2022

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

As a diocese, we will soon take up a collection for the Solidarity Fund for the Church in Africa. In his 2020 encyclical On Fraternity and Social Friendship (Fratelli Tutti), Pope Francis wrote, "It is ... urgent to continue to bear witness to the journey of encounter between the different Christian confessions" (no. 280). In this spirit of encounter and dialogue, in September 2020, the Southern African Catholic Bishops' Conference organized a symposium on ecumenism, interreligious dialogue, and dialogue with secular culture. Participants including priests, men and women religious, and members of the laity from dioceses across South Africa and Botswana gathered for presentations and discussions with non-Catholic Christians and Jewish, Muslim, Buddhist, Bahai, and traditional African religion representatives. At the conclusion of the symposium, participants returned to their dioceses to share with their neighbors the message of openness and unifying dialogue.

This vital work of encounter was made possible through funding from the Solidarity Fund for the Church in Africa. Your support of the collection for the Solidarity Fund for the Church in Africa has been crucial to fostering tolerance and respect between neighbors, including those belonging to different faiths, which has contributed to interreligious cooperation and more peaceful communities in a number of places across Africa.

The Church in Africa needs your help to ensure that all the faithful have access to resources to help them grow in the faith. Please be generous to the Solidarity Fund through the collection offertory envelope or your parish's e-offertory platform. #iGiveCatholicTogether also accepts funds for the collection. To learn more about the collection and whom it supports, visit www.usccb.org/africa.

Thank you and God bless.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

† Thomas John Paprocki
