Twenty-third Sunday in Ordinary Time

SEPTEMBER 4, 2022

Wisdom 9:13-18b; Philemon 9-10,12-17;
Luke 14:25-33

The Book of Wisdom was written about a hundred years before the birth of Jesus. Nevertheless, it pretends to have been written by Solomon, who lived nine centuries before Christ.

Today's first reading is taken from the so-called "Prayer of Solomon." Read the entire prayer for the context. In the prayer, Solomon acknowledges that he is called to build the great Temple, and that he is called to govern God's people. He knows that he is just like anyone else; he realizes how desperately he needs wisdom. He prays that God will guide him, for only God knows all things.

Philemon is the third shortest book in the Bible. Paul wrote this letter to Philemon to return Philemon's runaway slave, Onesimus. By law, the owner of a captured runaway slave could punish him even to the point of the death penalty. But Paul tells Philemon that Onesimus has become a Christian. Therefore, Philemon must treat Onesimus as a brother!

We can imagine Philemon's problem if he follows this advice: What will the other slaves think if Onesimus is treated as a brother? Philemon will have to treat them in the same way. And what will the other slave owners think? If all are called to treat each other as brothers and sisters, then slavery is dead!

Jesus says that it is more than just a "problem" to follow him. To follow him means the cross. If we aren't willing to suffer degradation, ridicule, persecution, and even death, we aren't really followers of Jesus.

Let us pray for true wisdom – a wisdom to follow the Lord loyally, whether it is popular or not. In the short run, following Christ is the cross. In the long run, it will be everlasting happiness and joy in the resurrection.

Dear Parishioners,

Well the month of September has finally arrived. With its arrival, we know that summer vacation is completed, school is in session, and our parish picnic is a memory of the past. But before we dismiss our parish picnic, I just want to say that for some reason, this year's picnic had a differing atmosphere about it. The crowds were amazing, the food was delicious, and the service all around was very warm and welcoming. To all who contributed to the success of this parish picnic, I can't thank you enough. I know that my workers at my bratwurst tent made our endeavors like a fine well oiled machine. And I can't thank them enough. But most of all, I again thank our chairpersons who made this picnic the great event that it was. All the planning, coordinating, and preparing were reflected in the entire evening. So again my special thanks to Randy and Amanda Martin, James and Kari Weisenberger, Teresa and Brian Baker, and Jeremy and Sarah Stegeman. My hats off to each of you. And I ask our parishioners that if you see these co-chairs around, please thank them for their efforts. But the overall success is due to the parishioners of St. Peter for their time, efforts, and treasures toward this annual event which brings the best out of St. Peter parishioners. A special thank you is extended to our Boy Scout troop who helped to tear down and put away on Sunday morning. What a great joy to see them working together for the good of the parish. My personal thank you to all of you for making our picnic such a wonderful experience for guests and parish families.

We are beginning the preparation for a new RCIA process. This process is the Church's preparation for people who might be interested in learning more about the Catholic faith and perhaps after a period of time and grace, open to joining the Church at Easter. We usually meet on Tuesdays from 7:00-8:30 p.m. in the Martha Jane Room next to the cafeteria of the church. If you are interested or know of someone who might be interested, please give us a call at the Rectory and leave us the name and telephone number. Remember that all of us have a role in the evangelization process in our Church. Encouraging people to join this process is one way to help in this evangelization role. So if you know of someone who might be interested, please let us know of their interest, but also let them know that you were recommending them to us.

One of the blessings that we have here at St. Peter Church/School is a strong scouting program. This program that instills strong values, promotes valuable virtues, and in the process forms strong leaders for the future has been around since the 1950's. Those who have been a part of our scouting program have gone on to be strong citizens of today. In order to continue this rich tradition, we are in need of parents who will step forward and take the leadership roles, especially in our Cub Scout program. And so we are having a parent's only meeting on Thursday, September 8, at 7:00 p.m. in the Martha Jane Room to discuss the future of our Cub Scouts. We encourage our parents or other interested adults to come to this meeting and discuss the plans for the future. Your input is important but more important is your interest, especially with your time and talents. Please come to this initial meeting. As far as training is concerned, this will be freely given and will be shared with any interested party.

Families, mark your calendar for a special event occurring in the back parking lot on

Thursday, September 15, from 6:00–8:00 p.m.

Come celebrate our first year of having an outstanding STEM lab. One of the highlights of the evening is the Planetarium Sky Dome from St. Louis which will take you on a journey through our universe. It is an inflatable planetarium which you enter to see a star-filled sky. Another highlight is to discover all the places Ziggy, our Stem mascot, went this summer. From those family posts of Ziggy, one lucky family will win a Science Center family membership for a year! The evening will also include a birthday snack, VR goggles, Robotics, and STEM projects to make the event fun for all. Students/Families will also be able to sign up that evening to win engineering kits and Carter gift cards.

This Monday, September 5, is Labor Day and a national holiday. One of the things for which we can be grateful is our freedom to work. And in this freedom to work, we then are able to take pride in our accomplishments and our efforts. Labor or work is God's gift to us for which we need to thank Him day in and day out. So with thankful hearts we will gather on Monday at 8:00 a.m. for a Mass, thanking God for the gift of labor. Please join us!

Just to let you know that you will be receiving a survey in the mail or by email and we ask you to respond to it. These surveys help us to respond more effectively to the concerns of our parishioners. In other words, your comments help us to do a better job in the things that we do. So we need your feedback and ask you to respond to it. Thank you in advance.

ON THE LIGHTER SIDE: A girl, who was not quite four years old, was alone in the house when the phone rang. She answered it and was told that Mr. Brown was calling. "I'm sorry, no one is here. Can I take a message?" she said.

Mr. Brown replied, "Certainly."

After a pause, Mr. Brown heard, "Ok, I'm ready. Who did you say this is?"

Mr. Brown replied, "Mr. Brown."

"How do you spell Brown?" the little voice asked. "B-r-o-w-n."

A long pause, and then, "How do you make a B?"

Parish in Action

PSR Teachers for the 2022-2023 School Year

Deacon Jeff Wolf, Gina Wolf (PSR Coordinator), Cindy Archer, Kathy Obert, Sandy Gallaher, and Becky McCutchen (Ronda Wand not pictured).

Come and meet the PSR Teachers at 6:00 p.m. and join us for the PRS Opening Mass on September 7 at 6:30 p.m. ALL ARE WELCOME. There will be a short parent meeting after Mass in the church and the children will be with their teachers for a short time.

First PSR class in the school will be September 14 at 6:30 p.m. Please get your registration forms in now so that the teachers will be prepared.

Survey Says: I Am Coming

The time is coming to tell us about what you like about our parish, what concerns you, and how we can improve. And in our upcoming parish survey, you will have just the place to tell us.

Over the next week or so, every registered household will receive a parish survey in the mail and/or email. You can also go to our parish website, www.cospq.org, to fill out the survey. We ask that you take time to read through it and respond to each question.

To help our parish become better and spiritually stronger, we ask for your feedback. Thank you in advance for your participation.
