Eucharistic Minister:	Jim Clasius

From the Pastor's Desk

Today the Church celebrates the Thirtieth Sunday of Ordinary Times and we are reminded of a simple but powerful prayer that we can and should make our own..."O God, be merciful to me a sinner."

The Book of Sirach tells us that God listens to the prayers of every sinner, showing no preference. Yet He shows special care to those most in need...the last, the lowest, the vulnerable, and the oppressed.

God heard the prayers of the Apostle Paul with special favor, for when Paul wrote to

Timothy, he was in a prison cell in Imperial Rome, soon to be martyred for the faith. Paul identifies his own suffering with that of Christ, and he rejoices in it. His blood will be poured out like that of Christ. He had no one to speak in his defense at trial, and neither did Jesus. He forgave his betrayers just as Jesus did. God gave Paul the strength to preach the Gospel even in the midst of darkness and difficulty, much like Jesus the Son of God did. Paul's prayers were answered because of his humility.

In the Gospel today from Luke, Jesus compares and contrasts the prayers of the humble tax collector with the arrogant prayer of the Pharisee. The Pharisee was among the elite of Jewish religious and political society. He believed that he deserved God's love and the admiration of others, but no one loved the Pharisee more than the Pharisee himself. In fact, what the Pharisee says can hardly be called a prayer. It was more of a self-congratulatory speech.

The tax collector, on the other hand, had some difficulty experiencing the love of God, and expected no love from the Pharisee or the people of his town, most of whom despised him and were in debt to him. He prays to God as a son pleads with a father and he does so with no pretense or pomp.

The Pharisee asks for praise. The tax collector gives it. The tax collector asks for mercy because he needs it. The Pharisee shows no mercy because to him it is just a word for the weak.

Jesus favors the heartfelt prayer of the tax collector over the many supposedly righteous deeds and words of the Pharisee because it was the tax collector who was being sincere in what he prayed.

We can all learn from the tax collector. In prayer, we stand bare before God, seeing in ourselves what God sees in us, and worrying less about what others may think of us. The tax collector's prayer, O God, be merciful to me a sinner, fits well with the prayers of some of our greatest saints, such as Augustine who said: "Man is a beggar before God."

Saints were once sinners. We are sinners, called to be saints. That is so very important for us to remember...we are not called to be admired, sought after, applauded, etc. in this world. We are called to be saints.

The Pharisee refused to admit any sin of his own which threatened his eternal salvation. The tax collector admitted his unworthiness and in doing so, became more worthy of the freely given love and mercy of God. The same can happen for all of us who approach the Lord in humility rather than pride.

And now just a few notes:

-LITURGICAL CELEBRATIONS THIS WEEK:

-Monday, October 24 - Optional memorial of St. Anthony Mary Claret, Bishop. Anthony Claret from Catalonia was a vigorous reforming bishop of Santiago, Cuba. He founded the Missionary Sons of the Immaculate Heart of Mary (the Claretians, C.M.F.) which today's totals about three-thousand members. He was known to foster credit unions and the apostolate of the press. He died in 1870. St. Anthony Mary Claret, Pray for us!

-Friday, October 28 - Feast of Saints Simon and Jude, Apostles.

St. Simon is called the "Canaanite" and also the "Zealot," an anti-Roman party. He likely preached in Egypt and Persia and is mentioned in the Roman Canon (Eucharist Prayer I). He was martyred in the First century.

St. Jude or Thaddeus (meaning "Courageous") likely preached in Palestine and Persia. He was also martyred in the First century and is mentioned in the Roman Canon. Many of us know St. Jude as the patron of those in despair or in hopeless situations, perhaps because of the similarity of his name with that of Judas Iscariot who betrayed and despaired.

Saints Simon and Jude, Pray for us!

-FOOD DRIVE - A reminder that we will be collecting different kinds of food each week at Holy Family for the Mt. Sterling Food Pantry at least through the end of November. Next week we will be collecting cereal. If you'd like to donate to the food pantry to help those who are in need, you can bring your items (next week, cereal) to church and place them in the tub in tote in the vestibule.

-RESPECT LIFE DINNER - The Respect Life Dinner in Quincy is on Thursday evening, October 27. Reservations were already due but if you'd like to go, a parishioner purchased a table for the dinner and, as of this writing, still has a couple of seats available. Let me know if you'd like to go and I'll see if any seats are still available.

-FALL COLLECTION - The Fall Collection at Holy Family is getting under way. Thank you to those who are helping with that. You may have already received your letter from me or you should be receiving it soon. Those letters are delivered by one of our parishioners. As I note in the letter, those who make a contribution to the Fall Collection before Thanksgiving will have a chance to win a gas gift card. The Fall Collection has been an important undertaking for many years at Holy Family and I encourage every parish family to prayerfully consider what you can contribute. The Fall Collection Parish Organization is co-chaired this year by Sharon Teefey and Jim Rischar. Parish Organization Funds are not included in the parish tithe calculation each month.

-SCHOOL - We have parent-teacher conferences this week at St. Mary's on Wednesday and Thursday afternoon and evening. There is no school on Friday, October 28.

-FRIDAY - I may need to be in Springfield early on Friday, October 28. If that happens, there will be a Communion Service on that day, at 8:30am as usual. As noted above, there is no school that day. I will announce that as soon as I am able to, I'm just not sure yet as of this writing.

-CCW - The Quincy Deanery Council of Catholic Women will be having their next meeting on Thursday, November 3. St. Thomas is hosting this meeting. I strongly encourage all women of the parishes to go if at all possible. With St. Thomas hosting, there is no excuse for it being "too far."

It's always a nice day. Registration begins at 8:00am, Mass will be at 8:30 a.m. followed by praying of the Holy Rosary. There is a light breakfast, and then the business meeting and different talks and presentations. Lunch is served around Noon and the meeting continues until mid-afternoon. There is usually a lot of good information and hand-outs and also a silent auction table. Faith-filled and informative, the ladies who go also enjoy the day with one another.

Registration is $6.00. If you would like to go and are not able to cover the cost, I am more than happy to pay it for you so please do not let that be a prohibiting factor. To help plan for the day, we would like to know if you are coming. Let me know or sign up in church as soon as possible.

There is a National Council of Catholic Women which the Springfield Diocesan Council of Catholic Women is an affiliate of. Within the Springfield Council, each Deanery in the Diocese has a Council. Holy Family and St. Thomas belong to the Quincy Deanery. The Council of Catholic Women actively promote the Catholic faith through service and leadership.

Just not sure if you want to attend? Go ahead and go...ask someone to join you. I think you will find it to be an enjoyable day and one that helps strengthen your own faith life.

-ALL SAINTS DAY - The Solemnity of All Saints is November 1 and is a Holy Day of Obligation. Please check next week's bulletin for the Mass times for this Solemnity and Day of Obligation. It is seriously sinful to disregard completely the obligation to participate in the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass on this day and on Sundays and all other Holy Days of Obligation.

I try to have ample opportunities for folks to attend Mass. Christ has to be at the center of our life and everything we do. This has to be a priority. Participation in the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass on Sundays and all Holy Days of Obligation should never be something that we try to fit into our busy schedules but must be the priority of the day from which everything else flows.

-TURKEY DINNER - The Holy Family Turkey Dinner is Sunday, November 6, the first Sunday in November. Letters for the Turkey Dinner have gone out by U.S. Mail to Holy Family Parishioners. If you have not received a letter, please let me know. I encourage you to help support the Turkey Dinner as you have done so graciously in the past. Raffle tickets are in the back of church and you can also place those and other contributions in the chest there on the table.

-DEER CLASSIC - The Brown County Deer Classic Committee has been hard at work and the Deer Classic is just around the corner. This year's Deer Classic is set for Saturday, November 12. Thank you for your support of the BCDC. As has been done in the past, the Vigil Mass that evening will be at 4:00pm.

-CATHOLIC TIMES - In the latest edition of the Catholic Times (October 16, 2022), there is an interview with a former abortionist. I encourage you to read this interview as it gives some insight into the horrors of abortion.

I urge each of you to continue to pray for the respect for and protection of all human life in all stages. Day after day there are more and more attacks against life, human dignity, human identity, marriage, family life, and God's Will for man, most centered around individualism and self-centeredness, consumerism, and profits & money. That which is against God's Will is nothing other than demonic.

If you do not receive the Catholic Times, you can view it online, but please let me know so that I can make sure your name is added for the print copy as well.

Thank you for your continued prayers for me, one another, our parishes and school, and the Universal Church. You remain in my daily prayers as well. May you have a most blessed week.

-Fr. Aaron

Bulletin Short for Thirtieth Sunday in Ordinary Time
- 23 October 2022

Does God Have Favorites? The first reading asserts that while God, indeed, attends to everyone, there is special attention to the cries of the poor, the weak and the oppressed, the widow and the orphan. (This is why the Church has a preferential option for the poor. See Catechism of the Catholic Church, nos. 2443-2449.) The gospel parable of Jesus contrasts the prayers of a self-righteous religious leader with a despised and shady business man. The question: who is justified. The point: be humble.

- Why does God, who loves and cares for everyone, favor the poor, the weak, the oppressed?
- What does this tell me about my own prayer?
- Since good prayer leads to good action, what mercy work will I do for those crying out in need?
