"On The Q/T..."

From A Simple Path: Mother Teresa of Calcutta, by Lucinda Varney: "The success of love is in the loving - it is not in the result of loving. Of course it is natural in love to want the best for another person, but whether it turns out that way or not does not determine the value of what we have done. The more we can remove the priority of results the more we can learn about the contemplative element of love."

On to the question from Fr. Tony:

I have a confession to make. My name is really Naaman the Syrian. Have you ever read his story in the Old Testament? 2 Kings 5: 1-17. "If the prophet had commanded you to do some great thing, would you not have done it? How much rather, then, when he says to you, 'Wash and be clean?'" How many times has Jesus told me over many years, "Fr. T., your grand schemes, big dreams, vast designs, and big picture visions? OK - but I don't want that from you. Here's a tired, weary, ragged life for others, with no guarantee that you can see it doing any good. Go for it; and leave the rest to me." How hard it is to scale down!! Probably because the estimation of myself has undergo some whittling away. So here's a question: Am I basing my love on what I get back from others? On the way others feed the way I see myself? Am I ruled by the 'Priority of results'?

Hancock County Catholic Churches Mission: The Holy Eucharist. Now that you've seen what the week of October 22 to 28 looks like with Fr. Luke Spannagel, we ask you to consider the wide range of topics he will address through the week; and consider he's one of 58 preachers whose ministry spans the entire nation! Don't go thinking you will have heard everything by going to only one conference - like the one that's in "your" church. Make the most of the week! How often do we have a chance to put our spiritual lives under the microscope, take a good look, and give Jesus a chance to enter into us more fully! You're getting the flier again, next weekend. Start making plans for the plan of the week to have room in our schedules!

Fr. Tony helping Fr. Luke, while Fr. Luke helps us here. For the time he is here, Fr. Luke will be the priest tending to the pastoral needs of the people of our churches. Fr. Tony will be in Peoria, assisting with the work Fr. Luke would ordinarily be doing, outside of his national preaching commitments; in effect, Fr. Tony will be on a type of retreat. While I can attempt to come back depending on what my responsibilities in Peoria allow me to do, please keep in mind that pastoral care visits for emergencies, funerals, and the like, will be taken care of by Fr. Luke - or as you would prefer, Fr. Paul and our deacons. So once again: Between Saturday, October 23 and Friday, October 28, Fr. Luke is here for Fr. Tony, and Fr. Tony is in Peoria for Fr. Luke.

Thank you, once again and always To our parishioners who helped clear out a few rooms so that we can set up meeting and storage space as soon as possible; to some dedicated helpers who took care of sealing the blacktop between Sts. Peter and Paul Church and St. Joseph House; to the helpers who helped take care of the surfaces around Sacred Heart Church in Dallas City; for the cooks who keep bringing the pastor his meals; for the volunteers who are going to be taking charge of the ministry of Rosary and Divine Mercy Chaplet via Facebook; and for those who stepped up to help with our developing bus driver lineup: our gratitude and appreciation! Without your involvement, it would be hard to imagine how things would get done. And there will be more things to do. Don't want you to feel taken for granted. Thank you!

Fr. Tony and WCAZ Radio You've heard about the Sunday morning 10 a.m. segments to which Fr. Tony is committed this month: October 2 already done, with October 9 & 16 to follow. But the talks are posted on the WCAZ website. Of course, Fr. Tony should have known that; but of course, there's no way Fr. Tony could have known that. As time permits, check it out!

Confirmation with Bishop Tylka, Sts. Peter and Paul Church, 10:00 a.m. Mass, October 30. We're only too aware of the need for our churches to support each other for significant events; and that our churches should each have their turn at being the focus of attention in the county. So please understand this request: because we need to see the Bishop see the support we're willing to give to our confirmands and to each other across the board, please come to this celebration of the sacrament of Confirmation! We aren't going to cancel weekend Masses; we understand the limitations and even the preferences of those who want to maintain their habits of life on the weekend. But from here on out, visible support simply has to come through! Let our young people know how much what they're doing means to us. And come see Bishop Tylka!

Meeting schedule through December The following is the schedule for finance council, pastoral council, and education commission meetings. These meetings will take place at 6:30 or 7:00 p.m., depending upon the location vis a vis the Wednesday evening SHDC Mass. Some of these meetings have already taken place; but we place the entire schedule here, as follows:

SHDC, September 28 and November 16

SHW, October 5

SSPN, October 12 and November 30

SPPS Education Commission, October 19 and December 14

ICC, November 2

SMH, November 9

No meetings on October 26 (parish mission), November 23 (Thanksgiving), December 7 (Eve of the Immaculate Conception), December 21 (Christmas). Additional times for meetings as needed.
