"On The Q/T..."

From God Calling, A.J. Russel, ed. Reflection for February 13: "In a race it is not the start that hurts, not even the pace of the long stretch. It is when the goal is in sight that heart and nerves and courage and muscles are strained almost beyond human endurance, almost to the breaking point...In the annals of heaven, the saddest records are those that tell of the many who ran well, with brave, stout hearts, until in sight of the goal, of victory, and then their courage failed. The whole host of heaven longed to cry out how near the end was, to implore the last spurt, but they fell out, never to know until the last day of revealing how near they were to victory...."

On to the question from Fr. Tony:

Let's be careful about second guessing ourselves, laboring under self-imposed guilt (whether deserved or undeserved), and feeling beyond the reach of God's forgiveness. Now, with that caution in mind, how about this for a "looking back" question: When did I bail when I should have hung in there? And here's how you transform a sin or a mistake into grace: What have I learned so that I don't do that again?

Prayers and Thanksgiving on the occasion of the First Communion of Sophia Ruth Asbury at Sacred Heart Church in Warsaw last Sunday. Sophia, may the Eucharist enrich your life and your closeness to Jesus when you receive Holy Communion.

To Fr. Tony and all the good people of Hancock County, Blessed weekend to you all--thank you so much for a wonderful Eucharistic Mission week with you! I was very joyful to be back in Hancock County and spend time with you, especially through the Mass and reflecting on our greatest gift--Jesus truly present in the Eucharist! I also wanted to just offer simple thanks for your kind welcome, invitations, and your generous gifts. Those gifts truly will help me in my travels and help support renewing faith in the Eucharist. Know of my prayers in thanksgiving for you all...and that I send you all my blessing from the altar at Mass. In Christ, Fr. Luke Diocesan Monstrance bearing the Blessed Sacrament: HERE!! A part of our renewal in the sacrament of the Eucharist is participation in Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament enshrined in a Monstrance that is borne throughout the diocese in the year ahead. And our turn comes in two phases, the first of which is a month away. Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament with the Diocesan Monstrance will take place beginning December 1 at ICC, then December 5 at SHW, followed by SHDC beginning December 8. More information about the schedule for this Eucharistic Renewal will be forthcoming.

Blessed Art will be here, December 4 and 5. Fr. Szydlak has instilled into the life of our churches an awareness of the plight of followers of Jesus Christ - Catholics and all Christians - in Palestine. Beautiful, spiritual wood carvings from Blessed Art make for excellent Christmas gifts, or for personal edification any time of year. So be ready to benefit from and to support the cause of the Church in Palestine by taking part in the presentation provided by Blessed Art.

A reminder about Masses in honor of the Blessed Virgin Mary On Monday, December 12, Mass of Our Lady of Guadalupe will be celebrated in Spanish, with reception to follow, at ICC. And Wednesday evening and Thursday, December 7 and 8 is the Holy Day of Obligation of Holy Mary, The Immaculate Conception.

THANK YOU for your thoughtfulness on the occasion of my birthday. As a matter of fact, I was in the emergency room for several hours last Sunday: pain in my upper left leg. No kidney stones. No blood clots. No hairline fractures. Just..."Old Arthur!!" Yep: arthritis in the left hip. Has to mean I joined the club! Fr. T.
