Thirty-third Sunday in Ordinary Time

NOVEMBER 13, 2022

Malachi 3:19-20a; 2 Thessalonians 3:7-12;
Luke 21:5-19

The people of the Old Covenant thought that God would render terrible judgment when the Messiah came. Evil would be destroyed in God's purifying fire. But the upright would rise to share eternal life. Our first reading expresses this expectation.

Many of the Thessalonians had quit their jobs and put on their glory robes in anticipation of the Second Coming of Jesus. Paul tells them to get back to work. The end is coming, but we don't know when. Meanwhile, we must work as well as watch and pray.

The Gospel is from Jesus' "Eschatological Sermon," the sermon on the "Last Things." Many Jews thought that the Temple priesthood had become so corrupt that God would destroy the Temple and build a new one. They thought that this would happen at the same time the Messiah came, at the end of the world as we know it.

Some of this expectation carried over into the primitive Church. Jesus says that the Temple will be destroyed, but the end of the world will not happen yet. He says that there will be many false prophets and false messiahs. There will be persecutions and all kinds of signs.

All of these signs took place before the end of the first century, but the end is not yet. But it is coming! Don't be disturbed; there are no new signs. It remains for us to watch and pray – to be ready when the Lord comes in his glory.

33RD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

“Always put the toilet seat down.” “Don’t sleep with other women.” “I shop and do the dishes; she cooks.” These are some “rules for marriage” people around the parish office shared. They share a common goal: to give oneself to unite in love. Whether we experience faithful or broken marriages; we all desire the perfect unity in love that Holy Matrimony lived well points toward. Perfect loving unity is a universal human longing that only God can completely satisfy.

At the Last Supper, Jesus prayed ardently, “Holy Father...that they may be one, even as we are one.” “...that they may all be one; even as thou, Father, art in me, and I in thee, that they also may be in us... that they may be one even as we are one, I in them and thou in me, that they may become perfectly one...” John 17:11, 20-23 Then, He sweat blood to unify His human will with His divine will to freely give His complete gift of self. His gift on the Cross, triumphant Resurrection and Ascension in glory make possible the loving union of God and each human soul.

At the Last Supper, Jesus tells His Apostles the way to loving unity, “If you love me, you will keep my commandments.” “He who has my commandments and keeps them, he it is who loves me; and he who loves me will be loved by my Father, and I will love him and manifest myself to him.” John 14:15, 21 God gave Ten through Moses. Jesus gives Five through His Bride, the Church. He gave her permission to speak for Him (Lk 10:16) and to give rules (Mt 16:18, 18:18-19). I submit to you, as a fellow repentant sinner who is striving to be a saint, that these 5 Church Precepts are rules for loving unity, with Our Risen Lord Jesus Christ and as His Body:

1. Attend Mass on Sundays and Holy Days while resting from servile labor

Do I guard the time for loving unity with God and His Church? Jesus invites - and commands - us to make the one perfect eternal sacrifice with Him, to the Father, for the salvation of the world at Mass each Sunday and Holy Day. Why? Through Baptism, we are united to Jesus Christ, as members of his Body – anointed priest, prophet and king. You are required at every Sunday and Holy Day Mass for the Body of Christ to offer the one perfect eternal sacrifice. This is why St. Paul can say, “...I complete what is lacking in Christ’s afflictions for the sake of his body, that is, the church”. Col. 1:24 Christ’s Paschal Mystery (suffering, death, resurrection and ascension) won the grace for your eternal salvation (perfect union in Heaven)—but that grace is applied to your soul through your participation in His Paschal Mystery through the Sacraments.

Do I guard time for leisure with my family? As a student, I sadly procrastinated my homework until Sunday—and I missed out on rest with my family. As a mom, I guard the time better: we go to Mass and youth group, visit family and friends, bike, swim, pray, play, nap, serve, read, take a walk, talk, dream and laugh. We need time to be together. It’s ok to say “no” to other things.

2. Receive the Sacrament of Penance at least once a year

3. Receive the Sacrament of the Eucharist at least once a year during the Easter Season

4. Observe the days of fasting and abstinence established by the Church

5. Help provide for the needs of the Church

Am I living the life of unity with God now and making my soul ready for its fullness in Heaven? The alternative now, and in eternity, is loneliness and restless emptiness.

Liz Alonzo-Director of Religious Education

Evening Prayer Every Sunday

Come join us in praying Evening Prayer every Sunday at 6:30 in the Friars Choir to the left of the sanctuary. This 15-minute prayer is part of the Liturgy of the Hours, the daily prayer of the Church that marks the hours of the day and sanctifies the day with prayer. It is a beautiful, ancient prayer of the Church and we all are encouraged to participate. All materials and instruction are provided. Hope to see you there!

Rest in Peace
