November 27, 2022 First Sunday of Advent

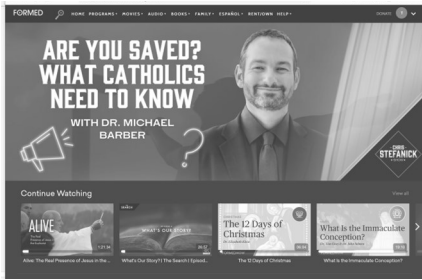

A Message from Fr. Tom Donovan:

As we begin “Year A” of the three-year readings cycle, we once again encounter the Gospel of St. Matthew. Unlike the other Gospel writers, Matthew wrote for a mostly Jewish audience, trying to show how Jesus is the fulfillment of all of Israel’s hopes and dreams. With special emphasis on the prophets and other figures from the Old Testament, Matthew ‘connects the dots’ to show us how God, in the fullness of time, had prepared the world for its Redeemer. The message from Matthew is particularly well-suited to the posture of Advent, where we take a moment in the stillness before the holiday to contemplate how God still loves us and how we still thirst for our Redeemer. “O Come, O Come, Emmanuel. Ransom captive Israel!” We are the latter-day Israel.

We long for a redeemer to lead us from the darkness of sin in to new life. And so we rejoice at the Good News of this season, that God’s redemptive mission shines on those in need from our own day and time.

As you know, our parish is subscribed to Formed, which I have sometimes called “Netflix for Catholics”. In order to open a free account, go to www.formed.org or download the app on your mobile device or AppleTV. When asked, simply enter your email address, identify yourself as a parishioner at St. Anthony Parish in Quincy, and respond to the e-mail verification message.

A number of parishioners have told me how they are watching the daily reflections from Dr. Tim Gray. There is a daily series covering the saints or feasts of each day and also Advent daily reflections for adults and children. We are using the series Beloved for those who are preparing for marriage — and the series is great for marriage enrichment as well. Check out their featured series, Search and Symbolon if you know someone wanting to learn more about what the Catholic Church teaches. Formed as resources for the upcoming Eucharistic Revival observances, and movies and other dramas, including the video version of the one-man productions of Maximillian which was shown at St. Anthony’s last year and Tolton, about Quincy’s own saint-to-be. Besides videos, there are hundreds of podcasts for use in your automobile while travelling. Do something good for your faith life this Advent and look into Formed, if you have not done so already!

Happy Thanksgiving! To all of our family and friends gathered from near and far, we wish you safe travels and we look forward to seeing you again for Christmas. Looking ahead, we will be running our regular Sunday schedule with the addition of a midnight Mass for Christmas, New Year’s Day will have the regular Sunday Schedule.

As a reminder, we know that the season is upon us for the announcements of engagements, as well as gathering the family for other celebrations, such as the baptism of a new baby. We ask that if you are expecting to have a celebration during 2023 at St. Anthony’s, that the parties involved please contact the parish office at (217)222-5996 to set dates and to do all the necessary pre-sacrament formation and preparation. The Diocese of Springfield requires at least six months of preparation for marriage. Baptisms require attendance at a baptismal class. For adult children of parishioners, typically those graduated from high school/college and living in their own home elsewhere, we need to receive permission from their own pastor where they live in order to celebrate the sacraments here. (They are registered at a parish and attending Mass where they live, right?) We congratulate our growing families who have big sacramental celebrations coming up in 2023!

A Message from Mrs. Carol Frericks—Principal

Second Grade Performs Thanksgiving Play

On Friday, November 18, the second grade students performed a Thanksgiving Play for their families. They memorized all of their parts and performed the play to share the “spirit of giving thanks, just like the first Thanksgiving.” The second grade class learned about the hard work and helpfulness of the Pilgrims and Native Americans. The students learned what it means to be “grateful for your blessings.” Thanksgiving is more than a holiday we celebrate every year. It is an attitude in our hearts, and it can create joy. May your hearts be full of joy that comes from a heart full of both thanks and giving.

Giving Thanks

Come into his city with songs of thanksgiving. Come into his courtyards with songs of praise. Thank him, and praise his name.

—Psalm 100:4 ICB

“Whenever you’re struggling in your heart or your spirit, stop and check your “thankfulness tank.” If your tank is almost empty, ask God to fill you with gratefulness. ... Slowly, over time, you’ll stop seeing all the things that are wrong in your life, and you’ll start seeing all the things that are right.”

Quote from Jesus Always For Kids

Christmas Cards for those in the Nursing Homes

Please remember the members of our parish who are in a nursing home this Christmas by giving them a Christmas card (or it can be a letter or a note). Receiving a card during these times is one way to bring some joy to them. They also like home-made cards/letters/photos from the school children. It means so much to them to know their parish family is thinking of them. Boxes will be in middle entrance of Church for each nursing home 1st thru the weekend of December 17/18. Please drop the cards/ letters/photos in the boxes, and mark on each envelope the name of the resident.
