"On The Q/T..."

From A Simple Path, Mother Teresa of Calcutta, by Lucinda Varney: "The hallmark of a true follower of mine is joy. Not a surface pleasure at life's happenings, but a welling up from within of that happiness that can only come from a heart at peace, secure in its friendship with me. Joy, strong and calm, is what attracts people to me. How many who claim me as Lord, reflect a dull Christ, and wonder that the world turns rather to the glitter and tinsel of that world's pleasures. Truly my followers deny me in so doing....My followers too often point to the grave-clothes of the tomb."

On to the question from Fr. Tony:

Be careful, here. Don't box Jesus in. Sometimes we're called upon to reflect the sorrowful Christ, the suffering Christ, even the righteously angry Christ. Like those people who come into our churches and wonder why we have Christ on the crucifix when he isn't there anymore: be careful. We have crucifixes because St. Paul says, "We preach Christ Jesus, and Him crucified." And we have Sacred Heart statues to illustrate, that Jesus has a heartfelt love for us. Don't box Jesus in. Now, given all that, how about this for a question: "How about that joy, coming as it should from a deep friendship with Jesus: just where is my friendship with Jesus?"

Wonderful Confirmation Celebration! For Christina Evans, Bret Garrison, Jaylie Garrison, Cora Hanks, Adrianna Haskins, Graydon Henson, Gwen Huston, Wesley Robertson, Elaine Sullivan, Morgan Titus, and Natalie Wibbell: our prayers continue for you. Your faith and willingness to receive Confirmation was the foundation for a wonderful celebration last Sunday. Too many people to thank with the anxiety over leaving someone out. So we'll put it like this....From Bishop Tylka, to everyone involved in the planning and the progress of the day: our sincere thanks. (Sorry about the smoke-out! We'll keep a better eye on that, next time!)

We Didn't Cancel Last Weekend's Masses We understand the need for people experiencing difficulty with travel and time constraints, needing to have access to their churches for participation in the Mass. There is no problem in the least, in meeting this need. But, always and everywhere, the constant reminder, for pretty near twenty years now. See the success of your particular church as reliant upon the success of the other four. Make it a point to support each other, to the extent that you can, with a reasonable estimation of your ability to sacrifice involved. At a distance because of some hurt along the way? Pray for the resolve to seek reconciliation: we need you.

Do I have to hear that story again? Fr. Tony is 71 this Sunday. One year ago on November 6, he retired. Remember? Well, he's back with his story of what happened on the night of November 5 into November 6 of 1951, when, at 11:27 a.m., he had put his Mom through quite enough, and decided to be born! No gifts, please - just prayers. For stamina. Weight loss. Not waking up at 2:30, 3:30, or 4:30 in the morning.

Veteran's Day, Friday, November 11. In anticipation of Veterans Day, Fr. Tony will have cemetery blessings at the following times and locations:

November 7: after Masses at SSPN and SHW (Oakland, this time)

November 8: after Masses at ICC and SMH

November 9: BEFORE SHDC Mass at 4:30 (Gittings Mound, this time)

How is Fr. Paul doing? His condition is improving, and he is rapidly getting to know everyone at the rehabilitation center in which he is currently residing. Would you like to send him your prayers and best wishes? Here's his address: Msgr. Paul Showalter

Skyline Apostolic Christian Home

7023 Northeast Skyline Drive
