From the Pastor's Desk

Today the Church celebrates the Fourth Sunday of Advent and we are reminded that by our baptism we are meant to cooperate with the work of building up God's kingdom.

In the Gospel, our attention is turned to the role of St. Joseph in salvation history. When we ponder the mystery of the Incarnation, our attention is often focused on Mary, our Blessed Mother, and the way God prepared her for her central role as Mother to our Lord Jesus Christ, to the Church, and to all of us. But St. Joseph too plays an important role in salvation history.

St. Joseph also serves as a great model for us in following God. God invites Joseph's cooperation in His plan of salvation. He does the same thing for us, inviting us to cooperate in His plan of salvation.

We also hear the angel identifying (and addressing) the obstacle of fear that plagues so many. "Do not be afraid to take Mary your wife into your home," the angel says. In other words, Don't be afraid to do this strange thing that runs counter to what you know, to what seems sensible, and even just. This sometimes rings true in our own lives? Sometimes we might be afraid to move forward with a choice we know in our hearts is what God wants us to do, but are hesitant because it just doesn't make sense from a worldly perspective.

In this final week of Advent, perhaps each of us should spend some time pondering these two questions: How is God inviting me to cooperate with the slow work of building up His kingdom...in my own heart, in my family, in my friendships, in the community? How is fear posing an obstacle to my cooperation? And as we ponder these questions, let us ask St. Joseph to intercede for us and show us how to respond to the Lord's invitation with graciousness, humility, trust, and courage.

And now just a few notes:

-LITURGICAL CELEBRATIONS THIS WEEK:

-Wednesday, December 21 - Optional memorial of St. Peter Canisius, Priest and Doctor of the Church. St. Peter Canisius was a Dutch Jesuit catechist and missionary and the leading voice in the counter-reformation in Germany. He organized the German Jesuit province and founded several colleges. He died in 1597. St. Peter Canisius, Pray for us!

-Friday, December 23 - Optional memorial of St. John of Kanty, Priest. St. John Kanty was the Dean of Philosophy and professor of Theology at the University of Cracow. He was noted for his austerity, humility, and charity toward the poor. He died in 1473 and is a patron of Poland. St. John Kanty, Pray for us!

-CONFESSIONS - In this final week of Advent and as we approach the celebration of Christmas, I will be offering some additional times for the Sacrament of Reconciliation.

At Holy Family, I will hear Confessions on Tuesday, December 20 from 11:30 a.m. - 12:30 p.m. and from 6:30 p.m. - 7:30 p.m.

At St. Thomas, I will hear Confessions on Wednesday, December 21 from 11:30 a.m. - 12:30 p.m. and from 6:30 p.m. - 7:30 p.m.

Please know also that you can call me anytime to schedule a time to celebrate the Sacrament of Reconciliation. Because of the Christmas Eve Masses, there will not be the regular confession time at Holy Family on Saturday, December 24.

-ADVENT - We remain in the Season of Advent for an entire week yet. I encourage you to remain mindful of this Season each day. Advent calls us to prepare, to quiet our minds and our hearts as we reflect on God's presence and His coming. In the busyness of life and especially in the hustle and bustle of these days leading up to Christmas, let us remain vigilant to the Season of Advent.

-O ANTIPHONS - As I mentioned in last week's bulletin, according to the Universal Norms, number 42, beginning on (Saturday), December 17, the Advent Weekdays are intended to serve to prepare more directly for the Lord's Birth. At Mass, we have begun to use Advent Preface II (we have been using Advent Preface I) and we began hearing the "O Antiphons."

There is much that one can continue to learn about the O Antiphons. I shared this last year and offer once again. From the USCCB, "The Roman Church has been singing the "O" Antiphons since at least the eighth century...They are a magnificent theology that uses ancient biblical imagery drawn from the messianic hopes of the Old Testament to proclaim the coming Christ as the fulfillment not only of Old Testament hopes, but present ones as well. Their repeated use of the imperative "Come!" embodies the longing of all for the Divine Messiah."

And from Catholicculture.org, "The 'O' Antiphons are ancient antiphons that all begin with the invocation 'O.' They call to mind the ancient longing and pleading of the people of the Old Testament for a Savior to come, invoking different Christological titles on the seven days before Christmas Eve. In praying these we remember the original yearning for the First Coming of Christ at Bethlehem, and echo the same waiting and supplication for the Emmanuel to come at Parousia, His Second Coming. The 'O' Antiphons take us through chronological order from before Creation to the birth of Christ at Bethlehem.

The O Antiphon for each day are as follows, in Latin and English: December 17: O Sapientia (O Wisdom); December 18: O Adonai (O Lord and Ruler); December 19: O Radix Jesse (O Root of Jesse); December 20: O Clavis David (O Key of David); December 21: O Oriens (O Dayspring); December 22: O Rex Gentium (O King of Nations); December 23: O Emmanuel (O God with Us). What I find so very interesting is that by the time we reach December 23, the backwards acrostic of the Latin initials of the Christological titles (the first letter of each Latin title) spell ERO CRAS which means "Tomorrow I will come."

Again, there is so much to learn about the O Antiphons. One more quick thing I want to point out is the "O" itself. It may seem that this is nothing more than the start of an invocation. However, the "O" points to fullness. Again, from Catholicculture.org, "The circle is just a simple closed geometric shape, but in context with these 'O' Antiphons it is more than a shape or letter of the alphabet. The 'O' is all encompassing. The 'O' denotes fullness, completeness, wholeness, ripeness. The 'O' symbolizes eternity, no beginning or end. This simple letter plumbs the depths and speaks to the final fulfillment in the Second Coming of Christ at Parousia."

-CHRISTMAS FLOWER DONATIONS - You can still make a contribution toward the flowers for Christmas, St. Thomas parishioners should have an envelope for this in the regular set of envelopes. For Holy Family, please place your contribution in an envelope marked "Christmas Flowers." The envelopes can be placed in the collection basket or mailed in to the office. These contributions are often made in memory of someone so please include the name(s) with your contributions. I will keep these folks in my prayers in a special way and I encourage all of our parishioners to do the same.

-THANK YOU - The St. Thomas Christmas party last week was a great success. Those who were able to be there seemed to really enjoy it. It was wonderful to gather together as a parish. Thank you to everyone who helped put this together.

-SCHOOL/PSR/RCIA - We will be taking a short break from school, PSR, and RCIA the next couple of weeks. I thank all of our teachers, staff and catechists for all they do. Always remember that these formal meetings, while both necessary and important, are but one element of our faith formation. Faith formation itself never stops and so I ask you to consider how you are continuing your faith formation each and every day. This question is not just for our school families, PSR families, and RCIA folks. It is a question for each and every one of us. If you cannot answer the question specifically, take some time to pray and reflect on it. Your continual faith formation is critically important to the eternal salvation of your soul which is of utmost importance.

-CALENDARS - 2023 calendars are now available in the back of both churches while they last. Hendricker Funeral Home in Mt. Sterling provides these calendars for our parishes. I thank them for continuing to provide these for our parishioners. If you see Jamie or his staff, please thank them or send them a note thanking them for the calendars.

There are 2 different styles this year...Feasts and Saints (similar to what we've have for 2022) and the Divine Mercy. These are excellent calendars to have as they give a lot of information concerning Liturgical celebrations and norms.

Feel free to take one for yourself and/or for anyone you know who may be homebound or in a nursing home or otherwise unable to get one from the church. We are also planning to send one home with each St. Mary School Family.

-UPCOMING LITURGIES - Below is the anticipated schedule of some upcoming special liturgies for both parishes:

AT HOLY FAMILY:

-Christmas Eve, Saturday,
December 24 - 4:00 p.m. and 9:00 p.m.

-Christmas Day, Sunday,
December 25 – Midnight and 7:00 a.m.

-Solemnity of Mary, Mother of God, Vigil Mass Saturday, December 31 –
5:30 p.m.

Please note that there will be no confessions at 4:30 p.m. on this day since I will be offering Mass at St. Thomas at 4:00 p.m.
Confession will be available at St. Thomas from 3:00 p.m. – 3:30 p.m.

-Solemnity of Mary, Mother of God, Sunday, January 1 – 8:00 a.m.

AT ST. THOMAS:

-Christmas Eve, Saturday,
December 24 – 6:30 p.m.

-Christmas Day, Sunday,
December 25 – 9:00 a.m.

-Solemnity of Mary, Mother of God, Vigil Mass Saturday, December 31 –
4:00 p.m.

Confessions from 3:00 p.m. –
3:30 p.m.

-Solemnity of Mary, Mother of God, Sunday,
January 1 – 10:00 a.m.

-FEAST (SOLEMNITY) OF THE HOLY FAMILY -
The Feast of the Holy Family of Jesus, Mary,
and, Joseph will be celebrated this year on Friday, December 30. At Holy Family Parish, this celebration is elevated to a Solemnity since the parish bears its name. Mass will be celebrated that day at Holy Family at the regularly scheduled time for Friday, 8:30 a.m. I am hopeful that we will celebrate the Solemnity with some rolls and coffee
after Mass so please plan to join us.

-END-OF-YEAR CONTRIBUTIONS - Often
times, folks wish to make a year-end contribution to the parish. If you would like to make such a contribution, I ask you to make those as soon as possible so that we can get them recorded in this calendar year.

Additionally, folks are sometimes required
to take a withdrawal from a retirement account each year. In many cases, if the withdrawal goes directly to a charitable organization, there are significant tax advantages. If this applies to you, I encourage you to speak to a tax expert soon

and consider a contribution to the parishes
or to St. Mary School.

-JANITOR SUB – We are still in need of a person or two who could fill in as a sub for the janitor at St. Mary School for a day or two. It may be that we would need some additional help during the summer as well.
We'd like to find a couple of folks who we could call on as needed. If you or someone you know would be interested, please let the principal, Melissa Obert, or myself know.

-SNOW REMOVAL – We are also still in need of folks to help with snow removal,
especially around the school.

At St. Mary School, we are perhaps looking for someone to oversee this for us and a number of folks to help with it when needed. Please contact Melissa in the school office (217)-773-2825 if you would be able to help out.

For Holy Family and St. Thomas, we normally have folks who graciously work to clear the sidewalks around the churches. If you are able to help out from time to time,
please let me know.

Thank you for your continued prayers for me, one another, our parishes and school, and the Universal Church. Please know of my daily prayers for you as well and may the remaining time of this Advent Season be holy for each of you and may you have a most blessed week.

-Fr. Aaron

Announcements from the Holy Family
Parish Coordinator of Religious Education (Ann O'Sullivan -
