Second Sunday of Advent

DECEMBER 4, 2022

Isaiah 11:1-10; Romans 15:4-9; Matthew 3:1-12

Two hundred fifty years before Isaiah wrote, God promised that the dynasty of David would last forever. (See 2 Samuel 7:11-17.) But the descendants of David were a sorry lot. They were weak, corrupt, and faithless kings. Nevertheless, Isaiah — and the rest of the Bible preserves the tradition which contradicted their experience.

Isaiah sees that a “righteous shoot” shall spring from the “dead stump” of Jesse (David’s father). Isaiah calls on us to have hope, even when it contradicts our experience. Isaiah gives a beautiful picture of paradise which will come when the Messiah comes: The wolf shall be guest of the lamb; the leopard shall lie down with the kid ... etc.

In the second reading, Paul urges us to have hope because of the example of patience in our spiritual ancestors. He urges us to accept each other because Christ has accepted us: Whether we are Jew or Gentile, the Lord has had mercy on us all. Therefore we should glorify him by our charity toward each other.

The Gospel is a fiery sermon of John the Baptist. He calls the good people of his day (the Pharisees) a “nest of snakes!” He calls for everyone to turn his life around in order to escape the punishment his sins deserve. No one likes to hear a hurtful truth; but the truth is necessary for our spiritual conversion.

Let us pray today that we may have hope even when things seem hopeless, and that we may always follow the truth – even when it hurts.

2ND SUNDAY OF ADVENT

From Father David

Dear St. Francis Family:

Know of my prayers and Best Wishes on your Advent journey! May our respective preparations for that Blessed Babe of Bethlehem's arrival enkindle greater love and charity in our hearts!

I miss you all. Rather than feel sad, I emphasize gratitude to God for the privilege of our time together! (What two wonderful years, including what I learned under Fr. Arisman's leadership, for which I am thankful.) I hope you noted the bulletin thank you months ago for the farewell cards and enclosures. I wanted to send individual notes, but you might be surprised how busy I have been, friends. Things have been non-stop. Please feel free to reach out with any family news, or if I can remember any prayer intentions at Mass or Adoration: 207 E. Walnut, Robinson, IL 62454.

It's an eight-hour roundtrip to Quincy for me, and I regret I haven't made the journey back since leaving. (I hope the trip can happen in the new year if such be God's holy will.)

As for my new assignment, things are good. (My two churches are still standing—always a good sign.) I continue to get settled-in, and have made some new friends. The two towns are smaller than Quincy, and have charms all their own. (Over Labor Day, for example, I attended my first big rodeo in fifty years! Those bucking bulls are massive beasts! And, no, I didn't ride any!)

Again, know of my heartfelt prayers for you and your families, as I thank you very much for your prayers for me. Enjoy a Blessed Advent, and—just around the corner! —a holy and Merry Christmas!

Fr. David

Notes from Fr. Arisman:

In the upcoming winter months we will get snow again. So as a reminder, please do your best to use the areas that have been plowed, cleared and salted. The west front steps of the church after a large snow will not be completely cleared. The northwest and southwest doors will be cleared but not the large middle door. Please use the sections cleared and know the middle door will not only be snowy and icy but the door will remain locked to discourage its use. Use any other entrance or exit please. This saves a lot of labor to clean off all the steps. Lastly, if there are any cancellations of events that need to happen, please make sure you download the myparish app and have it set up for notifications as we will send out a blast on that app about church event cancellations. We will also post on Facebook and use the parish website. If you have a question about if an event is happening please check before risking coming out. Again, the myparish app is the best place to receive those last minute cancellations, as well as all kinds of helpful spiritual and practical materials.

Lastly, please stop taking the "music issue" (formerly called Breaking Bread) song books home and please stop taking the "Pray Together" books home from church. These must be left here for everyone to use, otherwise it is stealing at this point. I know during Covid you were encouraged to take them but that practice needs to end as we can't keep enough here in the pews any longer, which is the purpose of purchasing these books. If you want to order one for you to keep or to take to someone homebound, you can directly from PAM printers or you can order something like the Magnificat daily readings books. Please do not remove those books from the church. If you have already done so, please return them as soon as possible, as so many have already been taken. Please help us keep our church books available for all to use by leaving them always here.

Rev. Steven Arisman

Evening Prayer Every Sunday
 Come join us in praying Evening Prayer every Sunday at 6:30 in the Friars Choir to the left of the sanctuary. This 15-minute prayer is part of the Liturgy of the Hours, the daily prayer of the Church that marks the hours of the day and sanctifies the day with prayer. It is a beautiful, ancient prayer of the Church and we all are encouraged to participate. All materials and instruction are provided. Hope to see you there!

Adoration this Wednesday, December 7 from 9:30 a.m.-5 p.m. in the church. If you have an hour to give, please consider signing up to be an Adorer. Sign up online or in the gathering space.

Thursday, December 8 is a Holy Day of Obligation, The Immaculate Conception of the Blessed Virgin Mary. The anticipated Mass will be Wednesday at 5:30 p.m. Holy day Masses will be 6:30 a.m. and 5:30 p.m. There also will be an all-school Mass at 8:35 a.m. Thursday.

The Parish is invited to join in A Service of Nine Lessons and Carols with the Quincy University Choirs this Sun. December 4 from 3-4 p.m. in St. Francis Church. This holiday tradition involves Christmas songs and music interwoven with scripture. Light refreshments will follow the program.

Women's Saints Study

Women of all ages: Join us Tues., December 6 at 7 p.m. for this monthly event in the Parish Center. The featured saint this month is Fatima. For more information contact Kelli Lunt, 217- 617-1566 or Karen Weiman, 217-242-5513.
 Bring a friend!

The Vatican Eucharistic Miracles of the World

exhibit panels will be in our Gathering Space before and after Masses starting this weekend.
 The exhibit features 126 true Eucharistic miracle stories, with photos and historical descriptions compiled by Blessed Carlos Acutis, teenaged patron saint of the internet. The panels will be displayed ten at a time, switching out panels every two weeks until we have displayed the entire exhibit.
