January 15, 2023 Second Sunday in Ordinary Time

A Message from Fr. Tom Donovan:

Our readings rewind us back to the beginning of Jesus' public ministry, where he is revealed by John as the "Lamb of God"—a figure whose life would be an offering to God for the redemption of his people, not unlike the lambs presented by the priests of the Temple. It would be some years later when Christ would mount the Cross on the day and at the hour that the Passover Lambs were sacrificed in preparation for the feast recalling the Lord God's deliverance of his people from the slavery of Egypt. For now, we are called to attention to look and see where the lamb leads and what he does. Our Gospels in this time immediately after Epiphany tend to focus on Jesus as a 'man of action', healing the sick, comforting the poor, and speaking a Gospel of deliverance. We must encounter these teachings and let them sink deep within us that they may make an impact and provide inspiration, in preparation for the challenge of all challenges, which must ultimately come, that we should "take up our cross and follow [him]" (Matthew 16: 24).

comforting the poor, and speaking a

Gospel of deliverance. We must encounter these teachings and let them sink deep within us that they may make an impact and provide inspiration, in preparation for the challenge of all challenges, which must ultimately come, that we should "take up our cross and follow [him]" (Matthew 16: 24).

Starting February 8, we will be running a series called The Bible and the Church Fathers. As Christians, we have a fascinating history of reading and interpreting the bible which goes all the way back to the apostolic age. It is one thing to read the scriptures alone, bringing one's own meaning and interpretation of the sacred page, but how much more enlightening it can be to see the scripture through the eyes of those who personally knew the eyewitnesses to Jesus and whose cultural context was so much closer to that of the Lord himself. The insights of their prayerful encounter with the Word of God, ever-ancient and ever-new, can illumine our own journey in the Christian Life. We will meet on Wednesday nights starting at 6:30 p.m. in the parish hall, and each session should run between 60-90 minutes.

Vacation time! I'll be out of town until Friday, January 27. Thanks to our outstanding parish and school staff, everything should continue functioning as usual. For emergencies at the hospital, please ask the chaplain to contact the priest-on-call in order to receive emergency priestly ministry, if it is necessary. For other emergencies requiring the ministry of a priest, consider contacting St. Peter's or St. Francis (both parishes have multiple priests in the house) for immediate assistance. As a last resort, the emergency line at the parish office remains active, so if there is trouble contacting a priest, the phone system will reach out to try to contact me, so that I can assist in that effort.

Please note the schedule of Masses on the left— some Masses have become Communion Services and some mornings will be without Mass while I am away. I will celebrate a "Mass for the People", usually listed as "Parish Intentions," from my remote location. Every pastor is expected to celebrate "Mass for the People" each Sunday and Holy Day of Obligation, as a way to keep his heart and prayers close to the people entrusted to his care. See you on the other side!

A Message from Mrs. Carol Frericks—Principal

7th Grade Creates Prayer Wall for Special Intentions

The 7th grade class created a Prayer Wall to help us learn the Spiritual Work of Mercy – Pray for the Living and the Dead. These 7th grade students are showing their 3rd grade buddies how to add a prayer intention to the new Prayer Wall at school. This week the 7th grade class helped us learn prayers for some intentions for young people. One of the prayers is “Let us pray for young people everywhere. Lord, may your Spirit nourish their hopes and goals, may they be peace searchers, and may their hearts be set on creating a world where justice rules. Let us make a prayer to the Lord. Amen.”

The Bible and the Church Fathers

February 8, 2023 6:30 p.m.

The scripture study class this winter will be on “The Bible and the Church Fathers”. While many Christians know scripture, many are unclear as to how the Scripture was received in the early Church, bringing enlightenment to Sacred Tradition and the Sacraments we reverence today. Lessons include an introduction to the “Patristic Era” of the Church, the biblical of what it means to be a “church”, and the role of the Sacraments, old and new covenants, and “mystagogy” in the life of the Church. Along the way we will meet the apostles, Clement, Polycarp, Justin Martyr, John Chrysostom, Augustine, and other heroes of the age. This 12-part video course is scheduled to begin on Wednesday, February 8 in the parish hall.

Yearly Contribution Statements

If you are needing a contribution statement for 2022 from St. Anthony Church please contact the parish office, 222-5996, to request a statement. These will only be printed upon request.
