A Message from Fr. Tom Donovan:

St. Paul proclaims, “What eye has not seen, and ear has not heard, and what has not entered the human heart, what God has prepared for those who love him,” this God has revealed to us through the Spirit. (1 Cor 2:9) I think when we come to the end of our lives and look upon the immensity of eternity, that we will be surprised at what we will see. Certainly the mysteries of this world will be solved—the losses we have suffered will be returned, the wounds we have sustained will be healed— but what will the Kingdom of God be like? It is hard to say.

One of the images that comes to mind is that of being at a restaurant, or perhaps a store, and receiving an unexpected bonus—maybe a discount that you were not aware of, or a sale that was not advertised. Maybe someone paid your bar tab before going to your table or you received extra good service from the waitstaff in the restaurant. Maybe you had to wait an extra long time because of a lost ticket or slow kitchen or over-done steak and your meal was ‘comped’. In all of these situations there was somethings special... something unexpected... because the management was trying to “go the extra mile” or “above and beyond the call of duty” to make the evening special. Might that have something to do with the Kingdom of Heaven?

We worry so much about justice and equality so much here on earth, and our laws reflect that in so many ways. Those who commit crimes are punished. Those who earn incomes are taxed by a proportional formula. Those who stand in the front of a line go before those at the end. Justice maintains order in our society.

Our God is, indeed, “just”, but God’s justice is more than simple equality and fairness. Listen to his words today: “You shall not kill; and whoever kills will be liable to judgment.” But I say to you, whoever is angry with his brother will be liable to judgment.” Later, “You have heard that it was said, You shall not commit adultery. But I say to you, everyone who looks at a woman with lust has already committed adultery with her in his heart.”

Jesus quotes the Law and expresses his respect, but then he surprisingly supersedes it... making it more challenging to keep, perhaps, but more importantly, calling his followers to go ‘above and beyond’ the simple call of duty.

That is the ‘culture’ of heaven and the attitude of the saints. When Jesus speaks in this way, the grace and mercy of God in action. God intends us to live in that space beyond what the world understands as ‘justice’ and to live in the ‘space of grace’ which lies above it. Next week we will hear Jesus criticize the famous law that one should seek an “eye for an eye,” reminding us that the “space of grace” lies in ‘going the extra mile.’ If a person sues you for your tunic or orders you to go with them for a mile? Give them your cloak as well; go with them for the second mile. Won’t the centurion be surprised with your response? It speaks something of our faith as Christians. To repurpose Paul’s words a bit, eye has not seen, nor has ear heard of such accommodation of our neighbor. We barely know from watching earthly justice how overwhelming heavenly grace works! We do not settle for “just enough”, but are al-ways looking for ways to perfect our virtue, justice, and generosity.

It is about ten days until Lent. Be thinking about how to make this the “Best Lent Ever”! . We have, at present count, seven candidates for the Easter Sacraments in need of your prayers. Ash Wednesday Masses will be 7:30 a.m. and 6:30 p.m. at St. Anthony. Mass at St. Dominic School will be at 8:30 a.m. Believe it or not, Easter is near!

A Message from Mrs. Carol Frericks—Principal

Congratulations on Confirmation and First Holy Communion

On Saturday, February 4, Catholic students from St. Dominic School of St. Anthony of Padua Parish celebrated Confirmation and First Holy Communion at the Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception in Springfield. The Most Reverend Thomas John Paprocki, ninth Bishop of the Diocese of Springfield, presided over the Mass and Confirmation ceremony. Thanks so much to our catechists and parents who prepared our students for these Catholic sacraments. Congratulations to these holy children of God!

On Sunday, February 5, some of the children received their second Holy Communion at St. Anthony Church.
