Sixth Sunday in Ordinary Time

FEBRUARY 12, 2023

Sirach 15:15-20; 1 Corinthians 2:6-10;
Matthew 5:17-37

We don't like to hear it, but we are responsible for our actions! The first reading tells us that we can choose to do good, or we can choose to do evil. We are in charge. And we must take the responsibility for our deeds.

We can choose life, or we can choose death. God does not command anyone to sin; in fact, he makes sure that no one is ever tempted beyond the strength to resist. So what excuses do we have for our behavior?

Our Christian moral code goes beyond our natural inclinations; it even goes beyond the commands of the Old Law. The former law commanded us not to murder; Jesus says we are not even to be angry.

The old law said that we must not commit adultery; Jesus says we must not have lust in our heart. The old law commanded us to fulfill our vows; Jesus says that if we are truly loyal to him, oaths are unnecessary. He commands us to say what we mean, and always to act according to our good conscience.

Our second reading speaks of "wisdom." Pagans thought that "wisdom" was speculation and argumentation. Paul says that real wisdom is to know the mystery of God: that he loved us so much that he sent his Son to save us, and that his Son died and rose that we might have life.

Let us always have the wisdom to seek to know God's will at all times, and the courage to do his will. Remember, we are responsible for our souls.

Sixth Sunday in Ordinary Time, February 12, 2023

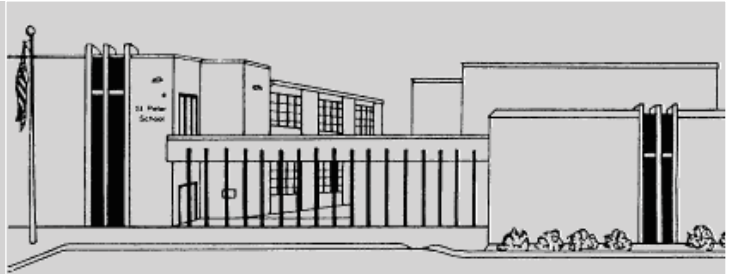

Dear Parishioners,

On this second weekend in our month of February, the Church celebrates the 6th Sunday in Ordinary time. As we prepare for our Scripture readings for our Mass this weekend, I want you to imagine what God's Kingdom would be like. It's a kingdom of happiness; a kingdom of peace; a kingdom people living in harmony and communion not only with each other but also with their God. Is such a kingdom possible for us? Well, if this kingdom wasn't possible, Jesus would never have come to inaugurate it in our world. Perhaps the key to realizing this kingdom is found in our responsorial psalm which state: "Blessed are they who follow the law of the Lord." If you and I follow and live the law of the Lord, we would begin to experience what we pray for in each Our Father, namely, "thy kingdom come." And this is evident in our first reading for our Mass today. The Book of Sirach tells us that "Before man are life and death, good and evil, whichever he chooses shall be given him." If only we continue to choose life and good will we begin to experience first hand God's kingdom present in our midst.

In my bulletin columns for the past several weeks, I have been planting the seed of a capital improvement project for us here at St. Peter. As the old saying goes, "there is nothing in concrete." I have a vision on what is possible but it will all depend upon a feasibility study that must be done prior to any project. We are currently working with a group called the Steier Group which would help us evaluate our needs as well as what we could afford. Needless to say, this is a requirement by the diocese for any capital improvement projects. I just want to keep you in tune with what's happening as these are all necessary steps to bring our vision into reality. And with such a project, we could finally use the space below our Church for Church activities, like funeral dinners, meetings of various groups, as well as open up other spaces for meeting rooms. Most of you are well aware, that a parish center is needed and this would provide us with the needed space to use what we have as this parish center. The last major project, as most of you remember, was the Living Stones Project. I know that this was close to 12 years ago and added the narthex to the Church with some improvements in the grade school. In between that and now, we added a new administrative wing onto the school, as well as air conditioned the school. Is it possible to ask for another major project? Then I thought about adding a gym onto this project because of the need in our community for gym space. Right now, our gym which is the biggest of gyms in our Catholic schools other than the Pit at QND, cannot handle the sports activities of our junior high students. There is very little fan space, we have no locker rooms for the teams to dress let alone shower, and our gym floor needs to be replaced as the rubber coating is bubbling up. I know for practice, our athletic director has to rent spaces from the old Madison school in order for us to practice. If we are going to undertake an addition, should a gym be included? Our parish family has done so well in terms of stewardship that I think we need to look ahead in terms of much needed capital improvements. We sure need the space.

We are looking for a new maintenance person for our buildings. Randy Martin after many years of service is venturing into a new business adventure. If you know of someone interested, please contact me or Kristi here at the rectory.

Week of February 12, 2023

A Message from Mrs. Cindy Venvertloh

"St. Peter School provides a quality education built on Catholic values and teachings."

FOOD COLLECTION TO FEED THE NEEDY IN OUR COMMUNITY

Last week our students were presented with a challenge. As a Catholic Schools Week service project the students participated in the Souper Bowl of Caring Campaign. Students competed among homerooms to see who could collect the most food items for our community. Once again our students and families came through! A total of 6,163 items were collected for this worthy cause. Mrs. Hanafin's 7th grade homeroom brought in a total of 1,002 items (48 items per student). They will enjoy an entire week out of dress code for their tremendous efforts. I cannot tell you how extremely proud I am of our entire school for their generosity! Well done!

SHARING OUR TALENTS

Students at St. Peter blessed everyone with performing in the St. Peter School Talent Show! We had an amazing afternoon watching our students perform!

Fr. Leo's column continued..

Next weekend begins our parish mission. We are very happy to have Fr. Denis Robinson, a Benediction Monk from St. Meinrad Seminary, to be our leader. He will be speaking at all of our Masses next weekend, and then will present two individual conferences, Sunday and Monday at 6:30 p.m. respectively. Please join us as we prepare our hearts and lives for our Lenten journey by concentrating on the Eucharist, the source and summit of our lives as Catholics.

Just a reminder that our season of Lent begins on Wednesday, February 22, with Ash Wednesday. Our Mass schedule for that day will be 8:30 a.m.; 10:00 a.m. at Quincy Notre Dame; 12:10 p.m. and 6:30 p.m. Then during Lent, we will be celebrating an additional Mass during the week also at 6:30 p.m. Also each Thursday in Lent, we will be showing a video on the Eucharist immediately following the Mass.

ON THE LIGHTER SIDE: It happened during the beer and sandwich hour right after the regular Knights of Columbus meeting. Brother Wilson threw out this question, "Did our worthy namesake, Columbus, discover America during the day or during the night?"

Apparently nobody knew the answer. Jim answered his own question. "Easy," he said, "it was during the night. Did you ever hear anyone mention the Days of Columbus?" (ha ha)

OFFICE OF THE BISHOP

Ash Wednesday, 2023

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Although Soviet communism ended in the early 1990s, its destructive effects linger in the societies where it once ruled. Under the communist system, cultural values of charity and volunteerism disappeared. Rapid, sometimes harsh transitions to market economies led to ongoing attitudes of materialism that have left poor and dependent people—such as children, seniors, and people with disabilities—particularly vulnerable. This is especially true in the former Soviet republic of Moldova, which, despite its political independence, is one of the poorest countries in Europe.

The Diocese of Chisinau, founded in 2000, covers all of Moldova and the unrecognized breakaway state of "Transnistria," currently occupied by Russian forces. Today the diocese contains 20 parishes and seven charity foundations that work to meet the spiritual and material needs of the people. This spirit of love for the most poor and needy is evident in Moldova's generous response not only to the needs of its own people but also to refugees fleeing the war in Ukraine. Working in cooperation with Caritas Moldova, the diocese has expanded its outreach and ability to reveal Christ's mercy to Moldova's vulnerable children and youth by establishing a network of care and support centers, where children and youth benefit from informal education programs in a safe, caring environment. The centers also help strengthen the parenting skills of mothers and fathers. With funding from the Collection for the Church in Central and Eastern Europe, the diocese and its local partners have established the centers according to standards for quality and child protection to make them safe and caring environments.

Your support and promotion of the Collection for the Church in Central and Eastern Europe is crucial to the success of ministries that affirm the dignity of children, youth, and other vulnerable people and show them the love and mercy of Jesus. Please be generous to the collection, because your support helps the Church bring Christ's mercy to the Ukrainian refugees, Moldovan children, and families most in need. For more information about the collection and whom it supports, visit www.usccb.org/ccee. Thank you for your help to restore the Church and build the future in Central and Eastern Europe.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

† Thomas John Paprocki
