Fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time

FEBRUARY 5, 2023

Isaiah 58:7-10; 1 Corinthians 2:1-5;

Matthew 5:13-16

The first reading is taken from the third part of Isaiah. The setting is the time after the Hebrews had returned from captivity in Babylon. They expected everything to be perfect; they expected the “light” of the immediate coming of the Messiah. But he didn’t come.

The nation lay in ruins, and the people were poor; they almost despaired. The author tells them to share their food, to shelter the homeless, to help their fellow countrymen. Then the Lord will restore them; then they shall truly see his light!

The second reading reflects Paul’s bitter experience at Athens. There he had tried rhetoric and reason or “wise” argumentation; his preaching fell flat. From then on he resolved to preach only Christ crucified, without eloquence or philosophy. His simple message was truly light for the Corinthians.

The Gospel is from the Sermon on the Mount. In ancient times, there was no pure salt. To flavor food, there was a salt bag with a rock of salt with all its impurities. Eventually, after much use, only the dregs remained in the bag; the salt had been used up. The salt bag was good for nothing but to be thrown out.

We must always be salt, and not dregs! On a pitch-dark night, even a candle seems brilliant. We may not be much, but we can surely let our light shine before others – even if it is only one candle power!

Our Parish Family

Dear Parishioners,

During this past week, we have begun the month of February, the shortest month of the year. It is also the month which will celebrate Ash Wednesday and the season of Lent. Being the shortest month, we can begin to anticipate the season of Spring and all that this new season has in store for us. As far as I am concerned it cannot come soon enough. Even though we have had a mild winter, I am ready for a total change and look forward to mother nature changing out of her winter garments into the new garments of Spring.

Jesus uses several images of what discipleship should be in each of our lives. He uses the image of salt, calling us the “salt of the earth.” What He means is that you and I are to season with our faith, our hope, and our love, the very people who surround us in life. That means we make a difference in the lives of others. As salt seasons the foods we eat, as salt brings out the flavor of these foods, so we are to do the same with the way we live our lives. The second image is that of light, namely, calling us to be the “light of the world.” If we have a flashlight on a dark evening, it serves no purpose if we were to put it under a bushel basket. Instead, we are to use it to light our way. What do you think this says about our faith, our hope, and our love? It is a light that shines for others to see, helping them find their way home to our God.

A parishioner asked me the other day concerning the survey that they took several months ago. Well, we finally got the responses and will be publishing them for all to see. Overall, I thank you for participating and being so honest. It was a big help and we will basically present to you a summary of our findings.

I remind our parents whose children will be receiving their First Reconciliation to be present at a meeting next Wednesday, February 8, at 6:30 p.m. in the Church. Besides being the first teachers in the ways of faith, I am reminding our parents that they are to be the salt and light for your children, helping to form them with a Catholic identity. Translated, this means being models of faith as you celebrate the Eucharist each and every Sunday.

I remind you to reserve the weekend of February 18-19, along with Monday, February 20, for our Pre-Lenten Parish Mission. Fr. Denis Robinson, OSB, will offer this parish mission and will be discussing the Eucharist in the context of Lent. Fr. Denis Robinson is a Benedictine monk who will be preaching at all the Masses that weekend, along with offering two talks, one on Sunday night and then another on Monday, both at 6:30 p.m. in the Church. A reception will follow the last talk on Monday in the narthex. There will be babysitting for children ages 1 and older. Please use this time as an opportunity to get yourselves ready for Lent.

Recently I attended a home volleyball game for the crusaders, our junior high volleyball team from all four Catholic schools. The gym was packed, with very little seating. There was no room for the girls to dress as there are no locker rooms. What I am suggesting is the consideration in our building project of building a gym to accommodate our junior high teams. Think about it!

Fr. Leo's column continued..

Also, during our season of Lent, we will be offering an evening Mass at 6:30 p.m., Monday thru Friday. We will also be making ourselves available for the Sacrament of Reconciliation each Monday, Wednesday, and Friday during Lent from 5:45-6:15 p.m. These are sacramental opportunities provided for our parish family to help you grow spiritually. On the Thursdays of Lent, after the celebration of the Mass, we will also offer a video series called "Presence" and will discuss the Eucharist. We will present a brief video followed by discussion. Again, these are opportunities that we are offering to you for your spiritual journey during Lent.

On the weekend before Lent, we will have available a small book entitled "Daily Reflections for Lent, Not on Bread Alone, 2023." These reflections are written by Susan Swetnam and will be available in the narthex for your used during Lent. They are a small gift from the parish to help you in your Lenten journey. Please make sure that you take one.

ON THE LIGHTER SIDE: Our Lord gave St. Peter a list of people who were not to be admitted to heaven. Later on, He saw them all walking around inside. He went to St. Peter and said, "Peter, I told you these people were not to be allowed into heaven. Why were my orders not obeyed?"

St. Peter replied, "Lord I did what you ordered. I locked my door securely against them all, but your Mother opened a window and let them all come in."

Our Lady, Queen of heaven, pray for us!

Mary. Leo J. Eulow
