Third Sunday of Lent

MARCH 12, 2023

Exodus 17:3-7; Romans 5:1-2,5-8;

John 4:5-42

Lent is devoted to baptism and baptismal renewal. Last week we saw that our baptism meant that we must be transfigured into the image of Christ. Before that, we saw that baptism does not mean freedom from temptation. As the Lord was tempted, so will we be tempted. We must daily struggle to overcome. Today we see that baptism is God's gracious gift to us. We don't deserve redemption, but Christ died for us even when we were sinners; he calls us to share his life-giving spirit through baptism.

Today we celebrate the first of the Scrutinies with our Elect. The Scrutinies are a time of soul-searching and repentance; we seek to uncover all that is weak, defective, or sinful; we offer ourselves to the Lord in order to strengthen all that is upright, strong, and good. In the ancient Church the Scrutinies were tests that the catechumens had to pass before they were accounted worthy to be baptized in the Easter Vigil. Even though the Church has relaxed its discipline, we should "scrutinize" ourselves to see if we live up to what God wants of us.

In this context let us look at the Scriptures: The Israelites complained that they were parched with thirst. God gave them water from the rock to drink. They did not pass the test of faith, but were a grumbling, griping, whining people. In spite of this, God had mercy on them.

(Rabbinical writings said that the rock followed them through their wandering in the desert, and that they had fresh water whenever Moses struck the rock; St. Paul takes this up in his epistles and says that the rock that followed them was Christ – the source of living water!)

If we think we deserve God's mercy, we should look within ourselves. We are sinners. If we have been preserved from sin, it is God's grace and not our own unaided efforts. Paul tells us that God sent his Son to save us when we were his enemies by sin! If we ever get discouraged because of our weaknesses, let us have hope because of the mercy of Christ!

The long Gospel is the story of the Samaritan woman at the well. Jesus asks her for a drink; she makes a smart remark; Jesus tells her that she should be asking him for a drink of "living" water. This is a play on words: She understands him to mean "fresh, flowing, or spring" water. He really means the water of the Holy Spirit conferred in baptism.

Let us examine ourselves: Do we appreciate God's mercy? Do we take him for granted? Do we presume on his mercy? Are we like the Israelites? Let us be conscious of the "living water" of the Holy Spirit given us in baptism; let us live in hope and confidence, but not in presumption.

3RD SUNDAY OF LENT

Now that we are firmly in the desert, we are thirsty. Both the first reading and the Gospel are focused on water and thirst. In these 40 days the desert of Lent will start to make us hungry and thirsty. The questions are will we grumble against the Lord in these days like the Israelites or will we trust the Lord that He will provide? And what are we going to fulfill that hunger and thirst with? The world? Or the Lord? The Israelites grumble against asking why God made them leave Egypt. We do the same when we grumble about the Lord ridding us of our sins, especially those ones we think are fun or enjoyable. Allow the Lord to pull your sins out of you by taking you to a new place, but the new place is one of abundance of good things and abundance of joy instead of enough of things that aren't good for us and prevalence of sin. Use these days to allow the Lord to lead you to the promise Land, but we must leave where we are comfortable to get there. In the gospel Jesus encounters the woman at the well. This is the story of Jesus finding YOU where YOU are. Finding us in our mess of sin and calling us out of it through the offering of eternal life-giving water. See your baptism as a call to change. See your baptism as an offering of salvation. See that life-giving water He pours into you in your baptism renewed in confession and the Eucharist. Go, like this woman, and tell the whole world.

We have been having this opportunity for adoration during the day, on Wednesdays, after school mass until 5:00 p.m. To make this prayer opportunity possible for our students we need you to sign up for a slot. Many, many, many are coming and praying, but most won't take a slot. I know it's a commitment, but without the sign ups it's not possible to offer this to our children or the rest of the community. What you must realize is that the Lord exposed in the Blessed Sacrament can NOT be left unattended ever. This is why we need two people for each slot. In case one is late, or someone needs to use the restroom or if someone wouldn't show we hope their partner in that time would. What you must realize is if you are the scheduled adorers, you can NOT leave until the next scheduled adorer shows. Just because someone is in the Church doesn't mean that you may leave because if they are not scheduled, they may not be aware of the necessity of someone remaining with Jesus and leave and the scheduled adorers may not be present, and Jesus gets left unattended. So, to rectify this we need to come up with a system for someone to know who the other adorer is. I think the easiest is to set up two of the handicap comfy chairs closer to the main aisle and then everyone will know who the scheduled adorers are and switch out with them. I know this means you may not get to adore in your spot you're used to, but this will get us a system (if this doesn't work, we will try something else) to make sure Jesus is never left without someone there to be with Him. If you're next scheduled people do not arrive, one of the scheduled adorers needs to notify the office, but with someone still in the church adoring. We never want to take the opportunity that someone will steal the monstrance with Jesus in it. Please never leave Jesus unattended even for a moment. Thank you for making this possible for our community, but most especially for our school children, by signing up for those slots!

One last thing, please pray for Cursillo 359. I am the spiritual director March 23-26. Men of the parish, please also consider going on Cursillo with me if you have never been! And if I personally asked you to consider going, please trust the Lord is calling you to life-giving water and have the courage to say yes. It is going to be a wonderful weekend and I would thoroughly enjoy you joining us. Let me know if you are interested or talk to any of the deacons. I would appreciate your prayers for the weekend.

To new members Jim and Lynn

Dingerson, Joe Smith, and Maria Williams.

We extend a warm welcome to you and to all of our visitors joining us today. We are so glad you're here and we hope you will come back again. If you would like more information about St. Francis Solanus, or you wish to join our faith community please contact the parish office at 217-222-2898, or stop by and see us.

The students of QND say Thank You! for your support on Commitment Weekend. There's still time to make a contribution to the school. You may drop your gift in the offertory or mail it to QND, P.O. Box 1014, Quincy, Il., 62306. Gifts to the 46th Fund Drive help bridge the gap between the cost to educate and the tuition families pay. To learn more about QND visit www.quincynotredame.org.

Olivewood handcrafted religious items from the Holy Land will be on sale after Mass the weekend of March 18-19. The Christian artists there need your help now more than ever due to the steep drop in Christians making pilgrimages to the Holy Land. Proceeds benefit the artists and their families living in and around Bethlehem. Purchasing one of these unique items will help keep Christians in the Holy Land and help keep Christian culture alive there. For more information visit www.theholylands.org

St. Anthony's Ladies Society is having its Spring Craft/Vendor show Sat., March 25, 9 a.m.-2 p.m. in their Parish Hall. Contact Janet Bick, 217-430-7256 or Tawny Benz, 217-257-0847 for more information, or if you are interested in being a vendor.
