March 19, 2023 Fourth Sunday of Lent

A Message from Fr. Tom Donovan:

The Fourth Sunday of Lent, Laetare Sunday, gains its title from the proper Entrance Antiphon (also called the Introit) that belongs to the Mass: “Rejoice, O Jerusalem, and gather together all you that love her...” The modestly-festive nature of the weekend compared to the other weekends of Lent is a reminder, first, that Lent is now more than half over. Secondly, it is a reminder that, even in this season of penance, we have much to rejoice in, for the victory over sin and death is already won. The completion (and perhaps even the intensification) of our Lenten disciplines is simply an opportunity to further strengthen our minds and hearts to recognize and embrace God’s graces anew at Eastertime. Renewing our commitment to keeping the entire length of the Lenten fast will also help us to sustain our Easter celebration over the entirety of the fifty days that follow Easter Sunday.

If the discipline of Lent has been a challenge or an outright failure, this is the day to review and renew your commitment to fasting, prayer, and almsgiving. If the idealism of Ash Wednesday was too much to carry for forty long days, think a little smaller... think SMART-er. A so-called “SMART” goal is one that is Specific, Measurable, Attainable/Achievable, Realistic/Relevant, and Time-Based. Maybe it was too great of a challenge to “pray more” or “lose weight”, but try something more specific. A Specific goal is not just ‘pray more’, but “pray a rosary” or “read the scriptures for 15 minutes a day” or “go to Mass on Wednesdays”. A measurable goal would not simply be “lose weight” or “be nicer to people” but “lose 10 pounds” or “offer five complements to others every day”. An “achievable” goal for most people would be, “go for a walk every day”, but perhaps not to have “100 miles by the end of lent”. A relevant goal? So many give up chocolate, but what real effect does that really produce in your life? Give something up that will do you real good... quit smoking, go to confession to get rid of a difficult sin in your life. Finally, “time-based” goals recognize that there is no better time than the present to strive towards achieving a goal. If too much time is given, people tend to procrastinate... too little and they give up as the deadline approaches. The next three weeks will help you determine what kind of Lent we have to offer to the Lord at Eastertime... be SMART about it!

The Carmelites are coming!

On Sunday, March 19 at 3 p.m., the local Secular Carmelites will host a Holy Hour at St. Anthony Church. The Secular Carmelites meet each month at a church in the Quincy area for a Holy Hour to pray for our priests. You are welcome to join them for this intention or your own in adoration of the Blessed Sacrament.

A community penance service has been scheduled for Sunday, April 2 at 2 p.m. at St. Peter Church (2600 Maine Street). Quincy area priests will gather to hear confessions on that afternoon until all are heard.

During Holy Week, I am tentatively planning to hear confessions at St. Anthony Church on Good Friday (April 7) at 4 p.m. until all are heard and on Holy Saturday (April 8) again at 4 p.m. until all are heard. There will be no Saturday evening Masses at 4:00 p.m. or 6:30 p.m. on Holy Saturday, nor will there be the regularly-scheduled confessions at 5 p.m.. The only Mass on Holy Saturday, the evening before Easter Sunday, will be at 8 p.m. with the Easter Vigil.

Congratulations Right To Life Poster Winners

Congratulations to our 2023 Right to Life Poster Winners for Grades 3-4, 5-6, and 7-8! In addition to our food pantry we have a mobile food pantry that delivers a 2-week supply of food to rural communities of the diocese in Adams, Brown and Pike Counties. We also provide professional counseling services for individuals, premarital, marital and families, intact family services to mitigate further child abuse and neglect and a MedAssist program to assist individuals with immediate medication cost/co-pays. The program targets individuals who have no, or limited prescription drug coverage. Since July of 2022, we have helped 178 individuals with medication assistance.
