Fourth Sunday of Lent

MARCH 19, 2023

1 Samuel 16:1b,6-7,10-13a;
Ephesians 5:8-14; John 9:1-41

The Fourth Sunday of Lent is often called "Laetare Sunday." (It's pronounced "lay-TAH-ray".) Laetare is the first word of the Latin Entrance Antiphon for today. It means, "Rejoice!" In the ancient Church, today was kind of a "Mardi Gras," since fasting did not begin until Monday after the Fourth Sunday of Lent. So they rejoiced. Perhaps, later on in the history of the Church, they rejoiced because Lent was half over.

But we should really rejoice because our Elect are almost at their goal of the Easter sacraments of baptism, confirmation, and eucharist! During the rest of Lent, flowers are forbidden in church; today they are permitted. During the rest of Lent, the use of the organ and other instruments is forbidden (except if necessary to sustain the singing); today they are permitted. Let us rejoice!

Through baptism, we receive the gift of faith which enables us to see as God sees. This is the theme of today's Scripture readings. The first reading is the story of the anointing of David as King of Israel. Samuel had been told that one of the sons of Jesse was to be king. He assumed that it would be the oldest, strongest, and biggest. It wasn't. He went through all the sons of Jesse and did not find the Lord's choice. Finally, they called in the last son of Jesse from tending the flocks. Thereupon Samuel anointed David as king. God does not see as humans see; he reads the heart! He chooses whom he will!

The second reading tells us that we were once darkness, but now we are light. Once we wandered aimlessly. Life had no meaning. Now everything fits together in the context of faith. Now we are light in the Lord.

The long Gospel story is of the man born blind. Jews, like Catholics, believed that God would often send or permit afflictions in order to purify a person's faith. But they believed that God could not send blindness. The reason was that a blind person could not read the Torah, and reading the Torah was the only way to salvation! Therefore blindness had to be caused by sin!

Jesus says this is not so; the man's blindness is to show forth God's glory. When Jesus smeared mud on the man's eyes, the word translated "smeared" is actually "anointed." It has sacramental overtones. The man washes in the pool of Siloam and can see. The symbolic meaning is that we shall see as God sees through baptism.

At the end of the story Jesus remarks that many blind people of this world think that they see. These are the sophisticated, self-satisfied, arrogant people of this world. They are blind. But he came to make the blind see: to give the real meaning of life to all.

Today, we celebrate the second of the Scrutinies with our Elect. As we pray that the eyes of faith will be opened in our Elect, let us also pray that we shall always see with eyes of faith, and that Christ will always be the light of our lives.

Fourth Sunday of Lent, March 19, 2023

Dear Parishioners,

It's hard to believe but we are already celebrating the Fourth Sunday in our Season of Lent. Not sure where the time of Lent has gone, but it sure is going by fast. Easter will be here as far as I am concerned, not soon enough. With all that is happening in our parish these past several weeks, I know that I need to hear of the Good News of new life that awaits all of us. May God bless and heal all those who need these gifts from God as we wait in joyful hope for the coming of our Savior, Jesus Christ.

Since it is the Fourth Sunday of Lent, the Church celebrates the second of three scrutinies. As you know from previous columns, a scrutiny in the early Church was a series of tests, questioning whether the Elect (catechumens) were able to celebrate the Sacraments of Initiation at Easter. Nowadays, these former tests are intercessory prayers for the Elect. Furthermore since this is the Fourth Sunday of Lent, it is the midpoint in our period of preparation. And this midpoint is called "Laetare" Sunday, a Latin word which means to rejoice. It is taken from the first words of the Entrance Antiphon for this Mass which states: "Rejoice Jerusalem." Today, we truly do rejoice as Easter is but three weeks away. We also rejoice because our Elect will be baptized soon and will join us at the Table of the Lord in the Eucharist.

Furthermore, there is cause for our rejoicing and it is found in our Scripture readings for our Masses today. Our first reading is from the Book of Samuel and it is the call of David as the new successor to Saul as King. What we find in this call is that God chooses the insignificant to accomplish His works. Of all the sons of Jesse, David was chosen by God, not because of any merit or human quality but because God does the choosing for whatever reason that He has. Thankfully, each of us have been chosen to be loved and to love our God and He has given us a specific purpose to continue His kingdom through His working within all of us. Our gospel also gives us cause for rejoicing for in this gospel, we experience a man who was born blind, undertaking within himself a conversion of heart to Christ. Because of his being born blind, people thought of him as a sinner. Into his life of brokenness and aloneness, Jesus steps in and begins to heal him of his blindness, both physical and spiritual. We pray today that God removes the blinders from our own eyes so that we can see who Jesus is for all of us and declare with this man born blind, "I do believe."

We want to welcome Fr. Delix Michel who has returned to Quincy from our sister parishes in Haiti to be with us and to give us a report on how our brothers and sisters are doing in our sister parishes. I hope and pray that each of you continues to remember our sister parishes in Haiti not only with financial support but also with spiritual support through your prayers. Welcome Delix, my friend.

We will be having a city wide penance service on Palm Sunday, April 2nd, at 2:00 p.m. Hopefully we will have a number of priests available for Confessions that day. Then afterward, we will be celebrating what I think is the most moving of the Stations of the Cross called "Mary's Way of the Cross." Please join us around 3:30 p.m. that day for this special celebration.

Fr. Leo's column continued..

As a reminder, we are celebrating the Sacrament of Reconciliation each Monday, Wednesday, and Friday during Lent, as a way to encourage people to make use of this Sacrament. Confessions will be heard on these days from 5:45-6:15 p.m. Then on Saturdays, we celebrate this same Sacrament from 7:30 –7:50 a.m. and then again from 3:30-4:30 p.m. We will also be having special hours for Confessions during the Triduum, namely Holy Thursday, Good Friday, and Holy Saturday.

We are still having our Liturgy for Children that hopefully will be taking place during our 9:30 a.m. Mass. But we can only call them forward to proceed downstairs if we have some adults to lead the classes. If we have no adults there will be no class on that Sunday. Please consider volunteering for this very important tool to help our children understand the Scriptures.

Once again we are asking donation for Easter flowers. Our Church is always so well decorated and very much filled with Easter joy, all because of your donations. Please consider contributing in honor of a loved one.

ON THE LIGHTER SIDE: The pastor had come to realize that, during the congregational Scripture reading, one woman read the verses much faster than the other church members.

So one morning the pastor made an announcement: "As we read Psalm 23 in unison, will the woman who is 'by still waters' while the rest of us are 'in green pastures' please wait while we catch up."

Roman Catholic Cemetery of Quincy—Calvary, St. Boniface & St. Peter's Cemeteries—The 2023 Clean-Up 2023 Clean-up will be held March 20 - March 25.

You must have everything off the graves by Sunday March 19th as the clean-up will start early on March 20.
You may leave the shepherds hooks, but clean-up is a good time to take them home and repaint them. Also if they are rusting you don't want the stone damaged due to the rust dripping on the stone! Everything else please remove!
Please! Mark your flowers with the Name on the stone and your contact number so if they come off there is a better chance of having them returned to the right spot. (Markings should be weather proof if possible.)

Easter Flowers

To make a donation for Easter flowers in memory of a loved one, please fill out the envelope in your packet or, for those who do not receive envelopes, please put your donation in a plain envelope labeled "Easter Flowers" along with this form and place it in the collection by Sunday, April 2.
