Second Sunday of Lent

MARCH 5, 2023

Genesis 12:1-4a; 2 Timothy 1:8b-10;
Matthew 17:1-9

Remember that Lent is devoted to baptism and baptismal renewal. Last week we saw that baptism does not mean freedom from temptation. As the Lord was tempted, so will we be tempted. We must daily struggle to overcome.

This week we see the profound meaning of our baptism: Through baptism, we are transformed into the image of Christ himself! But don't expect that everything is "glory."

Only once during his earthly life did Jesus allow his divinity to shine through his humanity. He was transfigured before three of the apostles. At all other times he looked like an ordinary human being. We may not "see" our divine baptismal dignity, but it is there; and we must reverence that image with humility and gratitude.

Our first reading tells of the call of Abraham. All nations and peoples will be blessed through a descendant of his. Abraham's call was great; our call to baptism is greater. We share in the blessing promised to him.

Our second reading tells us that the Gospel will also mean hardship. Jesus was divine; yet he suffered and died on the cross. We share his divine life; and we, too, must carry our crosses in union with him. Let us not rebel against our daily crosses; let us bear them joyfully.

The experience of the Transfiguration was intended to strengthen the disciples for the ordeal of the cross. It was to help them to see that the Messiah was not the triumphant and over-powering person expected, but was a suffering Messiah. If we want to follow Christ, we must follow him in his cross as well as in his resurrection.

Second Sunday of Lent, March 5, 2023

Dear Parishioners,

Well another month is history is our span of time. We said goodbye to February and now we welcome the month of March. With this new month we are just a little closer to the season of Spring. As we celebrate this Second Sunday in our season of Lent, I ask for your prayers. I will be the spiritual director for TEC 337. Please remember us this weekend as we try to witness to our faith and help others encounter Christ among us. How appropriate that on this weekend that we hear the gospel of the Transfiguration. Jesus takes His apostles, Peter, James, and John up a high mountain and there before their eyes they see the divinity of Jesus shining through His humanity. They were filled with excitement, overjoyed to see the Christ among them reflected in the humanity of Jesus, their friend and mentor. I often picture the TEC as sort of this type of mountain top experience. After three days of intense introspection, they begin to see Christ among them. And just like Peter after this transfiguration wanted to stay on that mountaintop and make three tents for Moses, Elijah and Jesus, so often it is with much reluctance to have our candidates come down from the TEC experience and take their place in everyday living. But that we must. Human experience is not always about mountaintop joy and happiness, but also involves human crosses and human tragedies. These are the highs and lows of human life captured by this transfiguration experience. So again, I ask your prayers for the leaders and candidates for TEC 337.

The Catholic and Public schools of Quincy are on their Spring break. So the entire week our students will not be in school. Hopefully they will come back to us refreshed and renewed, ready to begin the final stretch of their school year.

Just to let you know that we have found new hires for our maintenance person as well as our IT person. I am happy to announce that Darrell Obert will be our new maintenance person and Andrew Goerlich will be our new IT person. We welcome them as they begin their new positions next week.

As you know, we had a survey that you completed several months ago. Overall, the results were really great as far as I am concerned. There were some issues and we will be discussing them in the future. One issue that I would like to address is the fact that I seem to be stuck in one place in distributing Holy Communion. Some parishioners wondered why and why I couldn't move around. Like you, I might be a creature of habit but in this case there is a more important reason. I'm the one minister of Holy Communion who has the gluten free hosts for those who are unable to receive the regular Communion hosts. So everyone knows where I am during the distribution of Communion and will either sit in that section or will jump lines to receive from me. Just one of those questions I thought I would answer.

We are in the process of buying two new screens for the sanctuary. As you face the altar, the screen on the left, when being pulled down at our children's Mass on Wednesday broke off at the top and came tumbling down. Luckily no one was injured. But we decided to look at differing options that might improve our look in the sanctuary as well as provide better visual appearance when using the screens. Please be patient. It takes time but we are working on it.

A Message from Mrs. Cindy Venvertloh

"St. Peter School provides a quality education built on Catholic values and teachings."

SIXTH, SEVENTH, & EIGHTH GRADE STUDENTS PARTICIPATE IN THE POLAR PLUNGE

Several of our students participated in Polar Plunge 2023. The "St. Peter Plungers" raised over $2,000 for Special Olympics. Mrs. Nicole Genenbacher, STEM teacher, and Mrs. Whitney Stanford, St. Peter Counselor, organized the team to help support our community for a great cause. All enjoyed, and appreciated the sunny day as they took the plunge into the cold water!

Fr. Leo's column continued..

There are many activities to which you are invited to make your Lenten journey more meaningful. First, confessions will be held Monday, Wednesday, and Fridays from 5:45-6:15 p.m. We will also have another Mass on the weekdays at 6:30 p.m. Then on Thursdays, after our evening Mass, we will have a video presentation of the Eucharist. It's entitled "Presence." For the men of the parish, they continue to meet on Friday mornings in our school gym using the series by Fr. Dave Pivonka called "Metanoia." Doors open at 6:00 a.m. and the program is from 6:30-7:30 a.m. Also check the bulletin for the various fish fries in the area.

Last weekend I had published that we were having QND commitment weekend in our parish. Needless to say, I was a week early. Sometimes my mind works and often it is lacking in something. But the commitment weekend is this weekend. Please listen and help support our Catholic high school.

ON THE LIGHTER SIDE: A middle aged man thought he had conquered his problem of trying to remember his wife's birthday, and also, their anniversary. He opened an account with a florist, provided that florist with the dates and instructions to send flowers to his wife on these dates along with an appropriate note signed, "Your loving husband."

His wife was thrilled by this new display of attention. This worked perfectly, for awhile at least. Then one day he came home, saw a bouquet, kissed his wife, and asked offhandedly, "Nice flowers, honey. Where did you get them?"

Roman Catholic Cemetery of Quincy—Calvary, St. Boniface & St. Peter’s Cemeteries—The 2023 Clean-Up

2023 Clean-up will be held March 20 – March 25. You must have everything off the graves by Sunday March 19 as the clean-up will start early on March 20. You may leave the shepherds hooks, but clean-up is a good time to take them home and repaint them. Also if they are rusting you don't want the stone damaged due to the rust dripping on the stone! Everything else please remove!

Please! Mark your flowers with the Name on the stone and your contact number so if they come off there is a better chance of having them returned to the right spot. (Markings should be weather proof if possible.)

Easter Flowers

To make a donation for Easter flowers in memory of a loved one, please fill out the envelope in your packet or, for those who do not receive envelopes, please put your donation in a plain envelope labeled "Easter Flowers" along with this form and place it in the collection by Sunday, April 2.
