Resurrection of the Lord

APRIL 9, 2023

Acts 10:34a,37-43; Colossians 3:1-4;
John 20:1-9

The message of the primitive Church was simple: Jesus was the anointed of God (the Messiah) who went about doing good, but was killed by evil people. But God raised him up. In him we have the forgiveness of our sins, and we shall share in his resurrection!

Today's first reading is a sermon by Peter to those who would be the first Gentile or non-Jewish converts to Christianity. The risen Jesus was not seen by everyone, but was seen by many reliable witnesses.

The second reading reminds us that we share in the Lord's resurrection by our baptism. We have died to sin; we have been raised up to grace. So we must now live lives which seek what is above, rather than what is below.

Through our baptism we were called to perfection; most of us have failed. But during Lent we have done penance; we have experienced the Lord's mercy. Now we renew our baptismal promises that we shall be dead to sin but alive to God in Christ Jesus.

The Gospel seems simple and straightforward. Mary Magdalene tells Peter and John that she has seen the risen Lord. They run to the tomb. The younger, "beloved disciple," outruns Peter, but waits for him. They see the burial garments.

So why do they believe? First of all, because of the empty tomb. The Romans had stationed a guard there so that no one might steal the body of Jesus; yet the tomb was empty. Second, if someone stole the body, they would not take time or trouble to slip off the burial garments.

But third, in the original language, the sentence which we translate "wrappings on the ground" is much more profound! It should be translated that they saw the burial garments "still in their folds" or "still with the contour of the body." If someone had ripped off the burial garments, they would not maintain the contour of a body! But here it was, as if the body had simply evaporated! There could be no other explanation except the resurrection!

So what does this mean for you? If Christ Jesus has risen, the faith is true. There is life eternal. There is forgiveness – provided that we follow the Lord with all our heart. Let us renew the fervor of our faith and be loyal to Jesus Christ each day.

EASTER SUNDAY

Christos Anesti! (Christ is Risen!) Alithos Anesti! (Truly, He is Risen!) This is the common Greek greeting on Easter between two people. One announces, "Christ is Risen" and the other person responds, "Truly, He is Risen!" What great news this is, which is why we rejoice and sing Alleluia. This great word of praise to God who has saved us! In Christ's resurrection we have redemption and grace poured forth. In His resurrection, He leads us to where we all long to be! Eternally raised in the resurrection! Our heavenly experience, because of the resurrection, is not just one of the spirit, but one of the resurrected and perfected body! No more pain! No more disease! No more suffering! No more tears! No more death! Christ experienced all to conquer all!

We uncover the statues after these last two weeks of the season of Passiontide. They weren't covered because they needed a nap. They were covered to veil our focus on heaven and the saints and angels and heavenly realm, to focus on the passion, crucifixion, and death. To focus on the cross and Christ's suffering, we cover the heavenly reminders. That is until this Easter Sunday when the resurrection and the heavenly realities are made present in Christ risen from the dead, calling all of us to be those saints here so we may be those saints reigning eternally with Him! So, we sing Alleluia!

The triduum and Easter liturgies are so beautiful and moving, especially gathered here at St. Francis! It is such a privilege and joy to be your pastor. It is surreal that it is almost three years here already! We have accomplished so much together in the Lord, but we have so much more work to do!

Go and announce the joy of the Easter message to a world in darkness and sorrow and pain! Announce the light of Christ and the excitement of the resurrection! Announce to all you encounter of what the risen Christ has done in you and continues to do in you! Announce the good news of what Jesus is doing here at St. Francis Solanus! It is such a joy to tell people all of the exciting things happening here in God's grace! Don't keep it to yourself but go and tell everyone just as Mary Magdalen went to tell the apostles! Then run with those people you tell this good news to, back to the tomb to show them the joy of the resurrection they can not only experience but receive here in the Eucharist! Run back with them and Peter and John and the other apostles to see that Christ is Risen! Truly, He is Risen!

So, on behalf of myself, Fr. Rafal Pynchla, Deacon Wayne Zimmerman, Deacon Dennis Holbrook, and all of the parish and school staff, Happy Easter to you, OUR family! Happy Easter to your families and all you love! May the joy of this day resonate in your time together celebrating the resurrection. To those of you visiting, always know you have a home in this wonderful parish! Christ is Risen! Truly, He is Risen! Alleluia!
