The Seven Last Words by Bishop Fulton Sheen

"It seems to be a fact of human psychology that when death approaches, the human heart speaks its words of love to those whom it holds closest and dearest. There is no reason to suspect that it is otherwise in the case of the Heart of hearts. If He spoke in a graduated order to those whom He loved most, then we may expect to find in His first three words the order of His love and affection. His first words went out to enemies: "Father, forgive them," His second to sinners, "This day you will be with me in Paradise," His third to saints: "Woman, behold your son." Enemies, sinners, and saints: such is the order of Divine Love and Thoughtfulness. The congregation anxiously awaited His first word...." (These words from Bishop Sheen will be continued in the coming weekends.)

Welcome Once Again to Hancock County, Bishop Tylka. We are honored and gratified for the visit of Bishop Tylka to Immaculate Conception Church in Carthage for the celebration of the sacrament of Confirmation at our Saturday evening Mass. He was here last fall, for Confirmation at Sts. Peter and Paul Church in Nauvoo. Let us continue in our prayers for the fruitfulness of our Bishop's ministry throughout the diocese; let us support him in his leadership of the Church in these challenging times such as those in which we now live.

Divine Mercy Holy Hour, St. Mary Church, Hamilton, This Sunday: The Hour of Mercy, 3 p.m.

In keeping with the direction of Saint John Paul II, and the lessons learned from the life of Saint Faustina, the Second Sunday of Easter is Divine Mercy Sunday. We have celebrated the Hour of Mercy for several years now. This Sunday, we will be at St. Mary Church in Hamilton for Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament, the Divine Mercy Chaplet, and opportunity for the Sacrament of Mercy, that is, the sacrament of Reconciliation. Once again, whether it's Jesus or Holy Mother Mary, appearances have announced the mysteries of the Sacred Heart, Our Lady of The Miraculous Medal, Our Lady of LaSalette, Our Lady of Lourdes, Our Lady of Fatima - and now, in our day, the mystery of Jesus, The Divine Mercy. Take advantage of the graces showered upon the world during this sacred time.

Notice Mass via Facebook Missing Every Once in a While? I honestly don't know what happened to my phone! It kept cancelling out my entry for Mass via Facebook. Then, at the Easter Vigil, I asked a member of our Youth Group to check out my phone: for him, it worked! Couldn't believe it! Lately because of a lack of presence of mind while I was ill, I've forgotten about it. But we're back on track now; so, we'll make sure you can catch us via Facebook!

About the Mass with the Priest Facing the Same Direction as You. I don't know how many times it has to be said: we're not going to change anything! We're not going to change anything! One more time....We're not going to change anything! We want your reaction of whatever kind; and we're presenting this way of the Mass to "head off at the pass" any sense of discounting other people because of their preference for a type of Mass. It's coming one more time, later in May. Your choice, not to come: but what I would hope is that you would be present, experience your reaction, and let me know about it. If only an emotional response: it's important to know. I would hope you could share more about whether it helps or hurts your prayer, your spirituality, and your own participation at the Mass. You have nothing to lose by letting me know your reaction. There's nothing to be pinned on you, because nothing is going to change. The only change is the opportunity for you to offer your reaction, based on your own experience. Fr. T.

Have You Noticed A Change on the SPPN Pulpit? The beautiful wood carvings on the SPPN altar and pulpit have had something missing for a while. In case you hadn't noticed: on the front of the pulpit, there was a section of the crown of thorns that has been missing for quite some time. But it is now repaired, and in excellent and most beautiful fashion, thanks to the woodworksmanship of Mr. Gene McEntee. Our thanks to Gene! He even fashioned a replacement piece so that we don't have to wait for future restoration if needed. Be sure to thank him when you run into him; he's known for taking rather long walks in the area! Shouldn't miss him!

A REMINDER...JESUS IS PRESENT in our churches and is VISIBLE during the period of Exposition and Adoration 30 minutes prior to each weekend Mass. All are asked to please enter the church quietly and reverently especially during the praying of the Rosary. Ministers of Hospitality, please close the doors to the nave of the church (if possible) when the vestibule becomes too noisy. Doors may be reopened after the Blessed Sacrament is reposed in the tabernacle. Thank you!
