Welcome to the Oratory of Saints Gregory and Augustine

The Oratory of Saints Gregory and Augustine is pleased to welcome you. We are an apostolate of the Archdiocese of Saint Louis faithful to the teachings of the Church and striving to grow as a family of faith through the celebration of the Traditional Latin Mass and other Sacraments.

In the First Book of The Confessions, the other great St. Augustine (of Hippo) wrote the following: "Thou hast made us for Thyself and our hearts are restless until they find rest in Thee." Whether you are curious about the traditional Latin Mass and interested in exploring its beauty, searching for a parish community where you and your family will feel at home, or seeking rest for your heart, we hope that the Oratory of Saints Gregory and Augustine can provide that respite for you.

Our bulletin serves to provide information about the weekly activities occurring here at the Oratory. Along with our website (www.stlouislatinmass.com), the bulletin is your point of contact with the ever-increasing activities at the Oratory. I hope this will give you some sense of the grace of God, the love of Jesus Christ, and work of the Holy Spirit in our midst. I am delighted that God has brought you here! Oremus pro invicem!

—The Very Reverend Monsignor C. Eugene Morris, Rector

FROM THE RECTOR

This Sunday has attached to it a variety of different names expressing the powerful character of this Sunday within the Octave of Easter. Often times it is referred to as Quasimodo Sunday taken from the first words of the Introit. It is also called Low Sunday reflecting the completion of the great feast of Easter just celebrated. Our Gospel from Saint John presents us with the doubt of Saint Thomas. At first reflection St. Thomas' doubt stems from a resistance to accepting the truth proclaimed to him by his brethren. They have seen the Lord and rejoice in what they have seen, and their joy compels them to witness to this truth. The confirmation of the apostles should be sufficient for St. Thomas. Yet, the life of faith not only involves the confirmation of others but also the intentional and deliberate choice on the part of each person to choose Christ, to believe and cling to Him alone. The doubt of St. Thomas also provides the Lord an opportunity to confirm each of us in our faith: "Because thou hast seen Me, Thomas, thou hast believed: blessed are they that have not seen, and have believed." While there are times when we struggle with our faith, there is never a reason to lose hope for the Lord has already blessed us in our journey of faith.
