Second Sunday of Easter

APRIL 16, 2023

Acts 2:42-47; 1 Peter 1:3-9;
John 20:19-31

Everyone should be a saint! By our baptism, we became children of God, heirs of heaven, temples of the Holy Spirit, members of Christ's Body, sharers in God's own life. We should always live in accordance with our dignity.

Our first reading describes an idyllic picture of the primitive Church. Everyone shared with everyone else. Very likely this is an overly ideal picture. That's the way the Church should work, but unfortunately the Church consists of human beings.

The second reading describes the dignity of our "new birth" by baptism. We are heirs of an imperishable inheritance, but we won't enjoy it fully in this life; it is reserved for us in heaven. Meanwhile, we may have to suffer many things – as Jesus did. This is to perfect and to purify our faith. Let us rejoice even when we are called to suffer for the sake of Christ Jesus.

The Gospel tells of Doubting Thomas. He came to belief because he touched the wounds of Jesus. Jesus says that we are blessed who believe even though we haven't seen.

But there is more to the Gospel. If we fail our baptismal promises through human weakness, we can rise up again. If everything is not perfect, at least it is perfectible. We have "second baptism" – the forgiveness of sins through the Sacrament of Reconciliation or Penance (Confession.)

Christ gave the power to forgive sins to his apostles and their successors and cooperators, the priests. He forgives us through their ministry. If we find that we aren't perfect, we need to make use of the Sacrament of Reconciliation frequently.

Divine Mercy Sunday, April 16, 2023

Dear Parishioners,

On this weekend after Easter, the Church has designated this weekend as “Divine Mercy Sunday.” If we listen to the gospel for our Mass today, it is no wonder why we call this weekend “Divine Mercy Sunday.” It says that the apostles still confused about all that was happening, gathered together in a locked room for fear of the Jews. And then Jesus came and stood in their midst. As a way of comforting and reassuring them, the word that came from Jesus was “Peace be with you.” He assured them that it was He, the risen Lord, as He showed them His hands and His side. Seeing Jesus, I imagine that the apostles were quite relieved. Jesus said again, “Peace be with you.” Then Jesus states quite boldly, “As the Father has sent me, so I send you.” And what Jesus was sending them to do was to bring His forgiveness and His mercy to the people of the world. Because of the Resurrection, there is a new order in which sin and death have been defeated and the mercy and forgiveness of Jesus was to be given. And so in the beautiful institution of God’s mercy now for all generations through the Sacrament of Reconciliation, Jesus breathes on the apostles and gives to them this power to forgive and reconcile. Jesus says, “Receive the Holy Spirit. Whose sins you forgive are forgiven them, and whose sins you retain are retained.” Divine Mercy is now to be given in and through the Church. God’s reconciliation and mercy are now realities to be lived, celebrated and received through the apostles and their successors.

On behalf of our parish family, I want to congratulate the following people who received the Sacraments of Initiation (Baptism, Confirmation, and Eucharist) at the Easter Vigil: Jenna Faye Powers, Miranda Kristine Kelle, and Irma Lee Vazquez. Receiving the Sacrament of Baptism also at the Easter Vigil was Sebastian Alexander Vazquez. We are so proud of our newest members and pledge our love, support, and prayers as they continue to grow in their faith in the Catholic Church.

I also want to take this opportunity to thank our RCIA team for their willingness to share their time and their faith with our newly baptized. For almost 9 months they would gather every Tuesday to assist all those who were journeying in their faith life and be a support to them. Each of you were gifts of the parish to our newly baptized and made an impact upon each of them. So thank you!

As we celebrated our Easter Masses on Easter Sunday, I was so happy to see so many people gathered to celebrate this Easter mystery. The way our society is going, all of us are in need of hearing the hope of a new risen life that Easter brings to all of us. May our continual presence each and every Sunday reflect that need for the hope of Easter in all of our lives.

This weekend, we want to welcome Joe Mattingly and the Newman Singers to our parish to help us celebrate the Easter mystery. They will be present at each of our Masses and will lead us in our celebration of the liturgy. Fortunately for us, they had this weekend available and we took advantage of their offer to come and celebrate with us. They will also be having a concert at 3:00 p.m. in the Church with a free will offering to be taken up.

As we look ahead, Saturday, April 29, our third grade students from St. Peter Church will be going to the Cathedral in Springfield to celebrate with the Bishop the Sacraments of First Eucharist and Confirmation. I ask your prayers for them as they celebrate this reordering of the Sacraments with the Bishop. Then the following day, Sunday, April 30, these same students will be celebrating their second Eucharist with us at the 11:00 Mass here at St. Peter. This is a very important weekend for these young people of our parish as well as an important weekend for our parish itself.

ON THE LIGHTER SIDE: After instructing the first graders for several weeks about Easter, the teacher asked the class, "What does Easter mean to you?"

One little guy held up his hand and shouted, "Easter Bunny."

Another said, "Easter baskets and candy."

The teacher was a little upset because after all her hard work, they were missing the point. Then she called on another child, and he said, "It means Jesus died for our sins and was put in the tomb." The teacher was so happy that someone got it. Then the boy continued, "and if Jesus saw His shadow we would have six more weeks of winter." She just threw up her hands.

"Where does the Good Lord live?" asked the Sunday school teacher of a four year old boy in her class. "In our bathroom," replied the youngster. "What makes you think so?" the teacher asked. "Because," the boy replied, "I hear my dad shout, 'Good Lord are you still there?'"
