Right to Life

— Parish Office Hours —

Monday-Friday

8:00 a.m.-1:00 p.m.

Bulletin Deadline: Monday, Noon

The Gospel of John gives us the greatest variety of post-Resurrection appearances and events, but this week's reading from the Gospel of Luke is a unique and most powerful literary and spiritual accomplishment. St. Luke recounts the events that took place on the Road to Emmaus, where the Lord appeared to two disciples who were leaving Jerusalem and, apparently, returning to their former ways of life.

Of particular interest is the mystery... of being unable to 'see' or recognize who this man was. It was through the transformative experience of Word and Sacrament that their eyes were opened and that not only did they know that they were in the presence of the Lord, but in that encounter, their 'hearts were burning within them', and they felt the missionary imperative to go back to Jerusalem to tell the others about the encounter they had. At that point, the man disappeared from their sight, for what they had perceived but misunderstood in nature (the Risen Body of Christ) was now possessed in Spirit, through the Word and Bread that was broken in their midst.

It seems, sometimes that after Holy Communion, the closing rites and prayers of Mass seem merely functional and perhaps even perfunctory—a prayer, usually some announcements, (which often seem to be disruptive to the flow of the Rites... I prefer when I can cover announcements earlier and let the closing rites move with flow and integrity, but sometimes the pending or 'immediate action' after Mass demands the timely reminder at that time!) then a blessing and dismissal. The dismissal, "the Mass is ended", carries much more importance than the words would otherwise suggest. Being sent on "mission" is the natural conclusion of the encounter with our Lord in Word and Sacrament. Indeed, the word "Mass" shares the root "missio", from where we get the words "dismiss" or "transmit" or "commission"—it means or gives the sense of "being sent". We can only be effective as missionaries for Christ after we have encountered him, and when we have encountered him, our hearts are burning with love of God and the need to proclaim the great things he has done for us. A tepid or fearful missionary is not an agent of change and transformation. A missionary who fails to discern the presence of the Lord in Word and Eucharist stands only on his own life story and not on the authority and grace of God's self-revelation and self-communication. When the Mass is over, we are dismissed on 'mission', to "proclaim the Gospel with our Lives", and in doing so, to "love and serve the Lord". It is thus the natural conclusion to all that has taken place before, and it is the realization that the graces we bear in our souls are not simply for ourselves, but in providence, for all that we encounter in the world.

On the Precious Blood, again: Last week I mentioned the importance of discerning the Precious Blood of Christ which is being shared once again at Mass (and thus carefully avoiding the plain expression "wine" when speaking of the Sacred Species), and the importance of charitably refraining from receiving from the common cup when sick or when one's health is otherwise compromised.

Two short items for this week: First, when receiving the Body and Blood of Christ, one should always be in a state of grace, that is, free from 'mortal sin'. The way to fix that is a good sacramental confession. Consider that Reconciliation is, itself, a sacramental encounter with the living Christ we adore in the Eucharist. Secondly, when one approaches Holy Communion, it is appropriate to give witness to the sacred mystery by making a small reverence, typically a bow, toward the sacrament and responding "Amen" to the proclamation of the "Body and Blood of Christ". These are small things, but they are important expressions of faith which dispose us more fully to the mysteries we encounter every time we receive the Body and Blood of Christ.

A Message from Mrs. Carol Frericks—Principal

Servant Leaders in First Grade

Our school's vision statement is "St. Dominic School will provide our students with learning opportunities to become the BEST person God created them to be." Each year, our School Board and Faculty set goals that help provide these opportunities. The "B goal in BEST" is to Become servant leaders as Disciples of Christ, so each class will take on one "in-house" service project connected to the Corporal or Spiritual Work of Mercy they teach/lead for their month of morning assemblies. The first grade class took up a collection of $131.55 during Mass to purchase carnations and coordinated an opportunity to make cards with school buddies for Visiting the Sick. Then, the first grade class took a field trip to deliver their cards and carnations to the residents at Sunset Home in order to visit and comfort them.

HAVE YOU TURNED IN YOUR ANNUAL FUND DRIVE PLEDGE CARD?

There's still time to donate to the St. Dominic School Annual Fund Drive! The funds raised are used to help cover costs that are not fully covered by tuition and fees. We are asking for your consideration of supporting this fund drive to invest in our youth - our future!

Thank you for your support, and God bless you!
