From the Pastor's desk....

It is back! The paper version of our parish bulletin. Thank you for being so patient while we went through a difficult time with no "hands on" bulletin. We are signing up with a bulletin company for a year and see how things go.

If you want to write something for the bulletin, the "deadline" is much earlier. Be mindful that our last company was a couple of towns away—and now our company is in southern Illinois, Quincy; the hometown of Bob Havens, trombone player of Lawrence Welk fame. The end product will need additional time to get to our doorstep, thus the earlier deadline.

We did realize that many people easily adapted to the "on-line" bulletin and our Facebook page for information. With our new bulletin, we are only able to put a limited amount of information in it at this time; parish and diocesan articles will be about it. In another year, we will be able to expand our bulletin, as at the moment it is very expensive for us.

One thing you may notice also, is the front cover will always look the same. My letter to you will now be on the inside.

God's peace to you during this season of Easter.....Fr. Jeff

Hand-Carved Olive Wood Gifts from the Holy Land

Please take a look at these beautiful artifacts this weekend

April 29 & 30.

Proceeds benefit Catholic schools in the Holy Land.

Did you know that 600 Christian families living in Bethlehem are completely dependent on carving olive wood figurines for their livelihood? The recent clashes in the Middle East and Covid-19 have stopped the tourism industry in Bethlehem, causing most of those families serious harm in earning their living and forcing many of them to leave their homeland.

Issam from "Star of Bethlehem Group" came to the United States with a mission to help those families by selling their beautiful religious handicrafts. The cost of goods goes to benefit the Christian carvers to keep them working in the spirit of our Lord Jesus Christ. Therefore, the profit from sales goes directly to the needy Catholic schools and clinics in the Holy Land. The Star of Bethlehem has been approved by many bishops and dioceses of Jerusalem. Our website: starofbethlehemart.com
