Bulletin Deadline: Monday, Noon

Early Lent features an antiphon that echoes through the entire Lent-Easter cycle: “even now, says the Lord, return to me with your whole heart!” (Joel 2: 12) It is never too late to turn toward God and be saved. Even during the Easter season, the resurrection is a call to repentance and renewal. As we have seen in the last couple of weeks on the Road to Emmaus and in the story to “Doubting Thomas”, the Risen Lord gently, but firmly calls us from unbelief to a new faith. Don’t cling to the old ways that dwell in shadows and darkness. Trust in what you see and what is proclaimed to you: a new life, a new way of living is yours to receive!

In this weekend’s reading from the Acts of the Apostles (2:16ff), Peter and the Eleven stood before the people and proclaimed the death and resurrection of the Lord as the fulfillment of the prophecies of Joel promising an outpouring of the Spirit upon God’s people. The people were aware of their sinful ways and the persecution Jesus suffered at their hands and in their midst. The glory of the risen Lord, not unlike the experience of Peter when he was first called by Jesus (Luke 5:8) leads to a realization of complete unworthiness to those who are paying attention. “Go far from me Lord, for I am a sinful man,” Simon-Peter would exclaim at the seashore after the massive catch provided by the Lord.

But Peter learned to trust in the Lord’s grace and mercy, a trust that grew even greater than his God-fearing reverence. And so on this day, when the apostles gathered to proclaim the Good News of the resurrection, the people responded, asking, “What are we to do?” How are the people to respond to all they have seen and heard? The response: get back to basics! Don’t be unbelieving, but believe. Don’t wait for a better time, for “this is the day that the Lord has made”.

Peter replied, echoing John the Baptist, “Repent and be baptized, every one of you, in the name of Jesus Christ for the forgiveness of your sins; and you will receive the gift of the Holy Spirit.” Any other path will lead into the hands of thieves and robbers. The Good Shepherd will guide his own through the narrow gate and into green pastures of save repose.

This week at the Wednesday night 6 p.m. Mass, our new Catholics will be joining us and all are invited to join for a ‘teaching Mass’ experience. A ‘teaching Mass’ is the general name for a celebration of Mass, where time will be taken to narrate and explain the different signs and symbols, traditions and practices that take place at every Mass, but are usually left unexplained. Why does the priest pour wine and water into the chalice? What are the meanings of the vestments and why are they worn? What are in the books that are used by the priest and other ministers? Why do we reverence the altar? All of these practices and more will be presented. Please plan for 60-90 minutes for the entire presentation.

This week, we finally got our new sound system installed! We have done some initial testing and tuning of the system, but, no doubt, there will be adjustments to be made in the coming weeks as we figure out how it performs. Your patience with this process is appreciated. The system is still not complete... We are going to be receiving a new set of wireless microphones for the music area, and the old speakers still need to come down, so watch for these activities in the coming weeks. Thank you to all who made this system possible!

As a reminder, even the best sound system in the world is limited in what it can do for those who are legitimately hard-of-hearing. We do have a collection of assisted-hearing devices available in the church vestibule which can be used with earphones to aid those who need it. We can also order and provide listening devices/radios for those who would like to keep and maintain their own. Please contact the parish office to make arrangements, or if any of the ‘loaner’ devices need batteries or maintenance.

A Message from Mrs. Carol Frericks—Principal

Student Buddy Program Builds Sense of Belonging

Kindergarten and 8th grade students form a special bond during our Student Buddy Program. Our school utilizes the buddy system to build a sense of security and belonging through relationships and encouragement. For this purpose, two buddy classrooms work on various projects together as well as play games and read with each other. The student buddy program is comprised of the following classes that have been paired together: Preschool and 4th Grade, Kindergarten and 8th Grade, 1st Grade and 6th Grade, 2nd Grade and 5th Grade, and 3rd Grade and 7th Grade. As the school year comes to an end, the 8th grade students treasure sharing their time and talent with their special Kindergarten buddies.
