“On the Q / T...”

From the Devotional, God Calling, A. J. Russel, ed., May 9th meditation: "Doubt of your own wisdom, and reliance on mine, will teach you humility. Humility is not the belittling of the self. It is forgetting the self. Nay more, forgetting the self, because you are remembering me. You must not expect to live in a world where all is harmony. You must not expect to live where others are in unbroken accord with you. It is your task to maintain your own heart peace in adverse circumstances....Only my wisdom can rightly decide anything - settle any problem. So, rely on me...."

On to the Question from Fr. Tony:

There are certain "code words," certain "code sayings" that let you and me know what are true dispositions are, despite any insistence to the contrary. For example: "I'm humble; why, I'm probably the most humble person on earth." So: you're not humble. "I've died to myself, over and over again, just as Jesus has said to die to yourself." Probably you're still very much alive! Humility is the honest estimation of yourself: the truth, without any fanfare, spotlight, attention hoarding. Sometimes, even that doesn't help, because modern day attention to self-esteem, self-concept, and the aversion to listening to people run themselves down, all have a tendency to confuse and even prevent an honest evaluation of self. So how about a question that goes like this: where have you seen humility in action? How has humility looked to you, when it came your way?

Happy Mother's Day! Not to put anybody off, but we start with Mary, the Mother of Jesus - the Mother of God. Just think of that! Even for Jesus, Mary, and Joseph, the privilege for Mary being the mother of Jesus, as well as the miracle of Jesus knowing and creating the privilege of having Mary as His mother! It's the model for all mothers and their children: growing into the miracle of what it means to have such a bond, in such an intimate way. Happy Mother's Day to all our Moms. God's blessing upon you as you continue to take up the call to hold your children in your hearts.

The Sacraments of Baptism and First Eucharist: For Our SPPS Sixth Graders. In case you haven't heard about or seen it, we had an outstanding celebration of the Sacraments of Baptism and First Eucharist for three of our Sixth Graders at last week's SPPS Mass. Makayla and Makennley Vollbracht, after a long time of waiting, finally received the sacrament of Baptism, with the school family present; and then, Makayla and Makennley were joined by Audrey Brownlee for the reception of the Holy Eucharist for the first time in their spiritual lives. Our prayers and best wishes for them, as they continue to grow in their relationship with Jesus through our Catholic faith.

What Great Days! Prayers for Our First Communicants. Last weekend, St. Mary Church took great joy in the reception of the Holy Eucharist by Gracie Ross and Ella Hymes. At Sts. Peter and Paul Church, we were excited to take part in the reception of the Holy Eucharist by Kacie Boyles, Hayden Wheatley, and Eleanor Orth. This Mother's Day weekend, we have two more celebrations of the reception of First Holy Eucharist, and our prayers and best wishes go out to: Stetson Yuskis and Lawson Roskamp, at SHW; and the following from ICC: Ryker Boley, Claire Johnson, Anna Laura Carroll, Alden Maag, Annie Burling, Sydney Huston, Harper Huston, Madison Harrell, Annistyn Siegfried, and Molly Sullivan. We hope that these children and their families enjoy a blessed day on the occasion of receiving the Lord Jesus in First Holy Communion!

Scheduling Changes Continue: Continuing regrets for what this is doing to the spiritual lives of those who rely on a consistent weekly Mass schedule: but we won't have Mass on Wednesday, May 17 at SHDC. The reason for this cancellation is that our Sts. Peter and Paul School sixth graders are having their closing/graduation Mass on May 17 at 5:30, at SPPN. One more week, everyone! We'll get back to our normal weekly schedule soon!

SMH Tuesday Adoration. A reminder that St. Mary Church in Hamilton is holding a period of Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament immediately before the 5:30 p.m. Mass every Tuesday. The Adoration period begins at 4 p.m., and continues (roughly) up to the time of Mass. This is simple Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament, and at a daytime, daylight hour, to meet the needs of those who find the daytime more acceptable for their needs. This continues, every Tuesday afternoon, at 4 p.m. Should the occasion arise to schedule such times of Eucharistic Adoration in our other churches, we'll know, simply by people coming forward and taking the responsibility to start and conclude Adoration on a consistent basis. So, let's see how this develops: beginning at SMH!

Warsaw Sacred Heart ladies-Please see the sign-up sheets in back of church for yearly committees, prayer tree and funeral dinners. Thank you!!

The Month of May provides a special time to honor Mary, Mother of God and our Mother! At St. Mary's in Hamilton during the month of May, there will be a "May Altar" set up with empty vases filled with water for anyone to bring fresh flowers to honor Mother Mary. These can be from your own home garden or even store bought.

Major Parish Meetings. Finance Councils, Pastoral Council, School Education Commission meetings will not be held in the months of May and July. Meeting schedule for the month of June is forthcoming. Our thanks and appreciation for the members of our councils, especially for their patience in adjusting schedules and contending with fewer meetings.
