Sixth Sunday of Easter

MAY 14, 2023

Acts 8:5-8,14-17; 1 Peter 3:15-18;
John 14:15-21

In Hebrew, Greek, and Latin, the word “Spirit” is onomatopoeiac; it sounds like what it means. The word really means “breath.” In Hebrew, it is ruach; in Greek, pneuma; in Latin, spiritus. The concept, of course, is that when a person is breathing, he is alive.

In former times, when a person was in a coma, a mirror or glass would be placed in front of his nose or mouth to see if there was any “breath.” If there was breath, he was alive; if not, he was dead. From this notion, the idea of an animating, life-giving, intelligent and active force came. The word (in Hebrew, Greek, and Latin) thus meant “breath”, “life” and “spirit.” Jewish tradition believed that, when the Messiah came, God’s very own life (breath, spirit) would be poured out upon all faithful believers.

This happened at Pentecost, as we have seen. But it happens also among us. In the Gospel, Jesus promised that he would not leave us orphans; he would send the Spirit of truth, the Paraclete, to remain with us and to be within us. The word “paraclete” means many things. It can mean comforter. It can mean a person who stands by you and helps you in time of need. And it can mean a “defense attorney.” Very likely, it means all these things. The Holy Spirit gives us life, stands by us, defends us, strengthens us, and consoles us.

The first reading tells of the manner in which we receive the Holy Spirit: It is the sacrament of Confirmation. The apostles at Jerusalem heard that Samaria had received the word of God; the Samaritans had been baptized, but had not yet received the Spirit. The apostles Peter and John were sent to them to impose hands on them so that they might receive the Holy Spirit.

Through the imposition of the hands of the successors of the apostles (bishops), we also receive the Holy Spirit. We are empowered to profess our faith boldly, to bear witness to the truth of the Lord, and to stand for what is right and good. We receive the Spirit’s consolation in our difficulties.

The second reading tells us to be faithful, even when we are misunderstood. Even if others ridicule us and defame us, keep standing for what is right. Keep our consciences clear. It is better to suffer for doing right than for doing wrong.

Christ did no wrong, but suffered even to death on the cross. If we are willing to suffer for him and with him, God will see us through and will vindicate us. Meanwhile, we have the consolation of the Holy Spirit who lives in our hearts.

Our Parish Family

Sixth Sunday of Easter, May 14, 2023

Dear Parishioners,

As we gather on this second weekend in our month of May, we also recognize our Mothers as we celebrate a special day in which we honor and thank them for their role in our lives. There was a country song written by the gospel singer, Shirley Caesar, which was called “No Charge” that I would like to share with you this weekend. It goes like this:

Our little boy came up to his mother in the kitchen one evening while she was fixing supper, and he handed her a piece of paper that he had been writing on. After his mom dried her hands on an apron, she read it and this is what it said:

For cutting the grass, $10.00; For cleaning my room this week, $5.00; For going to the store for you, $5.00; For baby sitting my kid brother for you while you went shopping, $7.50; For taking out the garbage, $1.00; For getting a good report card, $5.00; For cleaning up and raking the yard, $7.00, total owed: $40.50.

Well, I’ll tell you his mother looked at him standing there expectably, and boy could I see the memories flashing through her mind. So she picked up the pen, turned over the paper he’s written on, and this is what she wrote:

For the nine months I carried you while you grew inside of me, No Charge. For all the nights I’ve sat up with you, doctored and prayed for you, No Charge. For all the trying times, and all the tears you’ve caused through the years, No Charge. When you add it all up, the cost of my love is, No Charge. For all the nights that were filled with dread, and for the worries I knew were ahead, No Charge. For the toys, food, clothes, and even wiping your nose, there’s No Charge, Son. And when you add it all up, the full cost of real love is No Charge.

Well, friends, when our son finished reading what his mother had written, there were great big old tears in his eyes, and he looked straight up at his mother and said, “Mom, I sure do love you.” And then he took the pen and in great big letters he wrote, “PAID IN FULL.”

On behalf of our parish family, I want to wish all the mothers of our parish a very HAPPY MOTHER’S DAY. Today we recognize you in your special role and we too boldly thank you with our own notes, PAID IN FULL. May God bless you and strengthen each of you for allowing us to see first hand God’s unconditional love through your love for each of us.

This week begins graduation week here in Quincy. This Sunday, May 14, the seniors from QND will be celebrating their commencement at 1:00 p.m. in the school gym. Then on Tuesday, May 16, the 8th grade students of St. Peter School will be celebrating their graduation at a special 6:00 p.m. Mass. As we celebrate these commencements and/or graduations, we also ask God’s blessings upon our young people that He will keep them safe for future endeavors, and will always remain close to them as they remain ever close to Him especially in the Eucharist each Sunday. Graduation does not mean a graduation from our faith experiences but rather a continuation of a life long journey of deeper conversion of mind and heart until we meet our Lord in that lasting dwelling called heaven.

To report allegations of sexual abuse of a minor by clergy or other church personnel -- even if it is in the past -- individuals are encouraged to call the Diocese's Child Abuse Reporting and Investigation number at (217) 321-1155. Individuals may also contact Illinois Department of Children and Family Services Child Abuse Hotline at 1.800.25.ABUSE.

Recently I was asked if as a parish we might be interested in having a transitional deacon for the summer months as he prepares himself for his ordination to the priesthood sometime next year at this time. Since I consider the people of St. Peter parish great teachers and promoters of our Catholic faith, I was more than happy to say "yes" to this request. So beginning on June 1, we will be welcoming Rev. Mr. Jayke White to St. Peter parish to help him engage in ministry and discover what a great parish that we have to help him be formed in the priesthood of our Church. More details later.

I also want to congratulate all of our college graduates as well as our graduates from our public High School and Junior High Schools in this area who are celebrating their commencements. We are very proud of all of you and continue to challenge all of you to remain faithful to the teachings of Christ and His Church.

I also want to acknowledge three people of our parish who have been and will be honored for their contributions to various community groups or educational institutions. George and Mary Nell Meyer will be receiving an honorary Doctor of Humane Letters from Quincy University at their graduation ceremonies on Saturday, May 13; and Jeff Steinkamp who was awarded posthumously the 2023 Joe Bonansinga Community Service Award given by the United Way of Adams County and the Rotary Club. It's always great to see parishioners honored for their service to the community and educational institutions.

Again, Happy Mother's Day to all of our Mothers. We love you and appreciate you.

OFFICE OF THE BISHOP

May 2023

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

This May, our diocese will take up a collection for the Catholic Communication Campaign (CCC). Please prayerfully consider supporting the collection this year. Fifty percent of collected funds stay in the Diocese of Springfield in Illinois and the other 50 percent support communications projects in the United States and around the world. Let me share with you some examples that show the impact of your generosity to the CCC.

Over the past year, our diocese had several big announcements and news stories that were important for the people of our diocese to know. This included the Norbertine Fathers of St. Michael's Abbey opening up the Evermode Institute July 1 of this year, the diocesan Year of the Eucharist going on now, the Eucharistic Congress happening this October, the Illinois March for Life occurring in Springfield for the first time in March, honoring the life and legacy of Pope Benedict XVI after his death, and the countless stories of conversion, inspiration, and faith of people in our diocese.

Through Catholic Times, social media, podcasting, and other digital methods, our diocese is taking advantage of several communication outlets to spread the news of our diocese, teach the faith, and provide hope and encouragement to people no matter where they are in their faith life.

Followers on the diocesan social media channels continue to grow. Our channels have far more followers than most dioceses our size, and several that are two to three times as big as our diocese. For example, our Facebook page surpassed 10,000 followers over the past year (we had about 3,000 followers four years ago). In 2020, our YouTube channel had under 500 subscribers. Today, it has more than 3,000. This shows that the content our curia team is producing is engaging, inspirational, and educational, and people want to consume it because it is helping them.

For example, a search on You Tube for "How to go to Confession," has a video from our diocese in the top five for answering that question. Dive Deep, the official podcast of the Diocese of Springfield in Illinois, has listeners all over the world, and recently interviewed Father Mike Schmitz that attracted nearly 70,000 views. In July this year, an original documentary, created and produced by our curia team, will premiere. God is Alive tells five stories of miraculous events/ incredible faith stories in five different cities in Central Illinois that will boost people's spiritual lives.

With your generosity, we can continue creating engaging content and bring people closer to our faith or even back to our faith.

Parishioners can donate online at parishgiving.dio.org/secondcollections or use their second collection envelope. You can also mail your donation to your parish office. For more information about the collection and the projects it supports, visit www.usccb.org/cc. Thank you.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Thomas John Paprocki
