From the Pastor's desk....

This weekend we celebrate the Ascension of the Lord. This used to be a Holy Day on Thursday (May 18, this year), but most diocese in the United States have moved it to this Sunday. We celebrate that Jesus enters heaven; also our eternal home. It is a significant day in our Easter Season. Next weekend we conclude Easter with the great Feast of Pentecost when we see Jesus imparting the Holy Spirit upon his friends. May the next week in this holy season be a good one for you, as you reflect on the death—and resurrection of Jesus Christ.

It is graduation time for many of our young people. Today I am celebrating Mass at 10:00 at the fieldhouse over at Montini Catholic High School. This is their graduation mass with the students and parents of the school. It is always a joy to visit Montini; they are very respectful towards me and anything that has to do with our Catholic faith. I pray that the graduates will use the tools that God gave them, and will never forget how they got to this point in their life. Let us pray for all our graduates from different places of learning, that God may be with them in all their endeavors. May God watch over and protect all who are continuing to attend school, may they learn well, and understand the gifts God has given them. Peace.....Fr. Jeff
