Solemnity of The Ascension

MAY 21, 2023

Acts 1:1-11; Ephesians 1:17-23;
Matthew 28:16-20

Heaven is not “up;” hell is not “down;” earth is not in the middle. Often, however, we visualize a “three storeyed” universe. In many ways this is a problem: If we imagine Jesus going “up,” we may think of him as far from us, as billions of light years away. It’s hard to imagine him as close to us with such an idea.

The ascension of Jesus is not his being “taken away” from us. Rather, the ascension means that he enters the dimension of the Father’s glory. His sacrifice is accepted by the Father, who takes him to “his right hand.” At the “right hand” of the Father, Jesus is our Mediator, our Intercessor with the Father. We can have perfect confidence in the love of the Father, for Jesus is “at his right hand.”

At the same time, Jesus has not departed from us. He has entered the Father’s glory in order to be closer to us than he was in his visible, physical body. He is right here with us. We can, therefore, have confidence in our prayers which are heard by the Father “through Jesus Christ our Lord.” We can have confidence that Jesus, who is with us, knows us, cares for us, loves us, and will see us through every crisis.

Our first reading describes the ascension. Jesus is taken into the cloud of the Father’s glory. It is the same cloud we saw in the Exodus, in the dedication of the temple at Jerusalem, and in the Transfiguration. While the apostles gaze at the scene, angels tell them and us to get busy. We must not rest until we proclaim the “Good News” to every creature.

In the second reading, St. Paul tells us that Jesus is our one unique Mediator with the Father. He is superior to every angel and every other creature. We come to the Father through him.

The word “fullness” means “everything that makes one to be who he is.” Jesus is the fullness of the Father; everything that is the Father resides bodily in Jesus. And we, the Church, are the “fullness” of Jesus! Everything that is Jesus Christ resides in us, the Church. Let us be aware of our dignity and live accordingly.

The Gospel is sometimes called “The Great Commission.” As he ascends to the glory of the Father, Jesus commands us to go forth and teach all nations. Are we faithful to this command?

The Ascension of the Lord, May 21, 2023

Dear Parishioners,

This particular weekend might cause some confusion in the lives of some Catholics. When I was growing up, one of the Holydays of Obligation as we learned them was Ascension Thursday, which we always recited as 40 days after Easter. Because many Catholics did not attend Mass on that 40th day after Easter, various provinces in the United States moved the date to the weekend after that 40th day of Easter. But other provinces in the U.S. did not and remained celebrating Ascension as that Thursday, 40 days after Easter. And so there remains some confusion throughout the United States concerning this particular Holyday. Suffice to say that living in the state of Illinois, the Catholic Church has transferred the Ascension to this particular weekend.

In the Acts of the Apostles as our first reading from this weekend, we hear the following: "I dealt with all that Jesus did and taught until the day He was taken up, after giving instructions through the Holy Spirit to the apostles whom He had chosen. He presented proofs after He suffered, appearing to them during forty days and speaking about the kingdom." Then the reading continues as it states: "When He had said this, as they were looking on, He was lifted up, and a cloud took Him from their sight. While they were looking intently at the sky as He was going, suddenly two men dressed in white garments stood beside them. They said, 'Men of Galilee, why are you standing there looking at the sky? This Jesus who has been taken up from you into heaven will return in the same way as you have seen Him going into heaven.'" Thus the words of the Nicene Creed are fulfilled as it states: "He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father."

This week celebrates our last week of school before our summer vacation begins. I remind all of our students that even though we will be enjoying time away from our school, it is not time away from our faith. The Catholic Church still challenges us to be at the Eucharist each and every weekend. I expect our parents to be examples of faith and bring their young people to Mass each and every weekend. There really is no excuse for missing the Eucharist. In fact, our last day of school will be this Thursday, May 25. Our Mass that day will be at 8:30 a.m. instead of 8:00 a.m. so that we can accommodate our young students before summer break. After Mass, we will have our end of the year school picnic with dismissal at 11:30 a.m.

Next Friday, the Bishop will be ordaining several young men to the transitional diaconate at the Cathedral at 6:30 p.m. One of these young men is Jayke White who has been assigned here at St. Peter to help acquaint him to his new ministry as a deacon and soon to be priest. Please keep him in your prayers as he begins his lifelong ministry in service to the Church. We are very privileged to have him in our parish.

Monday, May 29 is Memorial Day. As is the custom we will be having a Mass at Calvary Cemetery at 9:00 a.m. Please bring your lawn chairs and/or blankets for seating. In case of inclement weather, we will have the Mass here at St. Peter Church. St. Peter Church is in charge of this Mass this year.

Reporting Allegations of Child Sexual Abuse

To report allegations of sexual abuse of a minor by clergy or other church personnel – even if it is in the past – individuals are encouraged to call the Diocese's Child Abuse Reporting and Investigation number at (217) 321-1155. Individuals may also contact Illinois Department of Children and Family Services Child Abuse Hotline at 1.800.25.ABUSE.

For your information, Fr. Zach and I will be attending the annual Priest's Retreat located this year around Peoria, Illinois. We will be expected to be present from Sunday evening, June 4 to Friday, June 9. Because of our absence, we will not be having our daily Eucharist. Instead with the presence of our new deacon, we will be having a Liturgy of the Word and Communion Service each of those days that we are away.

In the narthex of the Church, there are a number of pamphlets entitled the "Treasures of the Catholic Church; Eucharistic Miracles." You are invited to take a copy, one per family, and read about the various Eucharistic miracles that have been documented by the Catholic Church. These pamphlets are a way to help us grow in our understanding of the Eucharist, the great Sacrament that our Lord left us to draw ever closer to Him. Hopefully by reading and reflecting, perhaps the Eucharist will be appreciated and celebrated more by all of us.

ON THE LIGHTER SIDE: The middle school band teacher would try to match students to instruments by testing them on various mouthpieces. While most children demonstrate aptitude on more than a single instrument, there was one boy who was having difficulty on every one he tried, and he was becoming disheartened.

Finally, he found success on a tuba mouthpiece. He was so happy that he asked to call his mother. "Mom, guess what!" he was overheard to say. "I tested positive for tuba!"

OFFICE OF THE BISHOP

May, 2023

Dear Friends in Christ,

Each year on the feast of Pentecost we rejoice that the gifts of the Holy Spirit are given to the Church in every age. As we celebrate this feast, I ask you to consider a generous response in the Retired Diocesan Priests Collection to meet the immediate retirement and health care needs of our priests.

Please pray for our priests who serve so generously in various apostolates throughout our diocese. Please thank God for all that we have received from our priests who are now retired, many of whom continue to offer generous service in every way that they are able throughout our diocese.

If you are unable to make an in-church contribution, please make your donation online at parishgiving.dio.org/secondcollections.

You can also mail your donation to your parish office.

Thank you in advance for your support this year. May the Holy Spirit give us every gift we need to build up the Body of Christ in our time and place.

With every best wish and prayers, I remain

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Thomas John Paprocki

Most Reverend Thomas John Paprocki
Bishop of Springfield in Illinois
