Lessons in the Meaning of Pentecost from Sts. Peter and Paul School

It must have been weird. You're in a huge crowd of people drawn to the sound of an incredibly strong wind, aware that there are multiple languages and dialects represented there, and everybody's listening to twelve men, each being understood in the languages and dialects representing that crowd! OK: a miracle. Weird, if you were there: really weird. And yet, something wonderful is happening. A new family, a new nation, a new kingdom is being spoken into existence: the Church. As a result of the breakdown in communication at the Tower of Babel in the Old Testament, nations had to make the effort to understand each other and work together. Sts. Peter and Paul School is like that: many voices, distinct, occasionally in conflict, but always with the understanding that there's an obligation to make the effort to work together and understand each other. Many gifts of the Holy Spirit make that happen. "All the parts of the Body, many though they are, are one Body." "There are different forms of service, but the same Lord." Sts. Peter and Paul School is an ongoing work of the Holy Spirit.

You're not just taking part in a fundraiser when you come to God's Portion Day. You're seeing a work of the Holy Spirit. You should make it a point to come and be a part of it. June 4: next Sunday, 8 a.m. Mass at SPPN; breakfast to follow, with the auction beginning at 10:30 a.m. Whether to be a part of the people to be thanked, or a part of the people to show thanks, don't leave the day to somebody else being there, doing it. Come on over, if only for a while. Come on over!

Mass Schedule Change for God's Portion Day, Sunday, June 4. We realize the inconvenience we're causing every time we do this: but for the sake of our school, the weekend of June 3/4 has to favor God's Portion Day, and that includes Fr. Tony's presence there. So please remember the Mass schedule for God's Portion Day weekend:

Saturday, June 3: 4 p.m. Mass at ICC and 5:30 p.m. Mass at SMH.

Sunday, June 4: 8 a.m. Mass at SPPN, only!! Our apologies to SHW and SHDC. We thank you for the understanding and consideration you offer now, and that you have offered over many years.

*Breakfast after 8 a.m. Mass and Auction is set to kick off at 10.30 a.m.***

Memorial Day Cemetery Blessing Schedule. This weekend has become a time to honor all of those who served, particularly those who died, in our nation's wars. Here's the schedule for the blessing of cemeteries, this Memorial Day weekend:

Saturday, May 27: 3:15 p.m., at ICC Calvary Cemetery

6:30 p.m., at SMH Oakwood Cemetery

Sunday, May 28: 9:00 a.m., at SHW Sacred Heart Cemetery

11:00 a.m., at SPPN Sts. Peter and Paul Cemetery

1:30 p.m., at SHDC Gittings Mound Cemetery

Monday, May 29: 8:30 a.m., at SPPN Nauvoo City Cemetery

6:00 p.m., at SHW Oakland Cemetery

Wednesday, May 31: 6:00 p.m., at SHDC Harris Cemetery

We meet at one location. We pray for our deceased members of the military, and then for all of our deceased relatives and friends. Holy water is used to bless the cemetery from one location. And we disperse. Ten minutes: but best spent time to honor those that because of their sacrifice and love of country, we enjoy the gift of freedom and its responsibility.

The Solemnity of the Body and Blood of Christ, June 10-11. The Masses for the weekend of June 10-11, Corpus Christi Sunday, will conclude with Benediction: the exposition of the Blessed Sacrament, the blessing of incense with hymns, Benediction itself, and the Divine Praises. We are well into the Year of the Eucharist. This is the day to express our adoration of the mystery of the Body and Blood of Christ. Tuesday afternoon Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament at SMH continues, beginning at 4 p.m.

Teens Encounter Christ, June 10-11, Quincy TEC. Are you sixteen? Have any of your friends told you about Teens Encounter Christ? If they have, you should consider participating in this upcoming TEC. And if you haven't heard about TEC - from anyone - well, guess what? You should consider participating in this upcoming TEC! Please contact us for more information.

Fr. Tony's Anniversaries. On May 27, 1978, I was ordained a priest of the Peoria diocese. On June 11, 2003, I began my priestly service to the Catholic Churches of Hancock County. 45 years a priest; 20 years served here. Your generosity and consideration - and untold patience! - has come to me in the vehicles I've driven, some vacations I've taken, and countless expressions of support. I simply can't thank you enough for what you've done for me, and for the example you've shown me in your sufferings which I have witnessed to have gone far beyond any crosses the Lord has given me to bear. This year's weekends are filled with activities and commitments of so many different kinds, all the way through June, even into July 4. That's why we set up an open house on Thursday, June 15. It's being set up in such a way that you can drop in for breakfast, lunch, or even dinner time, enjoy food, drink, and time together, and be on your way with whatever the rest of the day holds for you. And: no gifts please!! You already know how much you've done over these years. That this time can be spent gathering our people to share time together is "gift enough". I'll let you in on something, if you didn't know already: you deserve better than what you "got"! So let the Villa thank you for a change, on June 15. Fr. T.
