So, Now You Know. I remember a student from years gone by, scaling down the anxiety and embarrassment of a friend by showing the friend what to do about some matter about which I'm not all that sure: but whatever it was, the student anticipated the reaction of the friend, and gave the needed explanation before the friend had a chance to be anxious. The act of consideration was concluded by the words: "So, now you know." Translated, these words actually meant, "See? Nothing to feel anxious about."

This past weekend - except for the Dallas City and Warsaw Masses, which we'll address this weekend - we presented to our people a type of "So, now you know" step ahead of anxiety.

We presented what we're going to do this coming year, July 1, 2023 to June 30, 2024. A tuition assistance fund managed locally by the pastor, out of recognition that family need is now linked to the school's need for students. The main financial goal for the coming year, each church having its own unique challenge. The return to the Called and Gifted Charismatic Gifts Inventory to search out how our lives can be enriched by discovering the gifts of the Holy Spirit. A year of sermons to address the moral and Church issues of the day, so that our people actually know what the Catholic Church teaches, and why. Acting upon our Pastoral Council's recommendation to prioritize youth ministry and outreach to young adults. Continuing development of ministry to our Spanish speaking brothers and sisters in Christ.

And a simple concluding statement: this time next year, we'll be explaining how we did this. Not "if", not "whether". We will be explaining how we did this. So, now you know!

God's Portion Day: What a Portion! What a Day! There will probably be more than one announcement about this. What a tremendous day - and the weather turned out to be more comfortable than we thought it would be! As of the writing of this announcement, we have an unofficial count of $143,000, with more to be tabulated from sources of financial gifts attached to the God's Portion Day effort. And besides that: the SPPS Tuition Assistance Fund received donations exceeding $18,000 - in less than five minutes! The excitement, generosity, and participation throughout the day was overwhelming. Thanksgiving, appreciation, and gratitude goes out to Dan, Jim, and Matt Sullivan; to the God's Portion Day Committee; to all our volunteers; to Lindsey Henson keeping track of our progress throughout the day; to Trevor Knipe and faculty and staff of SPPS this year; to our Leadership Team, in their chosen capacities of bidding and helping.. And, to all of you. On to ever better years, building upon the contributions and accomplishments of the past; and setting course for a hopeful, confident future.

The Closing of Father's Friends. Since 2017, Father's Friends has been the source of financial relief and renewal of individuals and families in various ways, depending upon the extent of need. Our appreciation goes out to all of you who have offered prayers and your sacrificial gift to Father's Friends; implied in your generosity has been a trust in this ministry. But the conditions for priestly ministry with one priest here makes it impossible to maintain the extent of our time and outreach. We have succeeded in bringing people to the point of restoration and stability to carry on with a new chapter in their lives. It's time to close Father's Friends as we have come to know and appreciate it. Letters are being sent out to donors who have consistently supported the cause. We are moving to a tuition assistance fund for Sts. Peter and Paul School and doing so in such a way that each church will have a say in the structure and extent of support. But we want to make clear that we will have money set aside in the budget of our churches for assistance to those in need; it can't be as extensive as it has been, but we'll certainly do what we can. For those of you who have continued to show your support of Father's Friends most recently, be assured that we will make use of your gift for the needy in our communities. If this news changes what you would like to do with your most recent gift - it is your money, and you should have a say in its control and direction of use - just let me know. We will be more than happy to comply with your wishes. Fr. T.

The Solemnity of the Body and Blood of Christ, June 10-11. The Masses for the weekend of June 10-11, Corpus Christi Sunday, will conclude with Benediction: the exposition of the Blessed Sacrament, the blessing of incense with hymns, Benediction itself, and the Divine Praises. We are well into the Year of the Eucharist. This is the day to express our adoration of the mystery of the Body and Blood of Christ. Tuesday afternoon Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament at SMH continues, beginning at 4 p.m.

Fr. Tony's Anniversaries. On May 27, 1978, I was ordained a priest of the Peoria diocese. On June 11, 2003, I began my priestly service to the Catholic Churches of Hancock County. 45 years a priest; 20 years served here. Your generosity and consideration - and untold patience! - has come to me in the vehicles I've driven, some vacations I've taken, and countless expressions of support. I simply can't thank you enough for what you've done for me, and for the example you've shown me in your sufferings which I have witnessed to have gone far beyond any crosses the Lord has given me to bear. This year's weekends are filled with activities and commitments of so many different kinds, all the way through June, even into July 4th. That's why we set up an open house on Thursday, June 15. It's being set up in such a way that you can drop in for breakfast, lunch, or even dinnertime, enjoy food, drink, and time together, and be on your way with whatever the rest of the day holds for you. And: no gifts please!! You already know how much you've done over these years. That this time can be spent gathering our people to share time together is "gift enough". I'll let you in on something, if you don't know already: you deserve better than what you "got"! So let the Villa thank you for a change, on June 15. Fr. T.
