Solemnity of the Body and Blood of Christ

JUNE 11, 2023

Deuteronomy 8:2-3,14b-16a;
1 Corinthians 10:16-17; John 6:51-58

Today's feast is usually known by its Latin title "Corpus Christi." We firmly believe that, at the consecration of Mass, bread and wine become the Body and Blood of the risen Lord Jesus Christ. In Communion, then, we do not receive bread and wine; we receive the glorified Christ under the appearances of bread and wine.

After the consecration, nothing of the bread or wine remains except the "accidental appearances" such as taste, size, texture, etc. The reality is the risen Lord!

But we can receive the Body and Blood of Christ every day without any benefit unless we give ourselves to Christ. We must live by his word if his sacrament is to be of any benefit to us. This is the message of today's Mass.

The first reading tells of Moses' last instructions to the Israelites. He reminds them that they were all fed by manna, a miraculous food. But the manna did not save them unless they lived by the word of the Lord. Through the centuries, rabbis began to speak of the "bread of life" as the "Torah" or God's holy word. Whoever "ate the bread" of the Torah would live forever.

In the Gospel, Jesus says that he, not the Torah, is the bread of life. He replaces the Torah; we must live by his word. Then, astoundingly, he states that the new manna that he will give will be his flesh!

The Eucharist, then, is the sign that we give ourselves totally and completely to keep the word of Christ. Whoever lives according to his word will richly profit from the Eucharist.

The second reading reminds us of the social implications of the Eucharist. If you and you and you and I are united with the same Eucharistic Lord, then we must be united with each other. We, though many, become one Body of Christ. Therefore we must carry each other's burdens and share each other's sorrows.

CORPUS CHRISTI SUNDAY

My Dear Friends,

It's a great privilege to serve you here at Saint Francis Solanus Church. I am so grateful to God for the many friends He has given me through ministering in our parish. Let us keep ourselves in our prayers in our journey of faith. Supporting each other is a wonderful thing that we can do.

I would like to update you about my mom's health. She is doing much better. She can speak much better now. Zofia, because that's her name, still has a problem walking. She walks slowly, but with rehabilitation and therapy she has made big progress. Please keep her in your prayers.

My last two years in our parish have been very intensive. I have worked very hard to be in the place I am right now. I have taken a lot of good advice and instructions given to me by Father Arisman. He is always very nice and kind to me. Our pastor is a good mentor to me, probably the best I have ever had. I have learned a lot from him. It's great to have a person you can talk to, especially about the struggles that you have, and feel supported by him. He is also a wonderful friend to have around. We love going together for a dinner and for shaved ice that we both like so much.

I am going to lead a pilgrimage to Poland next May. It's my homeland. It will be a great opportunity for me to show you the place where I lived, where I went to the school, the place where God started to speak to me, where my vocation to the priesthood grew in my heart. The pilgrimage will be a good chance to meet my mom and be able to talk to her, and I hope to say only good things about me. We can also visit my brothers who live in my hometown. I have a twin brother, Bart. It will be awesome for you to see if there are any physical differences between us. Some of you may know my youngest brother Karol, who came to visit me last year.

Poland is a great country. We have the Baltic Sea in the north and the mountains in the south. We have a lot of castles and tourist places to visit. Warsaw and Krakow are wonderful cities. There is the old town in Warsaw and beautiful St. Mary's Church, Wawel Royal Castle and the Cathedral in Krakow. My favorite place is Zakopane. It's a beautiful mountain city located in the southern part of Poland. There are a lot of shepherds who shepherd the sheep there. They make a very popular kind of cheese called Ocypek. Zakopane is one of the cities we will visit during our pilgrimage. I will be thrilled to go with you to my home country. I encourage you to consider this pilgrimage. We are going to have time for prayer and have so much fun together.

We celebrate The Most Holy Blood and Body of Christ this Sunday, also known as Corpus Christi Sunday. It's a reminder for all of us about the real presence of Jesus in the Eucharist. The gospel of the celebration of Corpus Christi is part of the speech about the bread of life, spoken by the Lord Jesus in the synagogue in Capernaum, after the miracle of the multiplication of bread and fish. In his speech, Jesus refers to the manna that God brought from heaven in the desert for the Israelites. The Book of Exodus tells us that "when the Israelites saw it, they asked one another: 'What is this?' because they didn't know what it was. Then Moses said to them, "This is the bread that the Lord gives you to eat" (Exodus 16:15). But those who ate the manna in the desert died, so Jesus invites us to thirst for the true bread from heaven, which satisfies souls that thirst for God and gives them eternal life.

I am thankful to be parochial vicar at St Francis Solanus. This parish is a wonderful place, because of you. I cannot do much without you. We are one community of faith, especially to be seen when we pray together the "Our Father" during Mass. We bring to Jesus everything that is a part of our lives; our failures, problems, disappointments, or failed situations. We also bring what is good in us, what happens in our life because of Jesus. Please be open to Jesus in your life. Let Him fulfill your heart with His power. He is the One who loves us and forgives our sins. Let Jesus bless you all and give you the graces that you need.

Yours in Christ,

Father Rafal Pyrchla
