Today we celebrate the 11th Sunday in Ordinary Time. Our liturgy for the Sundays of Ordinary Time returns to the Gospel of Matthew. In today's Gospel Jesus sees a large crowd of people, and his heart is moved "because they were troubled and abandoned, like sheep without a shepherd."

Jesus calls forth his Twelve Apostles by name, and gave them the following divine power:

Authority over unclean spirits to drive them out;
Authority to cure every disease and illness.

Jesus then specifies that they are not to go to Gentile or Samaritan towns. Rather they are to go to "the lost sheep of the house of Israel." There they will make the proclamation, "The kingdom of heaven is at hand."

Jesus gives one final motivation to His Apostles. "Without cost you have received; without cost you are to give." As modern day disciples it would be a marvelous thing to have Jesus' divine power to cast out spirits and to cure the sick. I would imagine that it would be a bit thrilling to try out this divine power on people we know who are hurting. We wouldn't need motivation if that authority were at our fingertips.

Yet!.... as a royal priesthood in Jesus Christ, we do have authority to intercede and bring forth God's mighty deeds among us. The Kingdom of heaven is still at hand! Ask the Lord how He wishes for you to exercise your divinely received authority on behalf of the good of others. Christ's sheep are troubled and waiting for you!

Blessed Sacrament Parish is planning a Bus Trip to a Cardinals Game on Friday evening, August 12. Gary Beckman has worked hard in organizing this bus trip for us to see the St. Louis Cardinals play against the New York Mets. Cost is $85 per person. Please see the bulletin for information and how to sign up.

Finally, today is Father's Day! I would like to extend a Happy Father's Day to all of our fathers throughout the parish. May the good Lord continue to bless you as you shepherd and provide for the many spiritual and physical needs of your families.

May the Peace of Christ be with you all,
Fr. Tom

The Pilgrim Virgin Statue Church to Home Visitation

The Pilgrim Virgin statue travels from the parish church to the home of a parishioner following the Holy Mass with the purpose of bringing about the Enthronement of the Sacred Heart of Jesus in the home.

The mission of the Pilgrim Virgin statue is then completed by returning with the family to the Mass on the following week. Simply put, Our Lady always seeks to bring us to her Son.

When the Pilgrim Virgin statue enters the home for the week, it is recommended that one follow the format in the accompanying book. If possible, the family is encouraged to pray the Rosary daily. During the week, one is free to make use of the various materials that may be found in the carrying case that accompany the Pilgrim Virgin statue.

If you would like the Pilgrim Virgin statue to visit your home, please contact Denise Sangoi @217-316-5729 or
