We Request Your Thoughts and Suggestions.

Last weekend, we announced the closing of the Father's Friend's Outreach. We explained that our assistance to those in need has to be reined in a bit because of the new situation in which we find ourselves, with only one priest here. We also explained that we are budgeting an amount of money so that we will continue to help those who are in need as much as we are able to do so. And those of you who have given so consistently and generously to Father's Friends are invited to let us know what you want us to do with your most recent donations.

In place of Father's Friends, we are beginning a fund for tuition assistance for families of students at Sts. Peter and Paul School. And we need to know your thoughts and even your position on such a fund. For example: Should the collection at the beginning of the month for the school become specifically designated for tuition assistance? Do you object to the establishment of such a fund? Are there conditions under which you would (or would not) support the fund? I have stated that tuition assistance determination models come across as demeaning, intrusive, and discouraging to families coming forward to request assistance. Do you agree? Are there any suggestions you have to correct this impression? Is there anything you could tell me that would give me cause to reconsider my position in any way?

There will be a type of survey form forthcoming. But please start thinking about this now. You will be most helpful, whether in agreement or disagreement, acceptance, or reservation, in responding to my request for your thoughts. Fr. T.

The Act of Contrition: Really! You will find both the old and the new forms of the Act of Contrition in our Reconciliation Rooms for Confession, as well as for your own personal prayer. Take a look at the bulletin insert presenting these prayers; also, take note that there is a version of the Act of Contrition in Spanish. We want you to get an advance look - so that you don't have to feel like you're kneeling or sitting at a fast-food place endlessly staring at the menu of prayers before you finally select one! That line behind you can get pretty upset!

Eternal Rest Grant Unto Him, O Lord. Fred Baxter of SPPN has died after many years at the Quincy Veterans Home. In recent memory, we see him at the end of the buffet line at the Nauvoo Hotel ready to slice your choice of meat; and sitting in the Church with Carmi, his wife; and hearing about him from Mary Logan. This man endured a lot of suffering: from the way Carmi died, and also the time of the loss of their daughter. Please keep him, his family, and those who know him in your prayers.

Many Thanks for Coming to the Open House. I went to Monsignor Mack's ("Fr. Tom's" - my ordination classmate!) celebration last Sunday afternoon in Monmouth. The Church and the dinner were packed: well-deserved for him. He has been a fantastic pastor for his people - and for many seminarians over the years, now priests - and it was really something for him to call me forward so that together, we could show people how much hair and hair color we've lost, and how much weight we've gained - but hey, we're still here!

And I want you to know that I was thrilled with my own day of remembrance this past Thursday. I wanted it to be a day for you, more than for me: you've given me more than enough of "my" days. My gratitude to the priests and the people before and during my pastorate, who have to be included in any consideration of my priestly service. I don't work alone; the work of many makes possible what I have been privileged to do. I'll get back to blending behind the scenes, until we get to the 50th! Fr. T.

Called and Gifted: Charismatic Gifts Survey. The past year - school year, fiscal year, pastoral year - has been more that we could have hoped for. (Except for my own pastoral care efforts: really need to work on that one.) You have either read or heard about what we will do this coming year. This includes a re-introduction to the Called and Gifted method of discovering gifts of the Holy Spirit that are given to each of us for the building up of the Church. What I've just said about this past year has to be followed up with the following: we can't keep up, we can't progress, without more people involved in helping our efforts. I need you to be open to this. I will be consulting all of our Finance Councils and our Pastoral Council to see whether each church will pay an equal share in the expense of this program, or whether something pro-rated according to parish population is called for. Would like to know what you think. More about this, later: just wanted to give you a "head's up!" for now. Fr. T.

SPPS is Fully Staffed for the 2023/2024 School year! Thank you to all who applied and all who prayed for us, we are thrilled to announce the following new employees of SPPS: Erika Smith- 1st Grade Teacher, Donna Harmon- 4th/5th Grade Teacher, Cindy Huston- Aide, Emma Knipe- Aide, Denise Jones- Cafeteria. We are overjoyed to start the school year with some amazing additions to our already rockstar staff.

Ruthie's Party! Let's get together and celebrate Ruthie! Ruth Higgins has been a very special part of Dallas City and our community for years and we would like to thank her for all she has done. As many of you may know, Ruthie had a health scare and has finished chemo and radiation. It is time for a celebration with Ruthie. Celebration will be held on Sunday, June 25 from 2:00-5:00 p.m. at the Knights of Columbus Hall, 1275 Mulholland Street, Nauvoo IL We would like to invite all of Ruth's friends to come and share a story, a memorable moment, or a favorite time of your life with Ruth. Hope to see you there!

Warsaw Sacred Heart Ladies, We will be passing out our Bakeless Bake Sale envelopes at church following Sunday Mass. Please return by June 30 in the collection baskets. Thank you~ Gayle Roskamp and Linda Anderson.

Catholic Charities St. Nicholas Van is changing the Hancock County distribution day to the 2nd Friday of the month beginning on June 16. The time and location remain the same at 1:00 p.m. at Immaculate Conception Parish Hall in Carthage. The Catholic Charities St. Nicholas Van distributes bags of toiletries, cleaning supplies, etc. to people that meet them at the van. Please share this information with anyone who currently utilizes or could benefit from their services. Thank you!

A Spiritual Communion

My Jesus, I believe that You are in the Blessed Sacrament. I love you above all things, and I long for You in my soul. Since I cannot now receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. As though You have already come, I embrace You and unite myself entirely to You; never permit me to be separated from You. Amen.
