June 18, 2023 Eleventh Sunday in Ordinary Time

A Message from Fr. Tom Donovan:

This year we read from the Gospel of St. Matthew. Matthew is an interesting character, as he is associated with the figure who was a publican— a tax collector—one of the most reviled people of Jewish society. Tax collectors were hated, first due to their cooperation with occupying Roman force. Secondly, the tax-collecting practices of the day always had a suspicion of corruption and favoritism. As a tax collector, Matthew would have been literate and probably keen in observing the interaction of people and politics. Understandably, Matthew's gospel reveals a Jesus who deftly moves from one interaction to the next, expressing himself clearly and convincingly, and managing to evade 'traps' set for him.

In the Gospel of Matthew, so many scenes present a dilemma—a debated point of law or morality. This is the classic ways rabbis, even to this day, teach the law and the prophets. We are invited to take sides and to challenge our preconceptions about religion and faith and social conventions as Jesus shows us the right way to respond to the debate. For instance, Matthew watches intently at how Jesus interacts with the Romans: "Give unto Caesar that which is Caesar's. Give to God, that which is God's" (Matt 22:21). Jesus heals the centurion's servant, turning then to the people to remark at the great faith in the centurion, even compared to the Jewish audience (Matt 8:5-13). Jesus proclaims love for enemies (Matt 5:44) and forbearance toward their commands (Matt 5:40, 41). In turn we also see Matthew's concern over Jesus treatment of the religious elite of the temple and the messianic titles "Son of David", and "Son of God", and "Son of man". Matthew also spends time interpreting the signs of the natural and supernatural order which point to Jesus as a special figure among the Jewish prophets and teachers.

Matthew's readings are balanced for the first part of the summer with readings presented from Paul's letter to the Romans. Paul is concerned with the divergence between God's People gathered by the Law (the Jewish people) and God's people gathered in witness to the savior (the "new law", or "new covenant"). The law united God's people throughout the Old Testament days, but Christ came to teach that the Law was but a starting point on the road to true wisdom and religious faith. It is not the Law or our punctilious observance of the Law that leads to salvation, but it is our relationship with the Lawgiver himself that perfects our encounter with God's Law.

The missionaries are coming! Sisters from the Order of the Franciscan Sisters of the Immaculate Heart of Mary (FIH) are offering the annual Missionary Appeal at St. Anthony next weekend, June 24 & 25. The sisters will introduce their mission and describe their evangelization and relief efforts in India, Kenya, Uganda, and other apostolates around the world. The reason for the "Missionary Appeal" each year is to help us to recognize the good work that is being done in our name and in the name of the Church by these missionaries and others throughout the world. They will also take the opportunity to request your help to assist their missions through a special collection.

In their introductory letter to me, they explain, "A French missionary, the Rev. Father Louis Savinien Dupui, founded the FIH Order in India. The basic aim of the order is to promote the education of the poor, especially poor girls irrespective of casts or creed. Our sisters reach out to help the families suffering from lack of basic necessities of life. This year's appeal is for the repair and renovation of the orphanage house.

FIH sisters earnestly request you to support prayerfully and financially their mission to provide a decent living quarters for the poor village girls. Your assistance in this regard will be appreciated and blessed. We assure you in return our humble prayers."

Thank you in advance for your support of this missionary work!

A Message from Mrs. Carol Frericks—Principal

Thank You for Supporting St. Dominic School Junefest

Thanks be to God for the wonderful gift of parish and school families working together to provide the St. Dominic School Junefest for our community. On Saturday, June 3, many families and friends gathered together on the beautiful campus of St. Dominic School for a lovely evening of fun with food, games, and entertainment. Fr. Tom provided Mass at 4:00 p.m. and we gave thanks to God for the beautiful weather and opportunity to enjoy time together at Junefest. Then, the Junefest festivities, including Game Town, live entertainment and music, lots of games, bingo, the basket raffle, a silent auction, and delicious food, were enjoyed by a large crowd from 5:00 p.m. to midnight. Thanks so much for supporting Junefest!

Congratulations to Jesse Adams

On Sunday, June 4 at the special 6:30 p.m. Mass following Junefest, Jesse Adams who is a student at St. Dominic School, received his sacraments to become Catholic and joined St. Anthony Parish. Jesse knows how to answer God's call and he experiences many Holy Moments at school.

During Junefest Jesse helped his mother, Sarah, with the Basket Raffle on Wednesday, Saturday, and Sunday. At the end of the festivities on Saturday evening, he also generously donated his money to support Junefest. Jesse gives from his kind heart and is willing to lend a helpful hand for others.

Holy Moments Happen Every Day!

Come and enjoy food and drinks, Live music by "Southern Rail" (7:30-11:30 p.m.), Bingo in air conditioning, country store, Kiddieland with crafts, games, basket raffle, Silent Auction, Raffle ($2,000 in cash prizes), and fun for the whole family!

Ladies of the parish we will need pies, cakes and cookies for the food tent. Please no items that needs refrigerated or that will not hold up in the heat.

GriefShare Begins

August 10, 6:00 p.m.

GriefShare Starts the Next Series of Sessions: St. Anthony's GriefShare begins a new round of sessions August 10, at 6:00 p.m. in the Fr. Irenaeus Kimminau Parish Center. GriefShare is a Biblically based program that helps persons who have had a loved one pass away. GriefShare is a friendly, caring group of people who will walk alongside of you through one of life's most difficult experiences. You don't have to go through the grieving process alone. We will be offering the additional session "Surviving the Holidays" at the end of the sessions. Each meeting includes a video presentation with experts and folks who have had their own losses and share their experiences. There are small group discussion where you can share or just listen and a workbook that guides you and helps you track your progress. Non-parish members are also welcome. There is no cost as GriefShare is provided at St. Anthony's by parishioners through their We Care donations. To register or for questions call the parish office, Jim Liesen at (217) 577-6664 or Deacon Harry or Cindy Cramer at (217) 224-1160. Thank you.
