JUNE 18, 2023

Ex 19:2-6a; Rom 5:6-11; Mt 9:36—10:8 (91)

St. Pope John Paul II popularized the term “New Evangelization” to describe the urgent mission of the Church to proclaim the Gospel anew in our day. We recognize evangelization in the efforts of foreign missionaries to preach the gospel to all nations, but the “New Evangelization” also proposes that those who have already heard the Gospel are called to deepen their faith, especially where it has become weak. Like the first Apostles commissioned by Jesus and empowered by the Holy Spirit to preach and work signs and wonders in his name, the members of the Church today are urged to offer faithful witness of others that “the kingdom of heaven is at hand.”

Eleventh Sunday in Ordinary Time, June 18, 2023

Dear Parishioners,

Although we returned to what is called “Ordinary Time” the day after Pentecost, the two Solemnities that we celebrated, “Trinity” and “The Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ” prevented us from celebrating this time on the weekends. This is the first free weekend since Pentecost and thus we begin to celebrate “Ordinary Time” as we celebrate the 11th Sunday.

Today our gospel finds Jesus looking around at the world, and in those beautiful words of St. Matthew, we hear that “Jesus’ heart was moved with pity for the crowd gathered because they were deeply troubled and abandoned, like sheep without a shepherd.” So we find Jesus looking to His followers and saying to them, “the harvest is abundant but the laborers are few; so ask the master of the harvest to send out laborers for His harvest.” Those words of Jesus continue to ring true. I was thinking about them in relationship to my personal experiences. I entered the seminary in 1967 at our diocesan seminary in Springfield. For the older priests, this had been called the “Latin School” since its purpose was to help the students to learn Latin since much of their theology would be in that language. Again, this was the time in history when Latin was used at all Masses and in many prayers. When I started my seminary schooling, we were immersed in Latin but also took several other college courses. My class started with about 14 young men. Through the next 8 years of schooling, two of those men were ordained priests. The harvest is rich, 14 men, but that laborers are few, 2 ordained. And one of those ordained left the priesthood after serving several years. As I continue to look back, there were many more talented and capable young men than myself who entered the seminary, but discerned a different call than myself to another state of life. I firmly believe though that Jesus continues to have His heart moved with pity and continues to call people as shepherds for His Church. He tells us over and over and I recognize it in my life, that “His grace is enough.” In my case that is self-evident. When we think “why would Jesus call me to a religious vocation,” it is a question I continually asked myself. When I was younger I had a severe speech impediment and now I preach for a living. Through my years of schooling, I was an average student; and yet God called me. Yes, His calling doesn’t make sense at times but when He calls He gives us the grace and that is enough. I firmly believe that God is continually calling young men to be shepherds. I only hope our families are encouraging such a vocation in life. And as a parish, I ask you to pray for more Vocations to the priesthood and religious life.

Today is Father’s Day. On behalf of our parish family, I want to extend to the Fathers gathered here this weekend a very Happy Father’s Day. There are some special prayer pamphlets entitled “Father’s Prayers” located in the narthex of the Church for any Father who would like to use them for prayer.

I want to congratulate all of our college graduates who were listed in our bulletin last weekend. It is amazing how God has gifted our young people and how they have used their gifts to receive quality education to prepare them for differing vocations in life. But whatever the vocation, I remind them that they are to always give honor and glory to their God who gifted them. Stay faithful to Him!

We need your input!

Beginning this week, we are conducting a comprehensive survey of the entire parish. This planning study follows an extensive process that helped produce our parish master plan. Before we make any final decisions regarding the long-range plan for St. Peter Catholic Church and School, we would like to hear from you.

You will all be receiving communication in the mail in the next few weeks, asking to share your thoughts regarding our needs and the possibility of conducting a major fundraising effort. Your feedback will enable us to determine potential support for the master plan projects. If we, as a faith community, choose to move forward, the planning study will also provide us with information to identify prospective campaign leaders and to establish a realistic campaign goal.

The Steier Group, our development firm, will compile this information and present it to our parish leadership. At that time, we will make an informed decision regarding the implementation of our plan.

We believe that this process is extremely important, and we encourage each and every parish family to participate. Your input is valuable as we plan for the future of St. Peter Catholic Church and School.

Fr. Leo's column continued..

Just a couple of issues to which I want to draw your attention. We have decided to do another pictorial directory this summer. It will be a little different from what we have been used to in the past. But a new directory is needed as families change, new families have come into the parish, and parishioners have entered God's family in heaven. We are looking for 100% cooperation. Please consult the parish bulletin to assist you in signing up for pictures as well as information concerning this new group who will be making our book.

Also, all of you have been sent information concerning the Steier group who will be doing a feasibility study concerning a building project for our parish. The major part is the consideration of a new cafeteria attached to our grade school with much needed classrooms above it. With this project, then we can consider our current school cafeteria as a parish center with much more flexibility for funeral dinners, meetings and gatherings. A second project is to consider a gymnasium for our students and athletes. This will be in conjunction with QND and provide much needed gym space. Through interviews you will be able to give your opinions.

ON THE LIGHTER SIDE: Mr. Allen, a high-powered executive trying to impress his client in his office, flipped on his intercom switch and barked to his secretary, "Miss Hunter, get my broker!"

The client was impressed until he heard the secretary's clear voice saying, "Yes sir—stock or pawn?"

Exciting News - New Church Directory! Online & In Print

Father Leo, with strong encouragement from Father Zach, has determined it is time for our new pictorial church directory. Families have grown, we have welcomed new members, and some have moved. It is important we remain connected in spirit AND in-person, putting faces with names.

We are looking for 100% participation! To help... we have secured a reputable photography company, Trotter Photo, along-with a local and familiar face, Teresa Huner, owner of Picture This Photo. Together, they are providing photo sessions free of charge! [And NO in-person sales.]

When was the last time you had a professional family portrait? Do not let this extra special opportunity pass by. It just doesn't get any easier than this and in the comfort of your own parish!

What's more, Trotter Photo will be designing our new directory, for sale by print AND including a new online directory to share with our members at no charge! The online directory will allow our church to store member information securely and the flexibility to make changes as we go forward. Printed directories can be ordered online (instructions provided at your photo session) and all purchased photo packages will include an additional free 8x10 (just for you) from the church as our way of saying, "Thank you" for taking the time to support this initiative.

Details regarding the photography sessions can be found here: <https://www.trotterphoto.com/spchurch>
Sessions are scheduling now - with a variety of dates and times provided between June 27 - July 20. We have a lot of members, so do not delay reserving a spot.

Tolton Procession

This year's annual Pilgrimage Procession to the grave of the Venerable Servant of God Father Augustine Tolton, the first publicly-recognized Black priest in the USA, will take place on July 9, the 126th anniversary of his death. The pilgrimage procession will leave from the statue of Father Tolton outside St. Peter's church in Quincy at 4:00 p.m. and walk to his grave, about a mile away, for the praying of Evening Prayer at 4:30 p.m. Those who cannot participate in the walk may meet the procession at the cemetery. Due to lack of space, no one should park in the cemetery itself. Chairs and bottled water will be provided at the cemetery.

QND Cheer Camp

QND Cheer Camp will be held July 24-27. Camp held nightly from 6-8 p.m. (rain or shine) at QND, 1400 S. 11th. in front of school. Camp is open to children 3 years old to 8th grade. Check-in begins at 5:15 p.m. on Monday. $40 per camper, $35 for each additional child in same family. Cost includes camp, t-shirt, snacks & dinner on Thursday 5-6pm. Campers will perform at 6:30 on July 27. For more info. contact Coach Grace Peters at: petersgra96@gmail.com
